THE 2012 SEASON NOTES & MORE

NO BIG CHAMPIONSHIP OR BOWL IN 2012

Due to an NCAA major infraction, the Ohio State University football program is ineligible for post-season play during the 2012 season. This penalty was imposed by the NCAA Committee on Infractions in response to extra benefits and preferential treatment violations involving institutional memorabilia and apparel. Additional penalties for the football program include the imposition of a three year probationary period from December 20, 2011 to December 19, 2014; the reduction of scholarships from 85 to 82 during the 2012-13, 2013-14, and 2014-15 academic years; and the vacation of all wins from the 2010 season.

In response to the major infraction, the institution has increased its compliance educational and monitoring efforts regarding preferential treatment, extra benefits, institutional memorabilia and apparel. Further, a greater emphasis has been placed on the education of the Columbus community, local businesses, boosters and other constituents to ensure knowledge of NCAA, Big Ten, and institutional regulations. The Ohio State University continues to strive to create a compliance conscience within the university and throughout Buckeye Nation.

THE URBAN MEYER ERA

The 2012 campaign will be the debut season for Ohioan Urban Meyer as Ohio State head coach. Born in Toledo, raised in Ashtabula and with degrees from the University of Cincinnati and The Ohio State University, Meyer returned to his home state – as did his wife, Shelley, who is from Frankfort, Ohio – to become the 24th head coach in the storied history of Ohio State football.

THE 2012 SEASON NOTES & MORE

123RD FOOTBALL SEASON

The 2012 football season will be the 123rd season for the Ohio State football program. Football became a varsity sport at Ohio State in 1890. Ohio State ranks fifth all-time in NCAA Division I history with 825 wins. Ohio State's all-time record is 825-315-53.

100TH BIG TEN SEASON

The 2012 season will be Ohio State's 100th season of play in the Big Ten Conference. Ohio State joined the former Western Conference during the 1912-13 academic year, but it could not compete in the conference in football until 1913. Ohio State ranks second in all-time Big Ten wins with a record of 457-171-24. Ohio State also ranks second with 34 outright or shared Big Ten championships.

90TH YEAR IN OHIO STADIUM

Grand and venerable Ohio Stadium, which is registered on the National Register of Historic Places, will host its 90th football season in 2012. Ohio Stadium is endearingly nicknamed the "Horeshoe" or the "Shoe" because of its open south end. It is also referred to as the "House that Harley Built" after Chic Harley, Ohio State's first three-time All-American who fans flocked to see at Ohio Field in 1916-17-19. Just one year after Harley's career at Ohio State was over, things were in motion for a new stadium for the Buckeyes.

From authors Marv Homan, a former Ohio State radio announcer and sports information director, and reporter Paul Hornung, who co-wrote "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football," the stadium took shape this way:

- 1919—Led by Harley, Ohio State recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3, and the program was becoming a major force in the Western Conference. Ohio Field could not support the legions of fans that wanted to see the team play.
- 1920—Professor and athletic board member Paul French, and Director of Athletics Lynn St. John started an extensive stadium fund raising campaign while interest was soaring in the program. The goal was to raise the "unrealistic" amount of $600,000 for the stadium campaign. Five weeks later more than $900,000 had been pledged. Ohio State went undefeated that season and received its first invitation to the Rose Bowl, further raising interest in the program.

- 1921—A ground-breaking ceremony was held Aug. 3 with Ohio Governor Harry Davis part of a crowd of over 2,500 at the event. It was speculated the stadium would hold 35,000 fans. Upon completion, it would seat over 60,000.
- 1922—The $1.5 million dollar stadium, of which more than $1.0 million was donated by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans, was christened when Ohio State defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 5-0, in front of a crowd of 25,000. Ohio Stadium was dedicated prior to the Oct. 21 game against Michigan. With temporary stands in the south end of the stadium a crowd of 72,500 was on hand.
- 1928—L.W. St. John announces that all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering Ohio Stadium had only been standing for eight years.

OHIO STADIUM STATS

Ohio State has an all-time record of 396-109-20 in Ohio Stadium and the stadium has an official capacity of 102,329. The Buckeyes have not played before fewer than 100,000 fans in the last 70 games, or since the completion of a three-year renovation project in 2001 that restored and improved the stadium but also boosted attendance from an 88,000-plus capacity to over 100,000. Ohio State has played before more than 105,000 fans 43 times with a record crowd of 106,033 vs. USC on Sept. 12, 2009.

OHIO STADIUM SIGHT AND SOUND

A $7 million improvements project this summer replaced the 11-year-old Ohio Stadium scoreboard and audio system with a larger, HD screen flanked by two clusters of speakers with new LED ribbon boards running the length of the South Stands. The new Panasonic scoreboard will be 42-feet-by-124-feet. The improvements project also included the conversion of 223 standard televisions to HD sets in the concourse areas.

THE 2012 SEASON NOTES & MORE

ROSTER MAKE-UP

The Ohio State roster consists of 106 student-athletes – scholarship and walk-ons – with 21 of them seniors (eligibility-wise). The rest of the roster includes 17 juniors, 26 sophomores and 42 red-shirt and true freshmen.

“MAKE THE GREAT STATE OF OHIO PROUD”

Back home in Ohio to live for the first time in nine years, Meyer addressed publicly early in his tenure that his goal was for his coaches and players and program to “make the great state of Ohio proud” [in everything they do].

SEVEN OF NINE ASSISTANTS ARE OHIOANS

Meyer’s nine-man assistant coaching staff includes seven assistants who were born, raised and/or schooled in Ohio with many having recruited the state as collegiate coaches.

- Kerry Coombs is from Colerain, graduated from Dayton and has coached in the state for 30 years; 24 years in the high school ranks and five years collegiately.
- Stan Drayton is from Cleveland, graduated from Allegheny and is in his fourth year coaching in the state.
- Luke Fickell is from Columbus, graduated from Ohio State and has been a college coach in the state for 14 years.
- Tim Hinton is from Amanda, graduated from Wilmington and has coached collegiately or in the high school ranks in the state in 28 of his 30 years in the business.
- Zach Smith is from Dublin, and is in his eighth year coaching collegiately and his sixth on an Urban Meyer staff.
- Mike Vrabel is from Akron, graduated from Ohio State and is in his second year coaching at his alma mater.
- Ed Warinner is from Strasburg, graduated from Mount Union and is in his 29th year of coaching and second as an assistant at an Ohio school.

199 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE

Meyer’s Ohio State coaching staff has 199 combined years of NFL, college and high school coaching experience. The total includes three coaches on staff with college head coaching experience (Meyer, Luke Fickell and Everett Withers), two with a combined 32 years of high school head coaching experience (Kerry Coombs and Tim Hinton), two with 12 years of offensive coordinator experience on the collegiate level (Tom Herman and Ed Warinner) and two with 15 years of collegiate defensive coordinator or co-defensive coordinator experience (Withers and Fickell).

BUCKEYE NUMBERS

- 1 – Active Football Bowl Subdivision coaches who have a better career winning percentage than Urban Meyer’s .819 (Boise State’s Chris Peterson is first at .926).
- 2 – Number of national championships won by Meyer and number of “Coach of the Decade” honors for him (The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated).
- 3 – Number of scholarship linebackers on the team who have game experience (38 games for Etienne Sabino, 13 for Ryan Shazier and 10 for Curtis Grant).
- 3 – Buckeyes with at least 700 career rushing yards (817 for Jordan Hall, 715 for Braxton Miller and 707 for Carlos Hyde).
- 4 – Number of defensive line starters returning in 2011, not including 13-game starter Nathan Williams, who missed all but one game in 2011.
- 4 – Number of consecutive home games to open the season and number of road games this season.
- 6 – Field goals made from 40 yards and beyond by Drew Basil in 2011, second-most in school history.
- 9 – Number of freshmen from the 2012 recruiting class who participated in spring drills (six enrolled in January and three in March).
- 10 – Approximate number of weeks (from end of June) running back Jordan Hall is expected to miss after having surgery for a deep cut on his right foot.
- 13 – Freshman school record total of touchdown passes thrown by Braxton Miller in 2011.
- 17 – Starters returning from last season (eight on defense; seven on offense).
- 25 – Number of letterwinners lost off the 2011 team.
- 27 – Combined tackles-for-loss by defensive linemen John Simon and Johnathan Hankins in 2011 (for minus-83 yards).
- 33 – Number of career starts along the offensive line, including 13 apiece for LT Jack Mewhort and LG Andrew Norwell.
- 34 – Number of wins by Urban Meyer’s teams by 30-or-more points (20 by at least 30 points and 14 by at least 40 points).
- 47 – Number of letterwinners returning off the 2011 team.
- 62 – Starts from the defensive secondary, including 39 from the safeties (15 apiece for Orhian Johnson and C.J. Barnett and nine for Christian Bryant) and 23 from the cornerbacks (13 for Bradley Roby and 10 for Travis Howard).
- 75 – Team-leading total number of tackles for safety C.J. Barnett in 2011. The total snapped a string of nine-consecutive years of linebackers leading the team.
- 78 – Team-high number of combined starting assignments for the defensive line. Simon leads all Buckeyes with 26 starts.
- 100 – Percentage of the six winter quarter enrollees – Jacoby Boren, Bri’onte Dunn, Cardale Jones, Joshua Perry, Tyvis Powell and Michael Thomas – who were named OSU Scholar-Athletes for having at least a 3.0 GPA this winter and spring.

AMONG THE NATION’S ELITE IN APR SCORES

The Ohio State football program received a Public Recognition Award from the NCAA in June for having an Academic Progress Rate score in the Top 10 percent of all FBS schools nationally. Ohio State’s football APR of 988 was the fourth-highest among major programs nationally and second-highest in the Big Ten Conference. Only 12 FBS schools received a Public Recognition Award. The APR is a measure of a team’s academic performance and factors in eligibility, retention and graduation.

THE 2012 SEASON NOTES & MORE*LUKE: FOURTH DC RETAINED BY MEYER

Urban Meyer has held four head coaching positions and at each school he has retained the previous staff's defensive coordinator. It's an impressive list that now includes Luke Fickell, co-defensive coordinator for six years before moving to head coach last year. The others: Tim Beckman at Bowling Green (Beckman is now head coach at Illinois); Kyle Whittingham at Utah (he is entering his seventh season as Utah head coach); and Charlie Strong at Florida (Strong just completed his second season as head coach at Louisville.).

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE TEAM STATS

Urban Meyer's 10 previous collegiate teams have been extremely balanced in all phases of the game. His teams have led their respective conference in a statistical category 43 times, including in 17 offensive categories, 12 defensive, nine special teams and five times in turnover margin. Some highlights:

- His team's have led in total offense four times, including three times by Florida;
- Four times his teams have led in scoring offense and passing efficiency;
- His defenses have led a league three times against the rush and twice in scoring;
- His return teams – punt and kickoff – have led a total of five times; and
- His teams have led in net punting three times.

Meyer's teams have been ranked among the nation's Top 10 in team statistical categories 49 times, including NCAA statistical champions in passing efficiency (Florida; 2009) and kickoff returns (Utah; 2003).

DEFENSE AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

Ohio State's defensive units the last seven years under Fickel and the now retired Jim Heacock have been good...real good! The defense has been an NCAA statistical champion four times in that span – 2005 rushing; 2007 total, scoring and pass defense – and it has been among the Top 5 15 other times.

LOGOS

The FieldTurf at Ohio Stadium will wear the logo of the Big Ten Conference this season. B1G logos will be at both ends of the field between the 20 and 30 yard lines and facing the press box. This year the team's jerseys will also sport the B1G logo on the front right chest.

IVON BLACKMAN

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN | 6-3, 310, Jr.
Bedford, Ohio | Bedford H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Ivan is in his third year with the program, having initially joined the team in the fall of 2010 ... transferred to Ohio State after spending at year at Robert Morris ... earned his first varsity letter in 2011 after seeing playing time in four games.

More on Ivon: Ivon is a two-time OSU Scholar-Athlete as well as an Academic all-Big Ten Conference honoree who is majoring in political science ... he lettered at St. Joseph's H.S. as a sophomore and then moved on to Bedford where he played two seasons for coach John Gibbons ... all-Lake Erie League and all-district as a junior and senior ... also competed in track and field ... Ivon is the son of Ivory and Jacob Kangah, and Edgar "Buddy" Kettles ... speaks French as Jacob Kangah was born on the Ivory Coast and spoke the language in the Kangah household ... younger brother, Frank Kangah, is also a member of the football team at Ohio State.

DEVAN BOGARD*DEFENSIVE BACK | 6-0, 192, Fr.
Cleveland, Ohio | Glenville H.S.

Overview: Devan is yet another punishing Glenville High School defensive back who could have gone almost anywhere and yet he chose the Buckeyes ... called by some recruiting analysts as the hardest-hitter among an Ohio senior class full of big-hitting safeties, Bogard is the latest in an impressive line of Tarblooder DBs – and players – to end up at Ohio State, a list that includes NFL DBs Donte Whitner and Jermale Hines and current Buckeye Christian Bryant, and also includes 2006 Heisman Trophy winner Troy Smith and NFL receiver/return man Ted Ginn ... Bogard was a first-team Division I all-state selection by the Associated Press after a 91-tackle-two-interception senior season for coach Ted Ginn ... named special mention all-state as a junior after recording 74 tackles and an interception ... was considered the No. 1 safety in Ohio in 2011 by Bill Kurelic and garnered national rankings of No. 14 by Rivals.com, No. 24 by Scout.com – both sites had Bogard projected as a four-star prospect – and No. 32 by ESPNU ... ranked as the No. 6 senior in the state by 247Sports and No. 21 by Scout.com ... is the son of Cynthia Shakir and Ali Shakir ... played in the OHSFCA North-South Classic at Ohio Stadium.

JACOBY BOREN*OFFENSIVE LINEMAN | 6-2, 283, Fr.
Pickerington, Ohio | Pickerington Central H.S.

Overview: Jacoby, playing mostly at offensive guard, was a first-team Division I Ohio all-state selection by the Associated Press as a senior ...

he helped lead Central, coached by Jay Sharrett, to the first Division I state championship game in school history and an 11-3 record in 2011 ... Boren was a two-way player on a team that lost its first two games of the season, but then won 11 consecutive games before losing in the state championship game to Cleveland St. Ignatius ... rated the No. 37 offensive guard in the country by Rivals.com and No. 41 by ESPNU ... also rated as the No. 37 player in the six-state Midwest region by SuperPrep ... a four-year letterwinner, a three-time all-Ohio Capital Conference first-team performer, an all-central district honoree and a member of the Columbus Dispatch 2011 all-Metro team, Jacoby is the third Boren brother to play for the Buckeyes after Zach, a senior fullback for the Buckeyes, and Justin, a two-year starter (2009-10) who plays for the Baltimore Ravens ... the Boren brothers (and sister Kallie) are the children of Mike and Hope Boren, both of whom were student-athletes at Michigan ... Mike finished his football career at Michigan in 1983 as the second-leading tackler in school history with 332 tackles, a total that still ranks sixth all-time in school history ... Hope competed in track and field ... Jacoby enrolled at Ohio State in January 2012.

Pickerington, Ohio | Pickerington Central H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Three-year and 27-game starter Zach Boren hasn't needed a statistical box for his career rushing stats entering his senior year because his rushing stats consisted of one rush for two yards (vs. Michigan in 2010) ... expect him to have rushing stats to go along with his receiving statistics this season as Coach Urban Meyer's Ohio State spread offense will be designed to get playmakers in space, and Boren has the skills – "he can run with and catch the football," Meyer said in May – to be a playmaker ... although not having a carry in 2011, Zach was honored as the team's Rex Kern Award winner as the team's outstanding offensive back ... that's because he is selfless in fulfilling his role as a powerful blocking back and as an occasional pass catcher out of the backfield (six receptions for 60 yards in 2011 and 20 career receptions) ... his blocking skills are consistently mentioned by Ohio State running backs after their big games, and in three years there have been 20 100-yard rushing efforts by Buckeyes with Zach helping lead the way ... a starter from virtually the first day he stepped onto the practice field for Ohio State, Zach started five times (rotating with TEs and WRs) in 2009, 10 times in 2010 and 12 times last year ... he was the recipient of the team's Outstanding First-Year Offensive Player award in 2009.

More on Zach: Zach is majoring in sport and leisure studies ... the No. 2 baseball player in the state coming out of high school, he seriously considered playing the sport for the Buckeyes this past spring, but elected not to so he could concentrate on learning the new offense and helping younger players pick it up ... named Ohio's defensive player of the year as a senior linebacker for coach Jay Sharett's 13-1 OCC and regional champion Central team in 2008 ... OCC and district player of the year in baseball ... the younger brother of former Buckeye Justin Boren (now with the Baltimore Ravens) and the older brother of Ohio State true freshman offensive lineman Jacoby Boren ... the Boren brothers (and younger sister, Kallie) are the sons of Mike and Hope Boren, both of whom were student-athletes at Michigan ... Mike finished his football career at Michigan in 1983 as the second-leading tackler in school history with 332 tackles, a total that still ranks sixth all-time in school history ... Hope competed in track and field.

DALTON BRITT*DEFENSIVE LINEMAN | 6-2, 295, Sr.
Bellville, Ohio | Clearfork H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Dalton is a fifth-year senior who is in his fourth full year as a member of the football program ... he initially wrestled at Ohio State before walking on to the football team in 2009, the year Ohio State won its fifth consecutive Big Ten championship and defeated Oregon in the Rose Bowl.

More on Dalton: A criminology major, Dalton was an outstanding high school wrestler at Clear Fork H.S., qualifying for the Ohio state meet twice ... he finished seventh in the heavyweight division in 2008 and was sectional and district champion ... he was his wrestling team's captain and a two-time MVP ... played football for coach Rick Beans ... participated in the Ohio North-South All-Star game ... Dustin is the son of Bryon and Sherry Britt ... he has a brother, Dustin, and a sister, Sharecca ... his grandfather played football at LSU and an uncle played the sport at Kent State.

COREY BROWN

Monroeville, Pa. | Gateway H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Corey is in his fourth year with the football program ... he signed his letter of intent in February of 2009 and he red-shirted the 2009 season as a Buckeye ... he has since played in 21 games, eight in 2010 and all 13 this past season, and he is a two-year letterwinner ... he enters the 2012 season with nine career tackles – and a career-high four in 2010 vs. Purdue – and he came out of the 2012 spring drills listed as a back-up to Christian Bryant at one of the safety positions.

More on Corey: This Corey Brown, who is majoring in criminology, is known as Corey "Pittsburgh" Brown because of his hometown's proximity to the Steel City ... was a fine two-way performer for coach Terry Smith at Gateway H.S. ... had 84 tackles, two interceptions and 20 pass break-ups as a defensive back as a senior and, as a receiver, he had 42 catches for 708 yards and 15 touchdowns ... named first-team all-state and to the U.S. Army All-American Bowl game ... had three interceptions in the Hawaii-US Mainland all-star game ... named to the Tribune-Review Terrific 25 and post-Gazette Fabulour 22 teams ... Corey is the son of Sarah and George Brown.

COREY BROWN

WIDE RECEIVER | 5-11, 186, Jr.
Upper Darby, Pa. | Cardinal O'Hara H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Corey Brown the receiver, from Upper Darby, Pa., just outside of Philadelphia, likes to be called by his name "Corey," but most everyone refers to him as "Philly" to distinguish him from the other Corey Brown on the team: Corey "Pittsburgh" Brown the defensive back from Monroeville, Pa. ... anyway, this Corey Brown won the Paul Warfield Award as the team's outstanding receiver in 2011 after tying for the team lead with 14 receptions for 205 yards and one touchdown ... he had games of three receptions for 61 yards vs. Nebraska, a career-high four (for-34 yards) vs. Wisconsin and he capped the season with two catches for a career-high 76 yards, including a 54-yard touchdown reception, vs. Michigan ... he started nine times in 2011, missing four other games with an ankle issue ... a veteran of 22 games and 10 starts, Corey tops all wide receivers on the team with 22 career receptions for 310 yards and two scores ... he scored a TD on a 15-yard reception in 2010 vs. Purdue ... he was the recipient of the team's Outstanding First-Year Offensive Player award in 2010.

More on Corey: A criminology major, Corey was an Under Armour All-American following his high school career at Cardinal O'Hara, located just outside of Philadelphia ... rushed for over 3,000 yards and had over 1,500 yards receiving and was twice an all-state selection ... also scored 50 touchdowns for coach Dan Algeo ... all-state in track, as well, and held county 200-meter dash record of 21.4 upon graduation ... is the son of Delene Williams.

TOMMY BROWN

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN | 6-4, 310, Fr.
Akron, Ohio | Akron Firestone H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Tommy is in his second year with the program ... he red-shirted the 2011 season as a true freshman ... he came out of the 2012 spring drills listed as a co-backup at the right tackle position.

More on Tommy: Tommy is exploring majors ... he was all-Ohio, all-city and all-district as an exceptional two-way lineman for Akron Firestone H.S. and coach Tim Flossie ... recorded 58 tackles, 22 sacks, one safety on defense as a Falcon senior ... all-academic and team's most valuable lineman ... city champion in shot put and discus ... two-year bowling letterman ... yearbook staff leader ... Tommy is the son of Tommy and Theresa Brown.

CHRISTIAN BRYANT

Cleveland, Ohio/Glenville H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Christian brings a physical presence to the field every game ... this true junior played in 12 games during the 2011 season, missing only the Michigan game with a shoulder injury, and he started nine times ... he is experienced with 19 games and 10 starts, and he has 78 career tackles – a total that is fifth-most on the team – and nine passes defended ... in 2011 Christian ranked in a tie for third in the Big Ten with eight pass break-ups, and his eight total passes defended (PBUs and INTs) ranked 13th in the league ... he was tied for second among Buckeyes in passes defended ... he was also third with 68 tackles, a figure that included a career-high 10 vs. Nebraska and nine vs. both Michigan State and Purdue ... Christian played in seven games as a true freshman in 2010 ... pressed into safety duty that year vs. Illinois because of an injury to Tyler Moeller and responded with five solo tackles ... made his first career start the next week vs. Indiana ... a foot issue kept him out of five games later in the season.

More on Christian: There's a reason Christian, who is majoring in African-American & African studies, brings a physical presence to the field every game, and that's because he is a Tar Blooder from Glenville H.S. ... he is another in a talented line of hard-hitting Glenville defensive backs that have played for the Buckeyes, including current NFL performers Donte Whitner and Jermale Hines ... he was an all-Ohio defender for coach Ted Ginn and the Senate Conference offensive player of the year as a senior when Glenville went 13-2 ... he was named to the U.S. Army All-American Bowl ... he also ran track and was an honor roll student ... he is the son of Tonya Ellis and Ronnie Bryant.

Sometime during the morning of November 28, 2011, Ohio native Urban Meyer returned home. It was at that time when the 47-year-old Meyer, born in Toledo, raised in Ashtabula and with degrees from the University of Cincinnati and The Ohio State University, signed a six-year agreement to become the 24th head coach in the storied history of Ohio State football.

The only candidate interviewed by a five-member search committee of senior Ohio State leaders, headed by President E. Gordon Gee and Director of Athletics Gene Smith, Meyer, now 48, returns to collegiate coaching after sitting out the past year to devote time to his family – wife Shelley, college-age daughters Nicole and Gisele and 13-year-old son Nathan – and to work as an analyst for ESPN.

"In Urban Meyer we have found an exemplary person and remarkable coach to lead the University's football program into the future," Gee said. "As an alumnus, he understands and believes in the core academic mission of the University. As an Ohioan, he shares our common values and sense of purpose."

Smith said that Meyer is "known not only as one of the nation's most successful coaches, but also as a leader and mentor who cares deeply about the young men who are his student-athletes. He brings with him an understanding of the University – both the important traditions of its football program and the excellence of the institution."

It's easy to see why he was the No. 1 choice of the search committee.

Through 10 full seasons as a head coach, Meyer has the tenth-best winning percentage in major college football history with a winning rate of .814 (104-23). He will leap all the way to No. 2 among current major college coaches with that percentage, trailing only the .926 percentage owned by Boise State's Chris Peterson.

HEAD COACH URBAN MEYER

Meyer has already won two national championships – in 2006 and 2008 with the University of Florida – and no less than three national coach of the year honors, including The Sporting News honor in 2003 and the Eddie Robinson and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards, respectively, in 2004.

Meyer has not only won big at each of his three previous head coaching positions, but he has won immediately. He led Bowling Green to the best turnaround season in the nation in 2001 with an 8-3 record and he went 9-3 in Year 2. He was 22-2 in two seasons at Utah, including a 16-game winning streak and a 12-0 campaign in 2004 when he led the first-ever non-Bowl Championship Season program into a BCS game.

He was 65-15 in his six seasons at Florida with the two national titles, two Southeastern Conference championships and three 13-win seasons, including consecutive 13-win seasons in 2008 and 2009 to become the first coach ever to accomplish that feat.

And now he brings his coaching talents home to Ohio, the state where he has lived for 25 of his 47 years and where he met his wife, the former Shelley Mather, who grew up in Frankfort, Ohio.

“I am honored and humbled by the opportunity to return to Ohio State,” said Meyer. “This University and the state of Ohio have enormous meaning to me. My duty is to ensure that Ohio State’s football program reflects and enhances the academic mission of the institution. I am part of it, I believe in it, and I will live it.”

It all Started In Ohio

After graduating from Saint John High School in Ashtabula, Meyer was a 13th-round MLB draft pick of the Atlanta Braves and spent two years in minor league baseball. He matriculated to Cincinnati and played defensive back for the football program, graduating in 1986 with his bachelor’s degree in psychology.

Meyer’s first football coaching experience was as an intern at St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati in 1986. The following year, he joined Coach Earle Bruce’s staff at Ohio State and spent two years as a graduate assistant – coaching tight ends in 1986 and receivers in 1987 – while pursuing his master’s degree in sports administration.

It was during his time as a Buckeye – Ohio State won a Big Ten title in 1986 and 1987 was Bruce’s final season as coach – that he forged a relationship with Bruce that has only been strengthened through the tests of time and change.

“My relationship with him [Earle] is extremely close, second only to my father,” Meyer said during the news conference to announce his hiring at Ohio State...17 days after his father, Bud, passed away.

“Every step of my career, every part of my family life, Coach Bruce has always been there. So close that he was gracious enough to speak at my father’s funeral just last Friday.”

Meyer, as every young coach who aspires to be a head coach and who thirsts for knowledge, then moved on to a series of assistant coaching positions – Illinois State for two years under Jim Heacock, Colorado State for six years under Sonny Lubick and Bruce, and Notre Dame for one year under Lou Holtz and five years under Bob Davie – before getting his first head coaching assignment at Bowling Green.

First Year: Coach of the Year

Taking over a team that was 2-9 in 2000 and that had not had a winning season seven years, Meyer guided the Falcons to the top turnaround in the nation in 2001 with a six-win improvement and an 8-3 record that included wins over Missouri, Northwestern and BGSU’s rival to its north, Toledo. He was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year.

He followed that first year with a 9-3 record in his second year with the Falcons, including another win over Missouri. After BG opened the season with eight consecutive wins, the program cracked both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Top 25 polls for the first time in school history, peaking with an all-time school best No. 16 national ranking by ESPN/USA Today.

Meyer’s BGSU teams were anything but one-dimensional. His 2002 team led the nation in red zone production with 61 scores in 63 trips inside the 20 (.968) and were ninth in total offense (448.9 yards per game). Defensively, his 2001 team ranked first in the MAC in scoring, rushing and total defense and his teams led the MAC both years in turnover margin.

Josh Harris, who became a starter at quarterback in the ninth game of the 2001 season and reeled off 11 consecutive wins as a starter, told Plain Dealer reporter Elton Alexander that his former coach simply made players believe they were as good as any other team.

“One thing for sure, when coach Meyer believes in a guy, he might even believe in him more than the guy believes in himself,” Harris said. “There was a time when I had to get my belief in Josh Harris up to where Urban Meyer believed that Josh Harris was. That really propelled me, and my game, to new levels.

“That’s one of the things he did for me that I will always be thankful for.”

HEAD COACH URBAN MEYER

The Move Out West

Meyer moved on the University of Utah following the 2002 season and in two seasons led the Utes to a 22-2 record. He was named national Coach of the Year in 2003 by The Sporting News and in 2004 he was named the Football Writers Association of America's Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year and the Home Depot Coach of the Year.

In his first season in Salt Lake City, Meyer coached the Utes to their first outright conference championship since 1957, a 17-0 Liberty Bowl win over Southern Mississippi, and a final national ranking of No. 21. In addition to his national coach of the year honor by The Sporting News, Meyer was named Mountain West Conference coach of the year and thus became the first coach in Utah's 111-year football history to earn such an honor in his first year.

Utah then enjoyed the finest season in program history in 2004. The 12-0 record was the first 12-0 season in 75 years and a second-consecutive outright MWC championship was the first in conference history.

The Utah offense was unstoppable, finishing in the Top 5 in six categories, including No. 3 in scoring (45.3), total offense (499.7) and turnover margin (1.25). The team also led the MWC in 11 statistical categories and was No. 2 in passing, scoring and total defense.

Following Utah's 16th consecutive win, a 35-7 pummeling of Pitt in the Fiesta Bowl, Meyer's record was a sterling 39-7 as a head coach and the University of Florida was in need of a coach.

Simply Great in Gainesville

"Urban's accomplishments speak for themselves," Florida Athletics Director Jeremy Foley said. And this was before Meyer had even begun to blow his previous coaching accomplishments out of the water with the even-greater success he would experience coaching the Gators.

Meyer coached Florida to a 9-3 record in his initial season, a record that included wins over four nationally ranked opponents, making Meyer the first first-year coach in UF history to accomplish the feat.

Meyer's Year 2 success – he was a combined 21-3 in his second season at Bowling Green and Utah – continued in Gainesville as he led the Gators to a school-record 13 wins, and SEC and national championships against the toughest schedule in the nation. Florida played six ranked teams and 11 of its opponents went to bowl games. The BCS Championship game win: 41-14 over No. 1 ranked Ohio State in Glendale, Ariz. Meyer was named national Coach of the Year by the All-American Foundation at the conclusion of the season.

The 2007 Gator team went 9-3 and featured a Heisman Trophy-winning Tim Tebow and ranked third nationally with an average of 42.5 points per game.

Consecutive 13-win seasons followed in 2008 and 2009, a first in major college history. The 2008 team was the most prolific offensive unit in SEC history with 611 points scored against the nation's second-toughest schedule. Meyer won a second national championship this season, with Florida defeating Oklahoma, 24-14, in the BCS Championship game in Miami, Fla.

The only blemish on an otherwise spectacular 13-1 2009 season was to eventual national champion Alabama in the SEC championship game. This team's senior class departed with the best record for a class in SEC history: 48-7.

Meyer, who took a brief leave of absence from coaching following the 2009 season, coached his last Florida team to an 8-5 record. His last game as Florida coach was 37-24 win over Penn State in the Outback Bowl, in Tampa, Fla.

Back Home to Ohio

On Wednesday, Nov. 23, Ohio State Director of Athletics Gene Smith first talked to Meyer about returning to coaching after spending the year in an ESPN analyst booth. On Sunday, Nov. 27, Smith presented Meyer with terms for a six-year contract. Less than 24 hours later Meyer was a Buckeye.

And the rest of this story is future history.

More Notes on Urban Meyer:

- Only two coaches have had more victories in their first 10 years as a head coach than Meyer's 104: George Woodruff (124 between 1892-1901 at Pennsylvania) and Bob Stoops (109 between 1999-2008). Note: records include at least five years as a Division I coach.
- Meyer has won 13 games three times during his career, including back-to-back in 2008 and 2009 to become the first BCS coach to ever accomplish that feat.
- His teams are 21-3 in "rivalry games." Bowling Green was 1-1 vs. Toledo; Utah was 4-0 vs. Utah State and BYU; and Florida was 16-2 vs. Florida State, Tennessee and Georgia.
- His teams are also 60-18 in conference play with four championships (two apiece at Utah and Florida). They are also 2-1 in SEC title games, 7-1 in bowl games and 4-0 in BCS bowl games.
- Meyer has coached his teams to winning streaks of 11 games (Bowling Green), 20 games (16 at Utah and four at Florida), 11 games (Florida) and 22 games (Florida).
- His teams have 14 wins by 40-or-more points and another 20 wins by at least 30 points for a total of 34 blowouts.

HEAD COACH URBAN MEYER

- Meyer's teams are 2-2 vs. the No. 1 team in the nation, 7-3 vs. Top 5 teams, 11-4 vs. Top 10 teams and 19-7 vs. Top 25 teams.
- Both the Sporting News and Sports Illustrated named Meyer "Coach of the Decade" in December 2009.
- So far, 30 of his former Florida Gator players have been chosen in the NFL Draft, including more first-round selections – eight – than any other school has produced in the last five years.
- Meyer has watched a total of 36 players that he coached for at least two years get selected in the NFL Draft, including nine first-round draft picks.
- Of those 36 NFL Draft picks, three were quarterbacks: Bowling Green's Josh Harris was a sixth-round selection by Baltimore in the 2004 NFL Draft and Utah's Alex Smith (San Francisco, 2005) and Florida's Tim Tebow (Denver, 2010) were each No. 1 draft picks with Smith the overall No. 1 pick.
- In addition to Smith and Tebow, Meyer's first-round draft picks include offensive linemen Maurkice Pouncey (Pittsburgh, 2010) and Mike Pouncey (Miami, 2011); defensive linemen Jarvis Moss (Denver, 2007) and Derrick Harvey (Jacksonville, 2008); defensive backs Reggie Nelson (Jacksonville, 2007) and Joe Haden (Cleveland, 2010); and wide receiver/running back Percy Harvin (Minnesota, 2009).
- With the exception of kickers, Meyer has had multiple players at every position drafted into the NFL, including a position-best 10 defensive linemen, seven wide receivers, six defensive backs and five offensive linemen.
- Six of Meyer's former assistant coaches are head coaches: Steve Addazio (Temple); Tim Beckman (Illinois); John "Doc" Holliday (Marshall); Dan McCarney (North Texas); Dan Mullen (Mississippi State) and Charlie Strong (Louisville).
- Nine of his former assistant coaches are offensive (OC) defensive (DC), passing game (PG) or run game (RG) coordinators: Vance Bedford (DC at Louisville); Gregg Brandon (OC at Wyoming); Billy Gonzales (co-OC at Illinois); Chuck Heater (DC at Temple); John Hevesy (RG at Mississippi State); Scot Loeffler (OC at Auburn); Greg Mattison (DC at Michigan) and Greg Studrawa (OC at LSU).

URBAN MEYER MOMENTS

Urban Meyer is introduced as Ohio State's 24th head football coach on Nov. 28, 2011. Meyer is the second-winningest active coach and has won two national championships.

Meyer, born in Toledo, raised in Ashtabula and with degrees from Cincinnati and Ohio State, is happy to be home in Ohio.

The Meyer family - GiGi, Urban, Shelley, Nicki and Nathan - received a warm welcome from the Ohio State crowd at the men's basketball game against Indiana on Jan. 15.

Meyer and Buckeye fan Jason Andrus helped kick off the 24th Columbus City Schools Special Olympics May 12.

Meyer and son Nathan enjoyed the honor of a ceremonial first pitch at a Cincinnati Red's game June 11. They repeated "first pitches" one week later in Cleveland.

Meyer spent time with Lauren Loose at "Lauren's First and Goal" Football Camp June 17 at Otterbein University.

URBAN MEYER MOMENTS

Ohio State great and Trustee Clark Kellogg and CBS' Verne Lundquist interview Meyer during the Ohio State/Indiana basketball game Jan. 15.

Ohio State students enjoyed the opportunity to meet their FB coach following the "Urban Meyer Town Hall" meeting May 15. Meyer enjoyed the moment, too.

About 3,100 students showed up for "Student Appreciation Day" during spring drills April 14 that included a post-practice autograph and photo session.

Meyer and some assistant coaches and wives spent close to 90 minutes with about 800 Ohio State students in the student-only "town hall" event May 15.

Meyer has made it clear how much he believes in the support of the student body. During the "Student Appreciation Day" practice April 14 inside the Woody Hayes Athletic Center he allowed students to get so close they could "hear in the huddle," and they even formed a Block "O" during a field goal drill.

EVERETT WITHERS 1ST SEASON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Charlotte, N.C.
 High School: Charlotte Senior
 Alma Mater: Appalachian State University, 1985
 Year in Coaching: 25th (First year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Kara
 Children: Daughter, Tia, and son, Pierce

Everett Withers, a 24-year coaching veteran, is in his first season as the Ohio State Buckeyes' co-defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. He will also serve as the position coach for the team's safeties.

Withers has been a collegiate coach for 17 years and has also worked seven seasons in the National Football League: six years (2001-06) as defensive backs coach with the Tennessee Titans under Jeff Fisher, and a year (1994) as a defensive quality control coach for the New Orleans Saints.

Withers has spent the last four years at the University of North Carolina. He was promoted to interim head coach at the school this past July and he led the Tar Heels to a 7-5 record and to a berth in the Independence Bowl against Missouri.

Withers' collegiate coaching resume includes nine years as a defensive coordinator with a vast majority of his time - 15 seasons - spent also coaching the defensive backfield. His Tar Heel defenses were top notch.

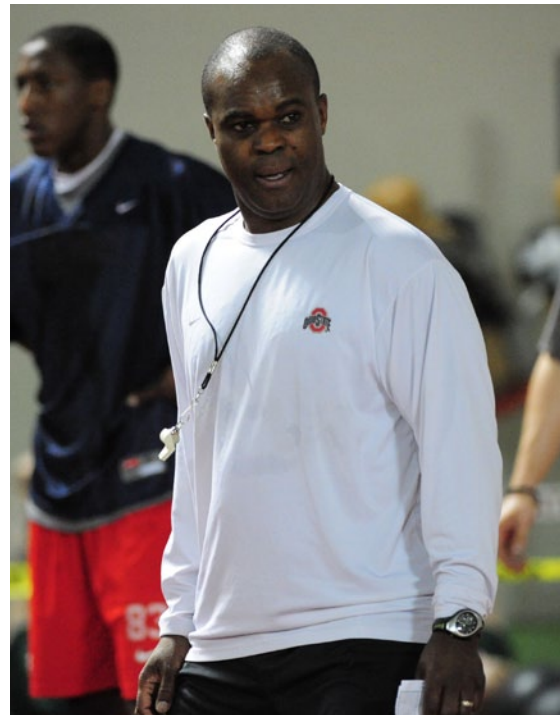

- His first unit - 2008 - ranked eighth in the country with 20 interceptions, a number that was just one off the UNC single season record.
- His 2009 defense was among the nation's elite, ranking sixth in total defense, 10th against the run, 13th in scoring and 14th in pass defense.
- His 2010 unit ranked fourth in the Atlantic Coast Conference and 30th nationally. Five players off that unit were taken in the NFL draft, including first-round pick Robert Quinn.
- And this past year the Tar Heels ranked 14th against the run.

Additionally, Withers' UNC defenses have picked off 71 passes in the past four years.

Withers spent one year as defensive coordinator at the University of Minnesota prior to his North Carolina position. He also has been an assistant coach at the University of Texas (1998-2000; defensive backs), Louisville (1995-97; defensive coordinator/assistant head coach/defensive backs), Southern Mississippi (1992-93; defensive backs/assistant special teams), Tulane (1991; outside linebackers) and Austin Peay (1988-90; defensive coordinator/defensive backs; tight ends/special teams).

A native of Charlotte, N.C., Withers attended Appalachian State University and was a four-year letter-winner as a defensive back. He served as team captain in 1984.

Withers and his wife, Kara, have a daughter, Tia, and a son, Pierce.

LUKE FICKELL 11TH SEASON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Columbus, Ohio
 High School: DeSales
 Alma Mater: The Ohio State University, 1997
 Year in Coaching: 14th (11th year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Amy
 Children: Son Landon, daughter Luca, and twin sons Aydon & Ashton

Luke Fickell will coach his 11th season at his alma mater in 2012 in the position of defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer announced Nov. 28, 2011 - the day he was hired - that Fickell would be a part of his Ohio State coaching staff.

Fickell was the team's head coach in 2011, a position he accepted on May 30, 2011 without demands, without questions and without any prior head coaching experience. He was asked to step forward and take over a program in need of a steadying influence, and he was just that through a 6-6 regular season and a season-ending 24-17 loss to Florida in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl.

"Coach Fick" was much more than a just a steadying influence, though. He was an accomplished leader through one of the most difficult times in Ohio State athletics history. He kept the team focused on the controllable - always - and despite 53 games missed by starters, the constant molding of two first-year quarterbacks, and inexperience and youth up and down the lineup, he had the Buckeyes in control of their Big Ten championship destiny until the last three weeks of the season.

"Luke ... took on an unbelievable challenge to lead this football program through this particular year at this particular time, and he was the right leader for that time to lead this football program," Gene Smith said.

Prior to Fickell's appointment to head coach he had been promoted to assistant head coach in March 2011. He also coached the Buckeye linebackers and has served as co-defensive coordinator.

Fickell's coaching career began at Ohio State. After spending a year on the injured reserve list with the New Orleans Saints, he was hired in 1999 as a graduate assistant at Ohio State by his college coach, John Cooper.

His first full-time coaching position came in 2000 under Lee Owens at Akron, spending two years as defensive line coach. Jim Tressel brought him to Ohio State as special teams coordinator in 2002 and he also worked with the defensive front. He was named linebackers coach in 2004 and added co-defensive coordinator duties to his resume in 2005.

Fickell has been a part of some outstanding Ohio State defenses. In 2005 the unit was fifth in the NCAA in total defense and first in rushing defense. In 2006 it was 12th in total defense. In 2007 the Buckeyes were first nationally in total defense, in addition to being first in scoring and pass defense. The team was 14th in total defense in 2008 and, in 2009 and 2010, the Buckeyes were fifth and fourth, respectively, in total defense.

Fickell is a Columbus native (DeSales High School, where he was a state wrestling champion) and a 1997 graduate of Ohio State. He played for the Buckeyes from 1992-96, redshirting the first year and then starting the next four seasons at nose guard. He started a school-record 50 consecutive games between 1993 and 1996.

Fickell concluded his Ohio State career with 212 total tackles, including 26 tackles-for-loss and six sacks. During his four years in the starting lineup, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 41-8-1 overall and were 26-5-1 in Big Ten play with a pair of Big Ten co-championships to their credit. With the win over Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, the Buckeyes finished the 1996 season with a sparkling 11-1 record and were second in the nation in both major polls in the final rankings.

Luke and his wife, Amy (an Ohio State physical therapy graduate), have four children: Landon, Luca, and twins Aydon and Ashton.

TOM HERMAN 1ST SEASON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Simi Valley, Calif. (born in Cincinnati)
 High School: Simi Valley
 Alma Mater: Cal Lutheran, 1997
 Master's Degree: University of Texas, 2000
 Year in Coaching: 13th (First year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Michelle
 Children: Daughter, Priya, and son, Maddock

Tom Herman, the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Iowa State University the past three years, and before that an offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for record-setting offenses at Rice University, is in his first season as Ohio State's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

"Tom Harmon has one of the bright young minds in college football," Ohio State coach Urban Meyer said of his coach who is, indeed, intellectual enough to be a member of the national high-IQ society, MENSA. "His philosophies are very similar to those of my own."

Herman's 2011 Iowa State offense put up 44 points in a triple-overtime win over Iowa and tallied 37 in a double-overtime upset of then-undefeated and No. 2 Oklahoma State. The offense averaged nearly 390 total yards per game.

"To work with and for Coach Meyer is an exciting opportunity for me," Herman said. "I am really looking forward to working with him and learning about his offensive systems."

Herman has 11 years experience as a collegiate coach, including seven seasons as an offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, and 13 when his two seasons - 1999-2000 - as a graduate assistant at Texas are included. He coached four years at Sam Houston State (2001-04), serving as receivers coach and special teams coordinator. He also spent two years at Texas State (2005-06) and two years at Rice (2007-08) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

While his Texas State offenses led the Southland Conference in total offense each season, his time at Rice was particularly notable. His offenses broke over 40 school records and in his second season the Owls won 10 games and went to a bowl for the first time since 1954.

Furthermore, Rice ranked in the Top 10 nationally in 2008 in passing offense (5th; 327.8), scoring offense (T8th; 41.6) and total offense (10th; 472.3). Two Rice receivers had more than 1,300 yards receiving that year, tight end James Casey had 111 catches and quarterback Chase Clement was the Conference USA MVP.

Herman was born in Cincinnati and still has family there, although he was raised in Simi Valley, Calif. He played collegiately at California Lutheran, graduating in 1997 with a degree in business administration. He has a master's in education from the University of Texas.

Herman and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Priya, and a son, Maddock.

ED WARINNER 1ST SEASON

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Strasburg, Ohio
 High School: Strasburg-Franklin
 Alma Mater: Mount Union, 1984
 Master's Degree: Akron, 1985
 Year in Coaching: 29th (First year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Mary Beth Children: Madisyn, Merideth and Edward

Ohio native and coaching veteran Ed Warinner, who has worked with four offenses during his career that have led the nation in rushing, is in his first season as Ohio State's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Warinner will coordinate the Buckeyes' running game in this position.

Warinner, the offensive line coach the past two years at Notre Dame and who had the added responsibility of run game coordinator this past season, will coach his 29th collegiate season in 2012. He was a finalist this past season for the FootballScoop Offensive Line Coach of the Year. He has nine years of experience in a coordinator position, including three years as offensive coordinator at Kansas when the Jayhawks averaged 445.5 total yards per game and 35.3 points during that three-year period.

"I really wanted to hire a coach with coordinator experience," Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer said. "That was very important to me. Ed has that experience. His offenses at Kansas were not only impressive, but they were some of the top offenses in the country."

Warinner has coached at seven different schools: Akron, Michigan State, Army, Air Force, Kansas, Illinois and Notre Dame. In addition to his nine years in coordinator positions, he has spent 15 of the past 20 seasons coaching the offensive line. Earlier this season Rivals.com named Warinner one of the Top 20 "hottest assistant coaches" in the nation.

After opening his coaching career in 1984 at Akron (running backs), Warinner was linebackers and secondary coach at Michigan State in 1985-86.

Then came a 13-year run at Army, a period when he coached along the offensive line for seven years and became a coordinator - offensive - for the first time (1998-99). While Warinner was at Army the Cadets led the nation in rushing three times.

He left Army to join Fisher DeBerry's staff at Air Force. He spent three years there as the offensive line coach and the Falcons led the nation in rushing in 2002 (307.8 yards per game).

The first of two terms at Kansas - 2003-04 - ensued for Warinner, working as offensive line coach/run game coordinator, before a two-year run with Illinois in the same capacity. In his second season with the Illini, his rushing attack netted 188.3 yards per game which was the best by an Illinois team since 1973.

Warinner's talents as an offensive coordinator then took center stage from 2007-09 while at Kansas. The Jayhawks posted the three best offenses in terms of total yards and passing yards in those years and also had three of the top seven scoring seasons in school history as well.

His 2007 Jayhawks were the nation's second-highest scoring team (42.8 points per game) and set a school record by averaging 479.8 yards per game, two huge reasons that Kansas went 12-1 that year with a 24-21 FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech.

The 2008 Jayhawks averaged 432.4 yards and 33.4 points per game, respectively, and his final Jayhawk offense averaged 422.4 offensive yards, including a school-record 310.3 passing yards. Warinner was a finalist for the American Football Coaches Association's National Assistant Coach of the Year award following the 2009 campaign.

He then joined Kelly's staff at Notre Dame, where he helped the Irish to consecutive bowl games the past two years; the 2010 Hyundai Sun Bowl and the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl. In 2010 Notre Dame had its best per carry rushing average since 2003 (4.0), a figure that improved to 4.8 in 2011. The Irish offensive line allowed just 17 sacks this past season and only 20 in 2010.

Warinner was a football and baseball letterman at Mount Union from 1979-83. He has a bachelor's degree in physical education from Mount Union (1984) and a master's in education from Akron (1985). He and his wife, Mary Beth, have three children: daughters Madisyn and Merideth, and a son, Edward.

KERRY COOMBS 1ST SEASON

CORNERBACKS

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Colerain, Ohio
 High School: Colerain
 Alma Mater: Dayton (1983)
 Year in Coaching: 30th (First year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Holly Children: Sons Brayden and Dylan; daughter, Cortney

Kerry Coombs, an assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati the past five years and before that an outstanding Ohio high school head coach at Colerain, is in his first season in charge of the Buckeye cornerbacks.

Coombs, associate head coach at UC in addition to his responsibilities as the team's defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator, follows the trend of Ohio State assistants who are not only considered terrific coaches, but are coaches with ties to the state of Ohio.

Coombs grew up in Colerain, graduated from Colerain High School in 1979 and from the University of Dayton in 1983, and has a master's degree from Wright State (1996). He was a high school coach in Ohio for 24 seasons, including a highly successful 16-year run as head coach at Colerain, located just outside of Cincinnati.

"Kerry Coombs had an incredible record of achievement as a high school head coach and he is highly regarded as one of the great coaches in Ohio high school football history," Meyer said. "I have watched him coach in high school and at the University of Cincinnati and I have great respect for the way he works. He is a strong recruiter. He knows defense and special teams. And he is an excellent teacher."

Coombs has 29 years of coaching behind him as he enters the 2012 season with the Buckeyes, including five years with the Bearcats. Hired away from Colerain by Brian Kelly after the 2006 high school season, Coombs was part of Kelly's three Cincinnati teams that were 33-7 overall and played in BCS bowl games after the 2008 (Orange Bowl vs. Virginia Tech) and 2009 (Sugar Bowl vs. Florida) seasons.

After Kelly left UC for Notre Dame after the 2009 season, Coombs stayed on new UC coach Butch Jones' staff. After an initial 4-8 season under Jones, Cincinnati went 10-3 this past season with a Liberty Bowl win over Vanderbilt.

While at UC Coombs mentored three NFL draft picks: second-team All-American and UC career interception leader Mike Mickens (Dallas Cowboys), 2007 NCAA interception leader DeAngelo Smith (Dallas Cowboys) and all-BIG EAST performer Brandon Underwood (Green Bay Packers). He also coached Haruki Nakamura in 2007, his first year at UC and a year the Bearcats led the nation with 26 interceptions.

Coombs, a member of the University of Dayton's 1980 Division III national championship team while studying secondary education, charged through the high school ranks after his playing days were over. He spent two seasons as an assistant at Greenhills High School and four at Lakota before taking over as head coach at Loveland in 1989. Two years later - 1991 - he took over at Colerain.

In 16 seasons at Colerain Coombs' teams went to 10 state playoffs, including five state semifinal berths. His 2004 team won the Division I state championship with a 15-0 mark that included a record-setting title game win over Canton McKinley, 50-10. It was - and still is - the most points scored and the largest margin of victory in the Ohio "big school" state title game.

COACHING ASSIGNMENTS

2009-11	Assoc. Head Coach/DBs/Special Teams	Cincinnati
2007-08	Defensive Backs	Cincinnati
1991-06	Head Coach	Colerain H.S. (Cincinnati, Ohio)
1989-90	Head Coach	Loveland (Ohio) H.S.
1985-88	Assistant Coach	Lakota (Ohio) H.S.
1983-84	Assistant Coach	Greenhills (Ohio) H.S.

Colerain won seven consecutive Greater Miami Conference championships under Coombs from 2000-06, and Coombs had a 161-34 record as head coach. His overall head coaching record through 18 seasons is 167-48.

Coombs sent five of his Colerain players to Ohio State, including Jefferson Kelley in the mid-1990s and most recently Connor and Spencer Smith and Tyler Moeller.

Coombs and his wife, Holly, are the parents of three grown children: son Brayden played collegiately at Miami (Ohio) and is currently on staff with the Cincinnati Bengals; daughter Cortney played soccer at Ball State; and son Dylan is a freshman football player and in the Lindner Honors Plus business program at the University of Cincinnati.

STAN DRAYTON

RUNNING BACKS

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Cleveland, Ohio
 High School: John Marshall
 Alma Mater: Allegheny College, 1993
 Years in Coaching: 20th (Second year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Monique
 Children: Daughters Amari and Anaya

Stan Drayton's 20th season of coaching, and his second season at Ohio State, will return the former All-American running back to the position he played and is most experienced coaching: running back. Drayton was asked to stay on Ohio State's coaching staff by new Ohio State coach Urban Meyer, but that shouldn't surprise anyone because Drayton has now been hired three times by Meyer: twice to coach running backs at the University of Florida and now in that same capacity at Ohio State. While at UF, Drayton helped Meyer and the Gators win the 2006 national championship.

A Cleveland native and a graduate of John Marshall High School, Drayton came to Ohio State from the University of Florida, where he served as the Gators' running backs coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2010 season; he also served as Florida's running backs coach from 2005-07, and held the same position at SEC schools Tennessee (2008) and Mississippi State (2004).

With coaching experience and success at every level, Drayton's resume includes stints as an assistant coach at Syracuse (2009), Bowling Green (2000), Villanova (1996-2000), Penn (1995), Eastern Michigan (1994) and Allegheny (1993). From 2001-03, he served as the offensive quality control and assistant special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers, helping them to three NFC playoff appearances. He is a past nominee for the AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year award, and was recognized by Rivals as one of the nation's top 25 recruiters.

Three times a first-team All-America selection as a running back at Allegheny (Pa.) College, Drayton is Allegheny's all-time leading rusher and scorer and was a part of the 1990 Division III national championship team. He still holds the Division III single-season record for touchdowns scored per game (3.2). Drayton was a two-time All-American in track as well, competing in the 100 and 200 meter dashes. A 1993 graduate with a bachelor's degree in English, Drayton was inducted into the Allegheny College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

Drayton, who coached Ohio State's wide receivers in 2011, and his wife Monique have two daughters: Amari and Anaya.

TIM HINTON 1ST SEASON

TIGHT ENDS/FULLBACKS

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Amanda, Ohio
 High School: Amanda-Clearcreek
 Alma Mater: Wilmington, 1982
 Master's Degree: Ohio State, 1987
 Year in Coaching: 31st (First at Ohio State)
 Wife: Bev
 Children: Daughters Dawn and Drew

Tim Hinton, who has coached in or recruited the state of Ohio for 30 years, is in his first season as the Ohio State tight ends and fullbacks coach. Hinton was the running backs coach at Notre Dame the past two seasons.

Hinton will be in his 17th collegiate coaching season this year and his 31st year of coaching overall. His coaching resume includes 11 highly successful seasons as the head coach at Harding High School in Marion, Ohio. He led Harding to five state playoff berths and five conference titles and he was the 1995 Ohio Division I co-Coach of the Year.

"Tim is an awesome coach," Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer said. "He and I worked together on the Ohio State staff in 1986, but what I am most impressed with is his time spent as a high school coach in Ohio. He had some outstanding teams at Harding and his extensive experiences coaching in the state were crucial in my desire to want him on our staff."

Hinton's 30 seasons of coaching experience includes 16 seasons in the collegiate ranks with positions at Ohio State, Wilmington, Ohio, Cincinnati and Notre Dame, and 14 years as a head coach at three Ohio high schools: Zane Trace (1987-88); Van Wert (1989) and Harding (1993-2003).

"I have always felt it would be an honor to have an opportunity to coach for and to represent Ohio State," Hinton said. "This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to be able to work with great people and great coaches at such a wonderful place."

This past season at Notre Dame running back Cierre Wood rushed for 1,102 yards and nine touchdowns. In 2010, a quartet of Notre Dame rushers combined for 1,517 yards and a 4.8 yards per carry average and, impressively, fumbled only twice all season and both occurred in the same game.

Excellent ball protection was also evident among Hinton's running backs at the University of Cincinnati, where he coached six years between 2004-09, including three seasons under former Ohio State assistant and current Michigan State coach Mark Dantonio. Neither of his two leading rushers during the 2009 UC season lost a fumble in 195 carries.

Hinton spent his first three seasons as running backs coach for Dantonio's Bearcats teams. After coaching linebackers for the first year of the Kelly administration, he moved back to running backs for the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

Dantonio pulled Hinton from the high school ranks back into the college ranks after Hinton's

11-year run at Harding High School, where in addition to directing his teams to five state playoff appearances, he developed 13 players who would go on to major college programs. He was extremely active in the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association, serving as an officer for six years, including vice-president of the organization in 2003.

Three seasons at Ohio University, coaching the wide receivers in 1990 and the defensive line in 1991-92, preceded Hinton's position at Harding and followed his first two head coaching positions at Zane Trace and Van Wert high schools, respectively.

While attending Wilmington College (from which he graduated in 1982 with a degree in industrial education), Hinton was an assistant coach at Amanda-Clearcreek High School for three seasons (1978-80) and then parlayed that experience into a student-assistant position at Wilmington that started in 1981 and concluded in 1984. Wilmington won two conference titles during that time and made two appearances in the NAIA playoffs.

Hinton then enrolled at Ohio State to coach in a graduate assistant capacity for two seasons (1985-86) under Earle Bruce and to work on his master's degree (educational policy and leadership, 1987). The Buckeyes went to two bowl games and earned a share of the 1986 Big Ten championship.

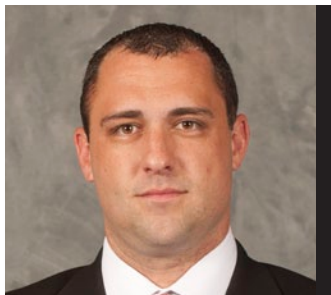

Hinton and his wife, Bev, have two daughters: Dawn and Drew.

ZACH SMITH 1ST SEASON

WIDE RECEIVERS

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Dublin, Ohio
 High School: Dublin Coffman
 Alma Mater: University of Florida, 2007
 Year in Coaching: Eighth (First year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Courtney
 Children: Cameron and Quinn Olivia

Zach Smith, who spent five seasons with Urban Meyer at the University of Florida coaching players like Percy Harvin, Aaron Hernandez and Louis Murphy, is in his first year as Ohio State's wide receivers coach.

The 2012 season will be Smith's third year of coaching in a fulltime capacity. He previously had been hired by former Meyer assistants-turned-head coaches Doc Holliday (Marshall) and Steve Addazio (Temple) as wide receivers and special teams coach.

"I know what a quality coach Zach is," Meyer said. "He knows my system inside and out and he teaches the system the way I want it to be taught."

Smith spent five years as a graduate assistant and quality control assistant for Meyer at Florida, during which time Florida won a pair of national championships while producing some of the best offensive and special teams units in the country. Smith was a special teams quality control coach for three years (2005-07) and an offensive graduate assistant for the 2008 and 2009 seasons. He assisted with coaching the UF wide receivers, quarterbacks and special teams during his time in Gainesville.

Smith left Florida to work on Holliday's staff at Marshall for the 2010 season. He then moved on to Temple when Steve Addazio took over this year.

Marshall's receivers totaled 152 catches for 1,824 yards and 16 touchdowns in 2010 and featured all-Conference USA performer Aaron Dobson. Temple's receivers managed 66 catches for 961 yards and eight touchdowns despite the Owls featuring the seventh-best rushing offense in the country and the top unit in the Mid-American Conference.

Additionally, Temple's special teams ranked first in the MAC in kickoff returns and second in net punting and punt returns. Those units also ranked fourth, 14th and 23rd nationally. Temple won nine games this past season, including its first bowl win (37-15 over Wyoming in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl) in 32 years.

Smith, who attended Dublin Coffman High School and who is a 2007 graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in sports management, and his wife Courtney have one son, Cameron (2), and an infant daughter, Quinn Olivia.

MIKE VRABEL

DEFENSIVE LINE

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Akron, Ohio
 High School: Walsh Jesuit
 College: Ohio State University, 2004
 Year in Coaching: Second (Second year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Jennifer
 Children: Sons Tyler and Carter

Mike Vrabel, one of the great defensive linemen in the history of the Big Ten Conference, will coach the Ohio State defensive line in 2012 as part of Urban Meyer's first Ohio State coaching staff. Vrabel is in his second season as a collegiate coach after coaching the Ohio State linebackers in 2011.

Vrabel, who has his degree from Ohio State in exercise science, was a dominant performer for the Buckeyes while earning two Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year honors (1995 and 1996). He was the first to win the award two times and he also earned back-to-back All-America honors those same seasons.

Vrabel twice set the Ohio State single season record for sacks and tackles for loss (TFL) and he still holds school records for career sacks (36) and single season and career TFLs (26 in 1995 and 66). Heading into the 2011 season Vrabel still ranked among the NCAA's all-time Top 5 in career TFLs (third), career sacks (tied for third) and single season TFLs (tied for fifth). Those three totals are each the most in Big Ten Conference history as well.

The Akron, Ohio, native embarked on what would become a distinguished NFL career with three teams following his Ohio State playing days. It was a professional career that saw him a part of the New England Patriots' dynamic run of three Super Bowls in four years (2001, 2003, 2004). In 2007, as a member of the Patriots, he was named to the Pro Bowl and a month later was named All-Pro.

On top of these accomplishments, Vrabel's professional career included 206 games played with Pittsburgh, New England and Kansas City, 140 starts and enough impressive statistics - 57 sacks, 11 interceptions, 17 forced fumbles and 11 touchdowns receiving (as a tight end), including two in Super Bowls - that one has to conclude he is one of the great performers in a team sport that Ohio State has ever produced.

Drafted in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh, Vrabel spent four years with the Steelers and played in 51 games. He was a starter for eight seasons with the Patriots, playing in 125 games and starting 110 games. He spent the last two years with Kansas City playing in and starting 30 games.

Vrabel retired from the NFL in July 2011 after 14 years in the league and joined coach Luke Fickell's staff at Ohio State in the role of linebackers coach.

Vrabel, who graduated from Ohio State in 2004, attended Walsh Jesuit High School in Akron. He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of two sons: 10-year-old Tyler and 9-year-old Carter.

MICKEY MAROTTI 1ST SEASON

ASSISTANT AD FOR FB SPORTS PERFORMANCE

QUICK FACTS

Hometown: Ambridge, Pa.
 High School: Ambridge
 Alma Mater: West Liberty State, 1987
 Master's Degrees: Ohio State University, 1988;
 West Virginia, 1990
 Year in Strength & Conditioning: 26th (First year at Ohio State)
 Wife: Susie
 Children: Son, Mitchell, and daughter, Maddie

Mickey Marotti is in his first season as the assistant athletic director for football sports performance at Ohio State. He is the one person Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer trusts in the critical area of strength and conditioning training and overseeing sports performance, and he is an individual Meyer has worked with or hired four times now.

"There are times in the year when the strength staff has more contact with the team than the coaching staff," Meyer said, "and I have complete trust in Mickey Marotti's abilities to prepare our student-athletes to be the strongest, fastest and mentally toughest football players they can be."

Marotti, called a "master" of motivation and mental preparation by Meyer when the two were paired at Florida, first worked with Meyer when the two were graduate assistants at Ohio State, in 1987. Marotti, who also worked as Grove City High School's strength coach that year, earned a master's of arts degree in strength and conditioning from Ohio State before moving on to the University of West Virginia to be a strength assistant. He graduated from WVU in two years with a master's of science degree in sports medicine.

From there he went on to the University of Cincinnati, where he spent seven seasons (1990-97) as head strength and conditioning coach for UC's 20-sport program. He also worked in the areas of diet analysis and planning and assisted in student-athlete rehabilitation from injuries.

Midway through Meyer's five-year run as an assistant coach at Notre Dame, Marotti had the opportunity to work with him again when he was named Notre Dame's director of strength and conditioning in 1998. He spent seven seasons in South Bend, coordinating all aspects of the strength and conditioning program for the 26-sport department, including developing a year-round program for the football team, coordinating camps, clinics and special events, and developing policies and regulations.

Marotti was then one of Meyer's first hires when he took over as head coach of Florida in early 2005. And for the last seven years Marotti has overseen the complete strength and conditioning programs for all of Florida's intercollegiate sports. He also served as the director of the football athletic performance team.

Unique in the fact he is one of only 100 strength trainers to hold a Master of Strength and Conditioning – the highest honor in his profession – certification, Marotti is also atypical in the things he has his players do – haul rocks; flip tires, midnight workouts, etc. – that all lead to developing a mental and physical edge.

"I believe the strength staffs that Mickey has led have been the best staffs in college football," Meyer said. "He is the best there is at developing physically and mentally tough football players."

COACHING ASSIGNMENTS

2012	Asst. AD for FB Sports Performance	Ohio State
2005-11	Director of Strength and Conditioning	Florida
1998-2005	Director of Strength and Conditioning	Notre Dame
1990-98	Head Strength and Conditioning Coach	Cincinnati
1989-90	Strength Assistant	West Virginia
1987-88	Graduate Assistant Strength Coach	Ohio State
1987-88	Head Strength Coach	Grove City (Ohio) H.S.

Marotti's talents have helped Florida develop 22 All-Americans and eight first-round NFL draft choices during his seven years in Gainesville. And there is no disputing the team accomplishments the Gators have achieved: two national championships, two Southeastern Conference championships and three 13-win seasons.

A native of Ambridge, Pa., Marotti was a four-year letterwinner as a fullback for West Liberty (W.Va.) University, serving as a team tri-captain in 1986 and winning first team NAIA All-Academic honors in 1987. He is a 1987 graduate with a degree in exercise physiology.

Marotti and his wife, the former Susan Laffey, have a teen-age son and daughter, Mitchell and Madison.

GAME 1: AKRON

No. 18/16 Ohio State begins Fickell era with 42-0 shutout

Buckeyes hold Akron to 90 total yards, gain 517 yards of total offense

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Joe Bauserman and Jake Stoneburner connected on three touchdown passes and the Buckeyes offense rolled to 517 total yards as No. 18 Ohio State opened the Luke Fickell era in fine fashion with a 42-0 shutout of Akron in front of 105,001 sunburned fans at Ohio Stadium.

In his first career start, Bauserman looked sharp and confident, completing 12 of 16 passes for 163 yards, including the three TDs to Stoneburner, who became the first Buckeye tight end to find the end zone three times in a single game. Freshman quarterback Braxton Miller would add 132 yards in the second half on 8 of 12 passing, while on the ground, Ohio State rumbled to 224 total yards, highlighted by 93 from sophomore Carlos Hyde.

The Silver Bullet defense was equally impressive, holding the Zips to 90 total yards and forcing eight three-and-outs. The defensive line put constant pressure on Akron's quarterbacks, with five different players recording sacks and Ohio State totaling 10 tackles-for-loss. Senior linebacker Andrew Sweat led the Buckeye in tackles, collecting six total and two for loss.

Ohio State struck first at the 7:24 mark of the first quarter as Bauserman weaved his way through the Akron defense for a 15-yard touchdown run - the first of his career - and a 7-0 lead. The Buckeyes, who amassed 125 yards of offense in the opening stanza, threatened to extend the lead late in the quarter, but Akron's John Griggs forced a Rod Smith fumble that was recovered by Emmanue Lartey at the 4 yard line.

Bauserman upped the Buckeye lead to 14-0 at 5:45 in the second quarter with a 28-yard touchdown pass to junior tight end Jake Stoneburner, capping a bruising 13-play, 64-yard drive. After an Akron three-and-out, the offense once again moved the ball into Zips territory, but a missed field goal from sophomore Drew Basil kept the lead at 14-0 with 4:30 to play in the half.

Stoneburner and Bauserman combined for the second time late in the quarter, connecting for an 11-yard touchdown on third and 10 to give the Scarlet and Gray a 21-0 lead with just over a minute left in the second quarter. Senior linebacker Sweat set up the final seven points of the half with an acrobatic interception at the Akron 34 yard line.

Akron responded with a 10 play, 61-yard drive - crossing midfield for the first time in the game - but T.J. Marchese missed from 41 yards to close the first 30 minutes.

Sophomore wide receiver Corey Brown opened the second half with a 44-yard kickoff return to position the Buckeyes at their own 49. The offense cashed in on the excellent starting position with an eight play, 51-yard drive, capped by a 2-yard TD pass from Bauserman to Stoneburner.

Carlos Hyde rushed for 93 yards on 19 carries in his first career start at running back.

Bauserman passed the torch to Miller midway through the third. Miller, who played briefly in the first half, engineered a six-play, 59-yard drive capped by a 9-yard TD pass to freshman wide receiver Devin Smith that pushed the lead to 35-0 with 14:26 left in the game.

Smith closed the scoring with a 2-yard touchdown run with 5:51 to play. Freshman wide receiver Evan Spencer used one hand to corral a 33-yard pass from Miller and put the Buckeyes in the red zone.

A Tunnel of Pride featuring former players, organized by OSU legend John Hicks, welcomed the Buckeyes onto the field prior to kickoff. As part of Alumni Band Day, the fanfare continued at halftime as The Ohio State Marching and Alumni Bands celebrated the 75th anniversary of Script Ohio by dotting-the- I on four full-sized Scripts for the first time in history. Leslie H. Wexner, chairman of The Ohio State University Board of Trustees, was an honorary "I-dotter" on the home side of the field.

GAME 2: TOLEDO

No. 15/15 Ohio State holds off Toledo, 27-22

Running back Carlos Hyde runs for 76 yards and two touchdowns in the win

COLUMBUS, Ohio - In a back-and-forth battle between in-state rivals, No. 15/15 Ohio State came from behind to down Toledo, 27-22, in front of a crowd of 105,016 at Ohio Stadium.

Generating 301 offensive yards to Toledo's 338, a slew of Rocket penalties made the difference for the young Buckeyes. Toledo, who looked to give Ohio State its first in-state loss in 90 years, gave up 102 yards over 14 penalties.

"First thing for us was to be fundamentally sound and physical," Luke Fickell, head coach, said. "They did a good job of challenging us with those things. We tried to make them one dimensional and with tackling we knew we had to do a great job. Those were the biggest areas that stood out to me. We're excited about how the guys fought and kept their chins up, but that's how you challenge yourself to get better."

In his second career start, Joe Bauserman completed 16 of 30 attempts for 189 yards, with three Buckeyes scoring.

Ohio State would strike first and early, making good on a 7-play, 67-yard opening drive at the 11:45 mark of the first quarter. Connecting up the middle, Bauserman found tight end Jake Stoneburner for a 26-yard touchdown pass to put the Buckeyes on the board at 7-0.

With cornerback Kishon Wilcher blocking a Buckeye punt at the 23, defensive end T.J. Fatinikun recovered and ran the ball 22 yards to the Rocket 1-yardline, swinging momentum in Toledo's favor. A middle pass from Austin Dantin to receiver Eric Page and a successful two-point conversion would put the Rockets on the board and leave Ohio State trailing for the first time this season.

Still firing offensively, Toledo struck again when quarterback Terrance Owens found Page along the sideline. Running 66 yards into the endzone, Page helped to close the first quarter at 15-7 in the Rockets' favor.

At a critical time for the Scarlet and Gray, sophomore Carlos Hyde elected to have his first career touchdown. Bringing the Buckeye deficit to one, the tailback from Naples, Fla., rushed for 36 yards to score. With the Rockets forced to punt at the one-minute mark heading into halftime, wideout Chris Fields was the next Buckeye to shine, helping Ohio State regain the lead with a 69-yard return.

But Toledo would not go quietly. Rushing up the middle on a 4-yard play, running back Adonis Thomas put the Rockets back on top, 22-21, at 12:56 in the third quarter.

Ohio State still had an answer, though. Completing a pass to freshman receiver Devin Smith for 36 yards to enter the redzone, Bauserman fed the ball to Hyde, a favorite target of the day, who rushed it in for his second touchdown. However, a missed two-point attempt left the Buckeyes with a slim 5-point lead at 27-22.

Forcing an Ohio State fumble to regain possession, Toledo threatened in the final minutes with the ball on the Ohio State 16, but came up short on fourth down and turned the ball over to the Buckeyes who let the clock tick down.

With the win, Ohio State moves to 2-0 on the season while the Rockets fall to 1-1.

GAME 3: AT MIAMI

Buckeyes fall on the road at Miami, 24-6

Jordan Hall runs for 87 yards on a career-high 14 carries

MIAMI - Ohio State dropped its first-ever regular season game in the state of Florida Saturday to unranked Miami, 24-6. The Hurricanes powered for two quick first-quarter touchdowns to build a 14-0 lead and held firm the rest of the way as Ohio State managed just a 4-for-18 day passing for 35 yards with one interception. The Buckeyes gained 190 rushing yards with Jordan Hall a spark with 87 yards rushing in his first game of the season and Carlos Hyde ramming for 54 more yards.

Drew Basil kicked two second-quarter field goals - from 22 and 24 yards out - to trim the Miami lead to 14-6, but a late first-half field goal gave the Hurricanes its 14-point lead at halftime. Miami completed the scoring with 33 seconds left to play for the final margin. Basil's field goals were his first as a collegian.

Ohio State head coach Luke Fickell was counting on a quick start from his troops, but Miami was the team that came out hot. Sophomore tailback Lamar Miller secured the right edge and went 54 yards on the Hurricanes' first play from scrimmage to set the home team up on the Ohio State 9. Three plays later Jacory Harris found Allen Hurns for the first of two three-yard TD hookups to give the 'Canes a quick 7-0 lead.

A second three-and-out by the Ohio State offense ensued and Harris followed with an 11-play drive that he and Hurns capped from three yards out again.

"The thing we wanted to do the most was start fast," Ohio State coach Luke Fickell said. "The number one thing we didn't do on defense was start fast."

His defense held serve, for the most part, for the rest of the game. After giving up 116 yards to the Hurricanes in those first two drives, the team allowed only 247 the rest of the way and kept the home team, playing in front of its second-largest crowd at Sun Life Stadium (66,279), out of the end zone until that final minute.

Sophomore C.J. Barnett and freshman Bradley Roby recorded their first career interceptions, but the Buckeyes managed just three points off the two miscues. Linebackers Andrew Sweat, Etienne Sabino and Storm Klein led the team with nine, eight and six tackles apiece.

Hall was certainly a spark. His first four rushes of the season all went for first downs and covered 13, 13, 15 and 12 yards. His 87 yards rushing was just three short of his career high (90 vs. New Mexico State in 2009) and his 14 carries - all but one in the first half as he experienced cramping in the second half - did represent a career high.

Fifth-year senior quarterback Joe Bauserman, in just his third start, was just 2 of 14 passing for 13 yards and true freshman backup Braxton Miller was 2 of 4 for 22 yards, including an interception on a tipped first attempt.

Punter Ben Buchanan had his second-best day

Bradley Roby recorded his first career interception against the Hurricanes.

Buckeyes Overpower Buffaloes, 37-17

Braxton Miller makes first career start; Defense holds Colorado to 91 yards rushing

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Ohio State got back on the winning track Saturday afternoon, defeating Colorado 37-17 in front of 105,096 fans at Ohio Stadium.

Balance was the name of the game for the Buckeyes (3-1), who rebounded nicely from a 24-6 setback last weekend at Miami. Solid performances from both the defense and special units provided the OSU offense with outstanding field position throughout the contest, and gritty rushing and improved passing attacks proved difficult for the Buffaloes (1-3) to defend.

Freshman quarterback Braxton Miller was effective in his first career start, completing 5 of 13 passes for 83 yards and two touchdowns - both to freshman wide receiver Devin Smith - while adding 84 yards on the ground. Junior running back Jordan Hall provided a spark to the Buckeye rushing attack, toting the ball 18 times for 84 yards and a touchdown. Hall had 231 all-purpose yards in the contest, with 135 on kickoff returns.

"I think our number one thing going into this game was special units had to make plays. I mean, that was the top of the list," head coach Luke Fickell said. "We did a good job there making some plays and trying to use that as a weapon. I think the next thing we had that poise on defense. We had to tackle better. Obviously we can always get better, but I think we had some poise. We gave up a touchdown on a play. You would hope you could make a play there. But we didn't panic, we just kept under control. So we're excited there."

"Offensively went in thinking we have to run the football. I know there's some different ways we have to run it. But people are going to make it difficult on you. But when you look at it we did a good job running the football."

"And then the last thing, as I said, we had to play with some emotion. I think that's what we wanted, to get back home and get that feel of emotion, get those guys on the sideline, get the students into it. And I think that's what we saw out there today from the beginning of the game, really, to all the way to the end. We're excited about those things."

Defensively, the Buckeyes stifled the Colorado rushing attack, limiting the Buffaloes to 76 yards on the ground.

Ohio State struck first, scoring on its second possession of the game. After a CU three-and-out and 20-yard punt, the Buckeye ground attack marched 43 yards in seven plays, capped by a 1-yard TD run from Hall for a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

Sophomore defensive end Adam Bellamy put the Buckeye offense in prime position on its next drive by recovering a Rodney Stewart fumble at the Colorado 22. Sophomore kicker Drew Basil cashed in on the turnover with a 28-yard field goal to give the Buckeyes a 10-0 lead with 4:49 to play

Miller and Smith connected for a 32-yard touchdown on the first drive of the second quarter to up the Buckeye lead to 17. Colorado countered on its next drive as Tyler Hansen hit Toney Clemmons with an 11-yard TD on fourth down to put the finishing touches on a 10 play, 83-yard drive that cut the Ohio State advantage to 10.

Momentum would swing back in favor of the Buckeyes late in the second quarter. With 23 seconds left before halftime, the Buffaloes fumbled a Ben Buchanan punt that junior defensive back Zach Domicone recovered at the 11-yard line. Basil connected from 18 yards for a 20-7 Ohio State lead heading into the locker room.

Smith hauled in a 17-yard TD pass from Miller on the opening drive of the third quarter for a 27-7 Buckeye advantage. CU responded on its following possession with an eight play, 60-yard drive that ended in a 47-yard field goal by Will Oliver.

Hall sent the Ohio Stadium crowd into frenzy on the ensuing kickoff, dashing 90 yards down the sideline to set up the Buckeye offense at the Colorado 5. Sophomore running back Carlos Hyde cruised into the end zone on the following play to make the score 34-10.

Basil's third field goal of the game - a career of 47 yards - extended the Ohio State lead to 27 (37-10) early in the fourth quarter. The Buffaloes tacked on a late TD - a 14-yard strike from Hansen to Tyler McCulloch - to provide the final margin.

Spartans Edge Ohio State, 10-7, in Big Ten Opener

Buckeyes held scoreless until the final minutes; defense forces three MSU turnovers

COLUMBUS, Ohio - No. 25 Michigan State withstood a late rally from the Buckeyes to escape Ohio Stadium with a 10-7 win in the conference opener for both teams.

A Big Ten defensive battle was witnessed by 105,306 fans at Ohio Stadium as the Spartans (4-1, 1-0 Big Ten) and their aggressive, blitzing defense limited the Buckeye offense to 178 total yards and sacked the OSU quarterbacks nine times on the day. Ohio State (3-2, 0-1 Big Ten) countered with an inspired defensive performance of its own, forcing three Spartan turnovers while repeatedly rising to the occasion with their backs to the wall.

"You have to give a lot of credit to Michigan State," head coach Luke Fickell said. "They came in here and outplayed us. And we knew it was going to be a physical football game. And we just didn't get it done."

Despite the best efforts of the OSU defense, the Scarlet and Gray failed to sustain a consistent offensive attack. The Spartans stuffed the Buckeyes on the ground, holding Ohio State to 35 yards on 39 attempts, while freshman Braxton Miller (5 of 10) and senior Joe Bauserman (7 of 14) combined for only 143 yards passing.

Michigan State never trailed, jumping out to an early first quarter lead as Kirk Cousins and B.J. Cunningham connected from 33 yards at the 7:44 mark for a 7-0 advantage.

Ohio State mounted its first significant drive of the game on its first possession of the second quarter. Miller hit sophomore wide receiver Chris Fields for a 33 yard gain to the Spartan 33, but an interception by MSU defensive back Darqueze Dennard squashed the Buckeye threat.

MSU threatened late in the second, but once again came away empty handed. With a first and 10 at the OSU25, Cousins mishandled a ball that sophomore defensive lineman Johnathan Hankins recovered for the Buckeyes at the 38.

The Spartans advanced the ball to the Buckeye 31-yard line on its second drive of the third quarter but stalled once again. In an attempt to extend the lead to two possessions, Dan Conway fell short from 51 yards.

MSU appeared to break the game open near the end of the third. Facing a third and 6 at their own 31-yard line, Cousins found a wide open Cunningham for 52 yards to the Ohio State 17. After Edwin Baker gave the Spartans a first and goal at the Buckeye 5, the Silver Bullets held on three-consecutive plays to set up a fourth down early in the fourth quarter. On the following play, sophomore defensive back Bradley Roby tipped a Cousins' fade pass to Cunningham that C.J. Barnett intercepted in the endzone.

Bauserman entered the game on the following series but was unable to generate any offense, going three-and-out. Michigan State would add a Johnathan Hankins and teammates celebrate after this second quarter fumble recovery.

Conway field goal from 50 yards on the next possession to extend its lead to 10.

An interception by Roby at the Ohio State 24 kept the Buckeyes alive with just over four minutes to play. After the teams traded possessions, Bauserman found freshman wide receiver Evan Spencer open in the middle of the field for a 33-yard TD, making the score 10-7 with 10 seconds remaining on the clock. MSU would recover the ensuing onside kick to close the game.

GAME 6: AT #14/15 NEBRASKA

Nebraska Rallies Past Ohio State, 34-27

Ohio State can't hold on to 21-point lead; Hyde rushes for 104 yards and two TDs

LINCOLN, Neb. - Taylor Martinez ran for a touchdown and passed for two others while bringing No. 14 Nebraska back from a 21-point second-half deficit, and the Cornhuskers defeated Ohio State 34-27 in the first Big Ten game at Memorial Stadium.

Rex Burkhead scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 17-yard run with 5:10 left.

Ohio State (3-3, 0-2 Big Ten) built a 27-6 lead behind freshman quarterback Braxton Miller, who sprained his right ankle in the third quarter and did not return.

Miller ran for 91 yards and went 5 of 8 passing for 95 yards before he got hurt.

Huskers linebacker Lavonte David stripped the ball from Miller in the middle of third quarter to start the rally.

Then Martinez ran 18 yards for a touchdown, threw a 36-yard TD pass to Quincy Enunwa and tied it with a 30-yard catch-and-run to Burkhead after Stanley Jean-Baptiste intercepted Bauserman in his first game at cornerback after moving from receiver.

Martinez ran for 102 yards and was 16 of 22 passing for 191 yards for Nebraska (5-1, 1-1). Burkhead ran 26 times for 119 yards.

Carlos Hyde led the Buckeyes with 104 yards rushing -- Ohio State's first 100-yard rusher of the season -- and two touchdowns, including a career-long 63-yarder in the second quarter.

The biggest deficit Nebraska had overcome previously was 17 points, most recently against Texas A&M in 2002.

An upset looked to be brewing in the first half, and the Buckeyes' momentum continued to roll when Hyde scored from a yard out to give Ohio State a 27-6 lead early in the third quarter.

David, who made 13 tackles, changed the game with his biggest play of the night. As Miller fought for yards up the middle, he stuck his arms in and pulled the ball away from the quarterback.

Martinez scored two plays later, going untouched up the middle on a zone read to pull the Huskers to 27-13.

The Buckeyes did a good job containing Martinez in the first half, but the sophomore broke loose for 93 yards on the ground after halftime.

Martinez's passing and decision-making had been skewered after the loss at Wisconsin, but he threw a perfect strike to Enunwa to pull the Huskers within a touchdown. Martinez freelanced in the backfield before dumping off to Burkhead, who dodged a tackler and went 30 yards for the tying touchdown with 7:35 left.

C.J. Barnett was called for a facemask on Martinez during the Huskers' winning drive, and Burkhead ran for 22 yards before he broke free for the go-ahead score.

Sophomore running back Carlos Hyde busts loose for a 63-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

GAME NOTES

- Ohio State went 2-of-2 in the red zone against Nebraska and is now 16 of 19 on the season. The only three times Ohio State has failed to score inside the red zone was on a fumble and on two end-of-game possessions to run out the clock against Akron and Colorado.
- Corey "Philly" Brown hauled in a career-long 27-yard reception in the third quarter.
- Braxton Miller rushed 10 times for 91 yards before leaving the game in the third quarter. He also had a career-long 24-yard run in the first quarter.
- Jake Stoneburner hauled in a career-long 32-yard TD reception in the first quarter.
- Carlos Hyde's 63-yard TD run in the second quarter was a career long and Ohio State's longest play from scrimmage this season. Hyde finished with a career high 104 yards on 13 carries and 2 TDs.
- Carlos Hyde's 104 yards rushing represented Ohio State's first 100-yard rusher this season.
- Michael Bennett recorded his second sack of the season in the second quarter.
- Orhian Johnson recorded his first INT of the season and the second of his career late in the second quarter, setting up a 35-yard field goal by Drew Basil going into halftime.
- C.J. Barnett recorded a career-high 10 tackles.
- Drew Basil finished 2-for-2 on FGs and has now made seven in a row on the season.

GAME 7: AT #16/15 ILLINOIS

Buckeyes Upset Illini in Herron's Return, 17-7

Head coach Luke Fickell picks up his first win over a ranked opponent; Herron rushes for 114 and a TD

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. - Daniel Herron ran for 114 yards in his first game back and the Buckeyes (4-3, 1-2 Big Ten) forced three turnovers - two of them setting up the Buckeyes' only touchdowns - in a 17-7 upset of the Illini (6-1, 2-1).

Desperate for a way to end a two-game losing streak, coach Luke Fickell drew up a game plan that was about as conservative as it gets.

True freshman quarterback Braxton Miller threw just four passes, while Herron carried the ball 23 times and punched in the third-quarter touchdown that was the game winner.

"It was hard staying at home and watching the games," said Herron, who missed the season's first six games. "Now that I'm back out here, I'm doing everything I can to help this team, be a leader and get some more wins."

The Buckeyes didn't throw their first pass until the 7:22 mark of the second quarter. Miller, in fact, didn't complete a pass until he hit tight end Jake Stoneburner on a 17-yard TD pass with 13:06 left in the game for a 17-0 lead.

"Up 10-0, we were on the sideline saying, 'Man, we haven't made a pass yet,'" Stoneburner said. "It was kind of funny, but we were all saying, 'Who cares?' We're up, and if we complete one pass, I'll take the catch."

No Ohio State team had gone through a game with just one completion since 1976, a 22-21 loss to Missouri with Rod Gerald under center.

That Ohio State team was ranked No. 2, while this one was just trying to get its head above water, end the two-game losing streak and chalk up its first Big Ten win.

Enter Herron, who had to sit out six games as a result of his role in a cash-for-memorabilia scandal - the mess that cost ex-coach Jim Tressel his job - and then for taking too much money for a summer job.

Fickell said during the week he wasn't sure how much the senior tailback would play and he wasn't listed as the starter.

But Herron was in the backfield from the beginning, and carried the bulk of the load on the opening drive, one that on a day of gusty 20-plus mph winds delivered a 45-yard Drew Basil field goal. It was the only score of the half.

"They have a pretty good offensive line, a pretty good running back and I think one of the things they were excited about was having (Herron) back," Illinois coach Ron Zook said.

The Ohio State defense, meanwhile, played big, holding an Illini offense that was averaging almost 450 yards and 34.7 points a game to 285 yards and, until the 6:22 mark of the fourth quarter, no points.

Illinois quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase was 20 of 34 for 169 yards, with two interceptions and a late 3-yard touchdown pass to Evan Wilson that finally put the Illini on the board.

Jake Stoneburner catches a 17-yard TD pass from Braxton Miller in the fourth quarter, putting the Buckeyes up 17-0.

Stoneburner's touchdown was set up by an A.J. Jenkins fumble at the Illinois 37 while Herron's 12-yard touchdown run - which gave the Buckeyes a 10-0 lead - followed an interception by Bradley Roby that he returned to the Illinois 12. Scheelhaase threw to Jenkins and the receiver appeared to ruin a shorter route than Scheelhaase anticipated. The ball flew 10 yards past Jenkins and right at Roby.

In addition to stifling Scheelhaase, the Buckeyes also held Illinois other big weapon in check.

Illinois senior tailback Jason Ford left the game in the third quarter with an injured left shoulder after a big hit on a first-down carry. He finished with 30 yards on six carries.

Scheelhaase was Illinois' leading rusher with 16 carries for 49 yards.

Late Touchdown Pass Gives Buckeyes 33-29 Win

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Freshman quarterback Braxton Miller found classmate Devin Smith wide open for a game-winning 40-yard touchdown pass with 20 seconds left to give Ohio State a thrilling 33-29 Homecoming win over No. 15 Wisconsin in front of 105,511 at Ohio Stadium.

It was an exciting finish to a game that featured 31 fourth quarter points and an extraordinary rally by the Badgers (7-2, 2-2 Big Ten) in the final minutes. With the win, the Buckeyes (5-3, 2-2 Big Ten) vaulted themselves back into the race in the Big Ten Leaders Division.

"This is what Ohio State is about," Luke Fickell, Ohio State head coach, said after the game. "This is a huge win, a signature win for this team. This will give us some confidence and momentum heading into the final weeks of the season."

Miller finished the game with 188 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns -- 89 yards through the air and 99 on the ground - as three different Buckeyes found the endzone. The Buckeye defense rose to the occasion as well, holding Wisconsin to 342 total yards, 169 below its season average.

Wisconsin opened up a 7-0 lead on its second possession of the night. Facing third and 8 at the OSU 22, Russell Wilson found Montee Ball out of the backfield for a TD to cap an eight-play, 69-yard drive. Christian Bryant nearly came up with an interception on the play for Ohio State, but the sophomore safety mistimed his jump on the pass allowing Ball to run into the endzone untouched.

Ohio State drove into Badger territory twice in the second quarter but came away with only three points. Drew Basil put the Buckeyes on the board at the 2:55 mark of the second quarter, knocking in a 39-yard field goal off the left post.

Dan Herron opened the second half with a bang for Ohio State, dashing 57 yards to the Wisconsin 18 on the first play of the third quarter. Six plays and 18 yards later, Miller faked a handoff and juke past a Badger defender into the endzone on fourth and goal from the 1-yard line for the first rushing TD of his career and a 10-7 Buckeye lead.

A huge play on special teams set up the Buckeyes in prime position on their next offensive possession. Following a Badger three-and-out, Ryan Shazier broke through the Wisconsin line to block Brad Nortman's punt. Curtis Grant recovered at the 1-yard line and three plays later, Jordan Hall punched the ball in to give Ohio State a 10-point lead at the 9:26 mark of the third quarter.

After holding the Badgers to their second three-and-out of the half, Jordan Hall muffed a punt that Wisconsin's Jon Budmayr recovered at the OSU 27. Ball converted from 1-yard out six plays later to cut the Buckeye lead to three.

After Basil added his second field goal of the game to extend the Ohio State lead to 20-14 with 10:39 to play, the Silver Bullets stepped up. With Freshman wide receiver Devin Smith hauls in a 40-yard TD pass from Braxton Miller with 20 second left for the win.

Wisconsin facing a fourth and 2 at the OSU 38, Andrew Sweat and Etienne Sabino combined on a tackle that left the Badgers a yard short of the first down. Miller appeared to put the game away on the ensuing offensive possession, converting three third downs - the third a 44-yard TD run - to give the Buckeyes a 26-14 lead with 4:39 to go after an unsuccessful two-point attempt.

Wisconsin refused to go quietly, however, cutting the Buckeye lead to five less than a minute later when Wilson connected with Jared Abbrederis from 17 yards out. Following an OSU three-and-out, Abbrederis struck again, breaking free of the Buckeye coverage for a 49-yard TD that put the Badgers up 29-26 with 1:18 remaining after a successful two-point conversion.

The Badgers had one final attempt to win the game following Miller's touchdown pass, but Sweat hit Wilson in his throwing motion to send the ball into the ground.

GAME 9: INDIANA

Buckeyes Outlast Hoosiers, 34-20

Three Buckeyes rush for 100-plus yards; John Simon records 10 tackles and 3.0 TFL in the win

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Daniel "Boom" Herron, Braxton Miller and Carlos Hyde combined for 346 yards on the ground to propel Ohio State to a 34-20 win over Indiana before a crowd of 105,195 at Ohio Stadium.

It was the first time Ohio State had a trio of backs - Herron (141 yards), Miller (105) and Hyde (105) - each run for more than 100 yards in a game since 1989 when Dante Lee, Scottie Graham, and Carlos Snow accomplished the feat in a game against Northwestern. Miller added 55 yards through the air on 5 of 11 passing for 401 yards of total offense.

"Most importantly we came out with win," Ohio State head coach Luke Fickell said after the game. "We did a nice job of regrouping in the second half, but we didn't play with enough poise and energy early on. Give Indiana credit, they played well and are much better than their record indicates."

Defensively, the Buckeyes (6-3, 3-2 Big Ten) were tested by Indiana's balanced attack as the Hoosiers (1-9, 0-6 Big Ten) totaled 333 total yards - 174 passing and 159 rushing - and converted on 10-of-17 third down attempts. John Simon and Andrew Sweat led the Buckeyes with 10 and nine tackles, respectively, while four other players added seven apiece.

Indiana scored on its first two possessions of the game for a quick 10-0 lead. After Mitch Ewald connected on a 35-yard field goal to cap the opening drive, the Hoosier defense recovered a Miller fumble at the OSU 41. Six plays later, Stephen Houston ran the ball in from five yards out to put the Buckeyes in an early hole.

Miller responded on the following drive for the Buckeyes, gashing the IU defense for an 81-yard touchdown on the ground to cut the Indiana lead to three with 7:12 to play in the first. The run was the longest in school history by an OSU quarterback and the longest play from scrimmage this season.

Drew Basil evened the score at 10 at the start of the second quarter with a 36-yard field goal. The teams would trade 3-pointers - Basil connecting from 45 and Ewald from 25 - to make the score 13-all at the half.

Ohio State jumped ahead for the first time in the game five minutes into the second half on a 15-yard touchdown run from Herron. Indiana was quick to respond, marching 64 yards in seven plays on the ensuing drive to tie the game at 20 on a 34-yard play action touchdown pass from Tre Roberson to Kofi Hughes with 6:56 remaining in the quarter.

Miller gave the Scarlet and Gray a 27-20 lead heading into the fourth quarter with a 20-yard touchdown run on third and goal. It was Miller's second touchdown of the game. Indiana answered with a 49-yard drive, but a 40-yard field goal attempt by Ewald was wide left.

Indiana got the ball back with just under six minutes to play and advanced to the OSU 44 before Travis Howard intercepted a Roberson pass intended for Hughes. Carlos Hyde would take over from there, scoring on a 2-yard touchdown run with 2:41 to play after racing 47 yards down the right sideline to set up the seven points.

The Hoosiers had one final comeback attempt, but were stopped on downs inside their own 10 with just under two minutes to play.

GAME 10: AT PURDUE

Buckeyes Fall in Overtime at Purdue, 26-23

Buckeyes suffer blocked extra point in the final seconds of regulation

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. - Robert Marve's 1-yard touchdown on a quarterback sneak in overtime gave Purdue a 26-23 win over Ohio State.

Ohio State (6-4, 3-3 Big Ten) took the ball first in overtime, and Drew Basil's 33-yard field goal gave the Buckeyes a 23-20 lead.

Marve completed a 14-yard pass to Gary Bush on third-and-12 from the 15, then scored the game-winner on the next play.

Ohio State, who is now 5-2 all-time in overtime, drove down the field trailing 20-14 in the final minutes behind freshman QB Braxton Miller. On a fourth-and-3 from the Purdue 13, Miller scrambled, leaped over one of his teammates, looked back across the field and found Jordan Hall behind the secondary for a touchdown to tie the game, but Purdue's Bruce Gaston blocked Basil's extra point try.

Marve threw an interception in the final minute, but quickly redeemed himself. He stepped in for starter Caleb TerBush and completed 10 of 13 passes for 94 yards. Ralph Bolden ran for 80 yards on 18 carries for the Boilermakers.

Miller passed for 132 yards and ran for 43 yards on 16 carries.

Daniel "Boom" Herron ran for 62 yards on 18 carries as Ohio State's winning streak ended at three games.

Carson Wiggs' 19-yard field goal on Purdue's opening drive opened the scoring.

On its second possession, Purdue went 60 yards on 11 plays, and Akeem Shavers scored from 4 yards out to bump the Boilermakers' lead to 10-0. The Buckeyes were held to 11 yards and no first downs in the first quarter.

Ohio State finally got going early in the second quarter as Miller began creating passing opportunities with his ability to scramble. His 38-yard touchdown pass to Hall cut Purdue's lead to 10-7.

Marve then took the Boilermakers 88 yards on 13 plays. Bolden's 7-yard touchdown run pushed Purdue's lead to 17-7 with 3:19 left in the second quarter.

Basil missed a 50-yard field-goal try wide right as time expired, and the Boilermakers led 17-7 at the break. Purdue outgained the Buckeyes 242-97 in the first half and held the Buckeyes to 18 yards on 17 carries before the break. Herron was held to 16 yards on eight carries in the first half.

Purdue had a chance to perhaps put the Buckeyes away, but the Boilermakers went three-and-out to start the second half. Ohio State then moved right down the field, and Miller's 5-yard touchdown run cut Purdue's lead to 17-14 with 9:52 left in the third quarter.

Wiggs' 44-yard field goal with 13:06 to play put the Boilermakers up 20-14.

Running back Jordan Hall hauls in a 13-yard TD pass in the final seconds of regulation.

Postgame Notes

- Ohio State is 5-2 all-time in overtime games.

• Dan "Boom" Herron (2,671 coming in) moved into 10th place on Ohio State's all-time rushing list, passing Raymont Harris who rushed for 2,649 yards from 1990-93.

• Jordan Hall hauled in a career-long 38-yard pass for a TD in the first quarter. He then caught a second TD pass with 13 seconds left in regulation. He finished with three catches for 58 yards and two TDs.

• Braxton Miller tied his career high with two TD passes in the game. He accounted for three scores on the day with a 6-yard TD run in the third quarter.

• Tackle J.B. Shugarts had his streak of 24 consecutive starts snapped. Freshman Antonio Underwood made his first start at right tackle in his place.

• Ryan Shazier recorded a career-high seven tackles, including 1.0 TFL and a forced fumble in the third quarter.

• John Simon has 11.0 TFL in the past five games.

• Orhian Johnson intercepted his second pass of the season and the third of his career late in the fourth quarter.

GAME 11: #21 PENN STATE

Turnovers Cost Buckeyes in 20-14 Loss to Nittany Lions

Braxton Miller rushes for 105 yards and a TD; Ryan Shazier season-high 15 tackles

COLUMBUS, Ohio - No. 21 Penn State defeated Ohio State 20-14 before a Senior Day crowd of 105,493 at Ohio Stadium.

Following an exciting back-and-forth first half, both defenses rose to the occasion in a scoreless second stanza. Penn State (9-2, 6-1 Big Ten) stifled the Buckeye offense after halftime, forcing a pair of fumbles and holding on fourth down twice in the fourth quarter as Ohio State tried in vain to make a comeback. The Buckeyes (6-5, 3-4 Big Ten) fell behind 10-0 for the third-consecutive game and struggled to move the ball consistently against the stout Nittany Lion defense.

"Obviously, falling behind 10-0 is not what we planned on doing," Ohio State head coach Luke Fickell said after the game. "When you fall behind early, it makes it really difficult to do the things you want to. We fought and battled, but it's just not good enough."

Offensively, Ohio State was led by quarterback Braxton Miller, who totaled 188 all-purpose yards, 105 on the ground and 83 through the air on 7-of-17 passing. Daniel 'Boom' Herron added 76 yards rushing on 18 carries in his final home game as a Buckeye.

The OSU defense struggled against the Penn State ground game throughout the contest, surrendering 239 yards and two rushing touchdowns. Ryan Shazier enjoyed a breakout game playing in place of injured linebacker Andrew Sweat, totaling a team season-high 15 tackles.

Penn State held a 10-0 advantage after one quarter. The Nittany Lions marched 80 yards in five plays on their opening drive of the game, taking a 7-0 lead on a 39-yard TD run by Stephfon Green. Anthony Fera added a field goal on the following offensive possession to put the Buckeyes in an early 10-point hole.

Miller put the Buckeyes on the board at the beginning of the second quarter with a 24-yard touchdown run that cut the Nittany Lion lead to three. Penn State would respond on its next drive, however, as Green added his second TD of the game - this time from four yards out - for a 17-7 lead with 10:05 remaining in the first half.

The Buckeyes caught a break two possessions later. After a three-and-out on offense, Orhian Johnson intercepted a Matt McGloin pass and returned the ball to the PSU 37. Miller capitalized on the Nittany Lion mistake, finding Jake Stoneburner in the back of the end zone for a 7-yard TD.

Fera added his second field goal of the game - a 46-yarder - as time expired in the first half to make the score 20-14 in favor of Penn State at halftime.

The Nittany Lions had a golden opportunity to add to their lead midway through the third quarter following a Jordan Hall fumble at the OSU 11, but the Buckeye defense held on fourth and goal from the 1 as Storm Klein and Michael Bennett combined to stop Silas Redd short of the goal line.

Ohio State had a number of opportunities in the fourth quarter to get back into the game, but the Penn State defense rose to the occasion each time. Miller advanced the Buckeyes into opposing territory with a little more than three minutes to play, but the Nittany Lions held on fourth down. OSU had one final attempt at a comeback after a PSU three-and-out, but an intentional grounding penalty and three incomplete passes sealed the win for Penn State.

Prior to kickoff, 24 Buckeye seniors were honored for their contributions to the football program in their final home game at Ohio Stadium. At halftime, Dr. Jon R. Woods, retiring director of OSU Marching Band, dotted the 'T' in Script Ohio in honor of his 38 years of service to the band and University community.

GAME 12: AT #15 MICHIGAN

Buckeyes Fall to Wolverines for first time since 2003

Braxton Miller throws for 235 yards and rushes for 100 in the loss

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - Ohio State's late comeback attempt fell short as the Buckeyes dropped a 40-34 decision to No. 15 Michigan in front of 114,132 fans at Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor. The loss snaps Ohio State's six-game win streak over Michigan while the Buckeyes conclude the regular season with a 6-6 record, 3-5 in the Big Ten, and the Wolverines improve to 10-2, 6-2 in conference play.

Braxton Miller scrambled for seven yards on 4th-and-6 to start the Buckeyes' final possession but was intercepted on the following fourth down when his pass deflected off the hands of Devin Smith and was caught by Courtney Avery.

Miller threw for a career-high 235 yards, ran for 100 and accounted for three touchdowns but a dinged up Buckeye defense could not slow down a Denard Robinson, who threw for 167 yards, ran for 170 and had a hand in all five Michigan touchdowns.

The Buckeyes took an early 7-0 lead with a six play, 80-yard drive capped by a 54-yard touchdown pass from Miller to a wide open Corey "Philly" Brown.

Michigan answered right back on its second drive of the game when Robinson found room along the left sideline for 41 yards to tie the game at seven. The Wolverines then took the 9-7 lead on a holding call in the end zone after the Buckeyes were forced into a third and 27 from their own 3-yard line. On the ensuing drive, Robinson found Junior Hemingway for a 26-yard touchdown pass to give Michigan a 16-7 advantage.

Drew Basil then cut the Michigan lead to 16-10 with a 45-yard field goal on the Buckeyes' first drive of the second quarter. After Travis Howard forced and recovered a Robinson fumble at the Michigan 31-yard line on the next Wolverine possession, Miller gave the Buckeyes the lead with a 19-yard touchdown scamper to make it 17-16 Ohio State.

However, Michigan answered back with a nine play, 80-yard drive capped by a six-yard touchdown run by Robinson to give the Wolverines the 23-17 lead.

The Buckeyes then responded with a 43-yard touchdown pass from Miller to DeVier Posey to cap a back-and-forth first half that resulted in a five lead changes and a 24-23 Ohio State advantage.

Michigan opened the second half with an 11 play, 80-yard drive that resulted in a 20-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Martavious Odoms to regain the lead at 30-24.

With just over a minute remaining in the third quarter and Michigan about to punt from its own 49-yard line, Wolverine punter, Will Hagerup dropped the snap and was tackled by Tyler Quarterback Braxton Miller totaled 335 total yards and three TDs at Michigan.

Moeller at the Michigan 32. The Buckeyes were able to move the ball inside the Michigan 5-yard line and were able to muster a 21-yard field goal by Basil to make it 30-27 in favor of the Maize and Blue.

The Wolverines answered right back when Robinson found Kevin Koger with a four-yard touchdown pass to cap an eight play, 75-yard drive to take a 37-27 lead to open the fourth quarter.

Ohio State was able to cut the lead to 37-34 with an 80-yard touchdown drive in which Miller completed three passes for 72 yards and Daniel "Boom" Herron punched it in from four yards out with 7:09 remaining.

Michigan advanced the ball to the Ohio State 1-yard line on the following drive only to have a touchdown run by Robinson negated by holding and personal foul penalties as Brendan Gibbons connected on a 43-yard field goal to extend the lead to 40-34 with 1:59 left in the game.

GAME 13: VS. FLORIDA

Special Teams cost Buckeyes in 24-17 loss to Florida

Braxton Miller throws two TD passes in the loss

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. -- Florida's defense and special teams came up big in the Gator Bowl, recording six sacks and scoring twice as the Gators beat Ohio State 24-17.

Andre Debose returned a kickoff 99 yards - the longest scoring play in bowl history - and Chris Rainey blocked a punt that was returned for a touchdown.

Those two helped the Gators (7-6) avoid their first losing season since 1979 and pick up some much-needed momentum after losing six of their previous eight games.

Ohio State (6-7) dropped four straight to finish below .500 for the first time since 1988, and lost seven games for the first time since 1897.

"When you have two good teams play each other, it's usually special teams that will make the difference," Ohio State defensive back Tyler Moeller said. "That's what it was today."

The Gators dominated the defensive line of scrimmage. They had a season-high six sacks, harassing Braxton Miller on nearly every passing play. Howard and Sharrif Floyd were disruptive all afternoon.

Just after Ohio State tied the game at 7 on Miller's 5-yard pass to DeVier Posey in the second quarter, Debose took the kickoff, made one cut to the outside and went untouched for his third career kickoff return for a touchdown. The Buckeyes never got close enough to even swipe at him, let alone make the tackle.

"It meant a lot to me," Debose said. "I just tried to do anything that I can do to help the team. ... There is no feeling like it."

Florida was up 14-10 at halftime and essentially put the game out of reach on the opening possession of the third.

Rainey came off the left end and blocked Ben Buchanan's punt. Seldom-used linebacker Graham Stewart scooped it up at the 14-yard line and scored the first touchdown of his career.

It was Rainey's sixth blocked punt of his career, breaking the school and SEC record.

Rainey also ran for 71 yards on a warm and sunny day in Jacksonville. John Brantley completed 12 of 16 passes for 132 yards, with a touchdown and an interception. He had a 17-yard strike to Deonte Thompson in the first.

Ohio State wasn't nearly as effective.

Miller completed 18 of 23 passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns. He also ran 15 times for 20 yards. He completed an 11-yard TD pass to Jordan Hall with 57 seconds remaining. The Buckeyes failed to recover an onside kick, and Florida ran out the clock for its sixth bowl victory in the last seven years, including four in a row.

Players doused Muschamp with ice water in the final seconds, but the coach later made it clear his team still has strides to make to get back to national prominence.

Senior DeVier Posey caught five passes for 38 yards, including an 11-yard TD in the first quarter, in his final game as a Buckeye.

Ohio State has building blocks, too. Miller, a freshman, gives Meyer an experienced and improving quarterback for next season even though the Buckeyes won't be bowl eligible.

"This whole season was a learning process," Miller said. "I learned as the season went on. I could have played better. I'm anxious to get going for next year."

Ohio Stadium is one of the most recognizable landmarks in all of sports. Built in 1922 at a cost of $1.3 million and refurbished in 2001 for slightly more than $194 million, the horseshoe-shaped stadium is a monument to college football. As part of the renovation, the once portable South Stands became a permanent fixture.

Ohio Stadium is listed in the National Registry of Historic Places. Anyone who has seen a game in the giant horseshoe understands why. There are few experiences in athletics that are more enjoyable!

LES WEXNER FOOTBALL COMPLEX AT THE WOODY HAYES ATHLETIC CENTER

All 33,000 square feet of the original facility has been renovated, while an additional 52,700 square feet was added TAKING THE OVERALL SQUARE FOOTAGE TO 85,700.

When the Woody Hayes Athletic Center was dedicated in 1987, it was one of the most extensive indoor facilities of its kind. Now, nearly 20 years later, a $19.5 million facelift is complete. The recent enhancements to the building solidify the Buckeyes' football practice facility as ONE OF THE NATION'S BEST.

PLAYERS' LOUNGE

A new 3,700-square foot players' lounge, including a study room with the latest in computer technology.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

More than 13,000 square feet of state of the art equipment and an 1,800-square foot second story cardio fitness area.

LOBBY

A 2,400-square foot lobby provides a distinctive entry for the football complex complete with a championship wall, memorabilia displays and a small theatre for the public that provides highlights of Ohio State football, both past and present.

TEAM LOCKER ROOM

The team locker room has been fully renovated and updated with new lockers for each of the players.

OFFICES

The coaches and support staff will benefit from approximately 7,500 square feet of office space.

HYDROTHERAPY POOLS

The hydrotherapy pool area with three pools, including a polar-plunge pool, a thermal-plunge pool and a large therapy pool, complete with the latest video technology.

OTHER AMENITIES

An indoor racquetball court and half-basketball court were also included in the facility upgrade.

HARMON FAMILY FOOTBALL PARK

A TOUCH OF CLASS

A $5 million gift from the Harmon family of Toledo ensures the Buckeyes of today and tomorrow will prepare on the finest football practice fields in the country.

"Now we have a practice facility that a championship football program like Ohio State University should have."

Those words were overheard on the first day of Ohio State's 2010 fall camp from a longtime college football coach and administrator as he stood on the state-of-the-art and classy Harmon Family Football Park. The words weren't necessarily intended for anyone to hear, but they ring so true.

The Harmon Family Football Park, named for Jole and Jim Harmon of Toledo and their family, provides Ohio State football with one of the finest, if not the finest, practice fields in all of college football... perhaps even all of football. The Football Park includes textbook practice fields and features one awesome and aesthetic attribute after another.

- Team videographers can film from any of four giant towers — gray with scarlet roofing — with viewing platforms at 35- and 55-feet high.
- A six-speaker-two-sub-woofer system enables the team to simulate loud crowd noise. • Six towers hold 248 giant lights that will have no trouble lighting the four fields.
- Yes, indeed: the Buckeyes now have four practice fields — two FieldTurf fields like the Ohio Stadium turf, and two natural grass fields.

All this and more for current and future Buckeyes and coaches because one benevolent family, one gracious family from northeastern Ohio that truly loves The Ohio State University, wanted to make a lasting impact to the football program. Their $5 million gift to the Department of Athletics and the football program funded the construction of the $5.2 million park.

"This is such a special opportunity for the Harmon family," Jim Harmon said while enjoying the festivities at the 2010 Big Ten Conference football media days. "It is such an honor for us to be able to give to the Ohio State Department of Athletics and the football program. This facility will have our name on it forever. That is something that is very special to us."

That is something that is very special to The Ohio State University, as well. The University will honor the Harmons into the Pay Forward Society during the game tonight. And generations of future Buckeyes will be honored to play in the Harmon Family Football Park.

"The gift from the Harmon family displays the strong belief they have in the program," Dane Sanzenbacher, a senior co-captain from Toledo, Ohio, said. "They believe in the direction of this program."

"With every deed you are sowing a seed, though the harvest you may not see."

OHIO STATE TRADITIONS

BUCKEYE LEAVES

A round white decal, about the size of a quarter, with a green depiction of a buckeye leaf is applied to Ohio State football helmets for big plays and consistency on the field. This tradition started in 1968 when football coach Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. Many of the sports at Ohio State incorporate Buckeye Leaves into their equipment and uniforms.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State University Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home football games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with a senior sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot where the sousaphone player then assumes the post of honor, doffs his or her hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

Woody Hayes, Bob Hope and Jack Nicklaus are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i."

First performed at the OSU-Pittsburgh football game Oct. 10, 1936, Script Ohio was named one of Athlon Sports' 10 Greatest Football Traditions in 1999.

BRUTUS BUCKEYE

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. In 1965, an art student designed and introduced the first Brutus, while the name was chosen in a contest. The mascot began as a hardened paper mache affair that looked like a bowling ball with legs. In 1975, a radical new Brutus was designed with a prune-like head and a man's body. That attempt was booed off the field and was re-worked, giving way to a mascot comparable to the beloved present-day Brutus.

The original choices for Ohio State's mascot included a ram, an elk, a moose and the leading candidate, a male deer. Due to the skittish nature of deer, the idea of a mascot was tabled until January 1941 when "Chris," a German police dog owned by an assistant cheerleader, made an appearance at a basketball game. The dog's career was short-lived and OSU remained without an official mascot until the 1960s.

HOMECOMING

First recognized in 1912, Homecoming began as "Ohio State Day." It was initiated by Professor (and later OSU President) George W. Rightmire. Homecoming was designed to bring the alumni back to the university and celebrate.

The celebration has been noted, among other things, for the decorating of Greek chapter facilities and university dormitories.

The parade is another tradition Buckeyes' hold high. The parade did not become a time-honored tradition until it joined the schedule permanently in 1965.

In 1926, student supporters wishing to pull a practical joke on the university, convinced the community that Maudine Ormsby was to be honored as queen. She was so popular on campus, she won the vote. Maudine actually turned out to be a cow, the only cow ever elected as homecoming queen.

TBDBITL

"The Best Damn Band in the Land" is the 225-member, all-brass Ohio State University Marching Band that formed in 1879 as a military band. Also known as "The Pride of the Buckeyes," the band perhaps is best known for the incomparable Script Ohio. Another band tradition of note is the "skull session," a warmup concert/pep rally in St. John Arena, open to the public before every home football game that allows the band to play and "think through" the show one last time. More than 10,000 fans regularly attend each skull session.

CHEERLEADERS

Buckeye cheerleaders are a constant source of support at all athletics events. The squad took second at the 2001 College Cheerleading National Championship, its highest finish since winning the 1993 title, and has placed first in the northeast region in 20 of the last 22 years. The squad was sixth at the 2009 national championships. The cheerleaders make appearances all over the state of Ohio throughout the year.

SCARLET AND GRAY

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, scarlet and gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

TUNNEL OF PRIDE

The brainchild of ex-OSU quarterback Rex Kern and former Director of Athletics Andy Geiger, the Tunnel of Pride actually started in 1995, when Notre Dame visited Ohio Stadium for the first meeting between the two teams in nearly 50 years. In an effort to generate even more emotion, excitement and enthusiasm than already existed, Kern and Geiger reached out to former Buckeye football players who were attending the game and asked them to form a tunnel for the team to run through as it came onto the field. Thus a tradition was born, which is now continued every other year when Michigan visits Ohio Stadium.

VICTORY BELL

Located in the southeast tower of Ohio Stadium, the Victory Bell is rung after every Ohio State victory. It was a gift of the classes of 1943, 1944 and 1945. Resting 150-feet up in the southeast tower, members of Alpha Phi Omega ring the bell after victories, a tradition that began after OSU beat California Oct. 2, 1954. On a calm day, it is said the bell can be heard five miles away. The bell weighs 2,420 pounds and cost $2,535 to install.

BUCKEYE GROVE

Since 1934, a Buckeye tree has been planted in honor of each Ohio State All-American. Trees are usually planted in a pregame ceremony at the spring game. With the renovation of Ohio Stadium in 2001, the Buckeye Grove is now located at the southwest corner of the stadium.

OHIO STATE TRADITIONS*BLOCK O

An Ohio State University and Ohio Stadium tradition, Block "O" celebrated its 70th anniversary last year. Known for spreading spirit, starting cheers and performing card stunts, Block "O" was founded in 1938 by Clancy Isaac. After seeing a cheering section at the University of Southern California, Isaac decided that it was something Ohio State needed. Seventy-one years later, Block "O" is Ohio State's largest student organization on campus and has gained local and national recognition.

CAPTAINS' BREAKFAST

Started in 1934, this annual event is held on Homecoming weekend. All past captains are invited back for a breakfast and to welcome in the new captains.

GOLD PANTS

A gold charm replica of a pair of football pants is given to players and coaches following wins over Michigan. The tradition started in 1934 when first-year coach Francis Schmidt told those wondering how OSU would fare with its nemesis from Ann Arbor: "They put their pants on one leg at a time just like everybody else." Schmidt's Buckeyes then went and defeated Michigan four consecutive times, all by shutout.

THE MICHIGAN GAME

The annual Ohio State-Michigan football game was No. 1 on a list of the 10 Greatest Rivalries In Sports compiled by the editorial staff at ESPN.com in 1999. There simply is no greater rivalry in college athletics.

THE ILLIBUCK TROPHY

The winner of the Ohio State – Illinois game has received the Illibuck trophy since the tradition began in 1925. Illibuck was a live turtle, but has been a wooden replica since 1927. Also representative of the rivalry is the peace pipe. Members of two junior honorary societies, Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Fighting Illini-Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to the winning school from the previous year.

SENIOR TACKLE

A last practice of the year tradition since 1913 where the seniors hit the blocking sled one final time, for many years it was held following the last practice prior to the season finale with Michigan. But depending upon the Buckeyes' bowl obligation, it has sometimes been moved to the last home practice before the team departs for its postseason game.

SCHOOL SONGS

Ohio State proudly boasts an alma mater (Carmen Ohio), two fight songs (Across the Field and Buckeye Battle Cry) and a state rock song (Hang on Sloopy).

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
that's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold, whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field, show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

More than 56,000 students select from 170 undergraduate majors and more than 250 master's, doctoral, and professional degree programs. As Ohio's best and one of the nation's top-20 public universities, Ohio State is further recognized by a top-rated academic medical center and a premier cancer hospital and research center.

The university's total research expenditures in 2010 reached $756 million. Ohio State ranks second among all U.S. universities in industry-sponsored research, according to the National Science Foundation.

The university's innovative prowess attains world-class status, particularly in critical areas such as global climate change, cancer, infectious disease, advanced materials, and ag-bio products that feed and fuel the world.

An additional 8,000 students attend Ohio State's regional campuses in Lima, Mansfield, Marion, and Newark, and the Agricultural Technical Institute in Wooster. Founded as a federal land-grant institution in 1870, the university has awarded 637,048 degrees since 1878. Its legacy extends to more than 475,000 living alumni.

- Ohio State's 2010 enrolled class (Columbus campus) of 6,549 set record highs in average ACT (27.8) and SAT (1235) scores and in the percentage of students graduating in the top 10 percent of their high school classes (54).
- Ohio State has been recognized among the top producers of U.S. Fulbright recipients for 2010–11, according to the Chronicle of Higher Education.

- Ohio State's graduation rate is at an all-time high of 78 percent, well above the national average of 57 percent. In addition, 93 percent of first-year students return after their freshman year.
- Ohio State ranks 13th in green power purchases among U.S. universities, according to the EPA's Green Power Partnership.
- Since August 2010, Ohio State has been named one of America's best college values by Forbes Magazine, The Princeton Review, and Kiplinger's Personal Finance.
- A Wall Street Journal survey of corporate recruiters ranked Ohio State 12th in the nation among the country's most highly sought-after graduates.
- The Ohio State University Medical Center was named one of "America's Best Hospitals" for the 18th consecutive year.
- For the fourth consecutive year, Ohio State has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll for its community engagement.
- Ohio State is one of 19 colleges and universities to earn a five-star rating in the LGBT-Friendly Campus Climate Index, based on gay-friendly policies, programs, and practices among 200 higher education institutions.
- Ohio State is ranked 18th among the nation's best public universities in U.S. News & World Report's 2011 edition of "America's Best Colleges," which links first-year student programs and internships to student success. Ohio State is again the state's top university.

- First Year Experience (FYE): Created to help new students transition from high school to college and feel at home at Ohio State
- Ohio State Scholars Program: Residential programs that bring together students with similar academic/professional goals
- University Honors Program: Offers challenging courses and intellectual environment for high-achieving students
- Freshman Seminar Program: Small, discussion-oriented classes designed to acquaint students with research opportunities
- Study abroad: More than 120 programs with participation from 1,500 Ohio State students each year

Consistently ranked among the top national public universities for undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs, Ohio State is a student-centered research university that provides a well-rounded experience both inside and outside the classroom. From admission to graduation, Ohio State's academic programs are designed to challenge students and prepare them for the future.

OHIO STATE LEGENDS AND GREATS

Won five national titles (1970, 1968, 1961, 1957 and 1954) • Won 13 Big Ten championships • Won 205 overall and 152 conference games • Led Ohio State to 11 bowl games (eight Rose Bowls) • Took Ohio State to four consecutive Rose Bowls (1972-75) • Produced 56 first team All-Americans • Coached three Heisman Trophy and three Outland Trophy winners • Coached two Lombardi Award winners

FOR 28
OF
FOOTBALL

A worshipper of tough men, he preached self-reliance, education and that the more you give, the more you get in return. He took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history and touched countless lives along the way.

WOODY HAYES
HEAD COACH, 1951-1978

Between 1951 and 1978, while Woody Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (narrowly missing four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. Twice, the Buckeyes won a conference-record 17 consecutive league games.

Under Hayes, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972, '73, '74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first team All-America honors. He coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

Hayes recorded a lifetime record of 238-72-10. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. During the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, Ohio, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami (Ohio) for two.

Hayes was a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the off-season. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died March 12, 1987, but his influence still lives through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a special place in college football history.

ARCHIE GRIFFIN

1974, 1975 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. He is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But though more than three decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin, now president of the Ohio State Alumni Association.

Griffin was selected to the National High School Hall of Fame in 1996. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

His jersey number “45” was retired Sept. 30, 1999.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- 1972: Set a then OSU single-game rushing record with 239 yards against North Carolina. Rushed for 867 yards during the year, then a freshman record.
- 1973: Became the first OSU sophomore to rush for 1,000 yards (1,577) and was named to a first-team spot on the UPI All-America team. Winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Big Ten Player of the Year.
- 1974: Rushed for a then-school record 1,695 yards and was a unanimous All-America choice. Won the Heisman Trophy, a second-consecutive Silver Football and was the UPI and Walter Camp player of the year.
- 1975: Made college football history by winning his second Heisman Trophy. Again chosen by UPI and Walter Camp as Player of the Year. A consensus All-America selection.

JIM TRESSEL

HEADCOACH, 2001-2010

- Won 2002 National Championship
- Won six Big Ten Conference Championships
- Nine bowl appearances and seven 10-win seasons
- 229-78-2 career record
- 94-21 record at Ohio State
- 8-1 record vs. Michigan

The numbers on Jim Tressel are impressive: 229 career wins; nine national title game appearances; six Big Ten titles; nine bowl appearances; and national championships in 1991, 1993, 1994, 1997 and 2002. Or 25 first team All-Americans at Ohio State; Heisman, Lombardi, Thorpe, Lott, O'Brien, Butkus, Nagurski, Groza, Rimington, Walter Camp, Ray Guy, Wuerffel, Lowe's and Draddy award winners; 49 first team all-Big Ten selections. Add nearly an .820 winning percentage with the Buckeyes; 133 players earning Ohio State degrees during his tenure; and the most academic all-Big Ten selections in the conference each of his years as coach.

He guided the Buckeyes to an overall record of 94-21, nine bowl appearances (including seven BCS games), six 10-win seasons, six Big Ten titles and a national championship.

Tressel, who owned an overall record of 229-78-2 after his first 24 years as a head coach, was named as the Buckeyes' 22nd head coach Jan. 18, 2001. His first Ohio State squad earned a 7-5 record with a dramatic road win over Michigan in the regular-season finale. In 2002, Ohio State came from out of nowhere to capture the Big Ten's first consensus national title since 1968, posting a 13-0 regular-season record and then upsetting top-ranked Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in a 31-24 double-overtime thriller, becoming the first Division I-A school to record a 14-0 campaign.

During 2003, Tressel led the Buckeyes to an 11-2 record and their second consecutive BCS bowl appearance, where OSU defeated Kansas State in a return visit to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The 2004 Buckeyes attained an 8-4 record that included wins over Michigan in the regular-season finale and Oklahoma State in the MasterCard Alamo Bowl. In 2005, the 10-2 Buckeyes tied for the Big Ten title (7-1) and closed the season with back-to-back wins over Michigan and Notre Dame.

In 2006, Ohio State opened the season at No. 1 in the polls and held that ranking throughout the course of the regular season, the first team to go wire-to-wire at the top spot. Posting a 12-0 record during the regular season, Ohio State recorded wins over Texas and Michigan, both of which were ranked No. 2 at the time they played the Buckeyes, and played Florida in the BCS championship game in Arizona. In 2007, 11-2 Ohio State won another outright Big Ten title and carried the No. 1 ranking in the polls for five weeks, again advancing to the BCS title game, facing LSU in New Orleans. In 2008, the Buckeyes again won a share of the Big Ten title, polished off Michigan (42-7) for an OSU record fifth straight time, and faced Texas in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The 2009 season was another memorable year for Ohio State as the team won a sixth consecutive Big Ten crown, became the first school to defeat five 10-win teams in one season and capped the 11-2 campaign with a win over Oregon State in the Rose Bowl.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Tressel spent 15 seasons as head coach at Youngstown State, where he also served for a time as athletics director. His years there were ripe with success, the Penguins winning four national championships and qualifying for the Division I-AA playoffs a remarkable 10 times. During his stay at YSU, he compiled an overall record of 135-57-2 and was a four-time pick as the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year.

LECHARLES BENTLEY

2001 RIMINGTON AWARD WINNER

LeCharles Bentley was another in a long line of outstanding offensive linemen at Ohio State. During the 2001 season, he won consensus all-Big Ten and All-America honors, was chosen as the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year and was named winner of the second annual Dave Rimington Award as the best center in college football. He became the 20th Ohio State player to win a major award.

Bentley, a native of Cleveland, enjoyed a stellar senior year, capping a brilliant career starting all 11 regular-season games and grading out to a winning performance in each game. Time and again, it was the 6-2, 300-pound Bentley who was called upon to provide the key block that either kept a drive alive or led to an Ohio State touchdown. He graded 90 percent or better in nine of the 11 games he played and was chosen as offensive lineman of the week five times. At the end of the season, the coaching staff selected him as the offensive player of the year.

Bentley was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. He started the final seven games of the 1999 season (six at guard and one at tackle) before moving to center as a junior in 2000. He started all 12 games as a junior, playing through a painful lower back condition, and won second-team All-Big Ten honors.

At the end of his senior year, he won first-team All-America honors on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, and Associated Press teams. As a senior, Bentley faced the challenge of playing for a new coaching staff. He quickly won that group's confidence and admiration with his tough, smart and physical style of play.

A second-round pick of the New Orleans Saints in the 2002 NFL Draft, Bentley was named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Rookie of the Year. He earned two Pro Bowl selections during his career with the Saints and Cleveland Browns.

DAVID BOSTON

SPLIT END 1996-98

In three seasons, David Boston set or tied 12 Ohio State receiving records, including most receptions (191), yards (2,855) and touchdowns (34) in a career and most receptions (85) and yards (1,435) in a season (1998). His records also included most 100-yard receiving games in a career (13) and season (8 in 1998). In 1998, he earned first team All-America honors. But what separated him from other receivers in OSU history is the way he stood out in big games. With 19 seconds left to play in the 1997 Rose Bowl, he caught the game-winning touchdown. In the 1998 Michigan game, he torched the Wolverines with 10 receptions for 231 yards and two touchdowns. He capped off his career by being named MVP of the 1999 Sugar Bowl. The Humble, Texas, native played eight seasons in the NFL.

PAUL BROWN

High school teacher, coach, college coach, professional football innovator...Paul Brown excelled at all tasks and ventures. Brown is considered by many to be the "father of the modern offense" and was highly acclaimed for his many ideas on planning and organization that changed the game of football.

With avid support from many influential groups, including the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association, Brown came from Massillon High School to become head coach at Ohio State Jan. 14, 1941. Under Brown, the Buckeyes went 18-8-1 and were known for their speed, intelligence and love of contact.

In his first season at the helm at OSU, Brown went 6-1-1, losing to an Otto Graham-led Northwestern and tying Michigan. The Buckeyes tied for second place in the Western Conference and finished 13th in the AP poll. The next year, 1942, despite lettermen to graduation or military service in World War II, Brown led the Buckeyes to Ohio State's first national championship using a team of three seniors, 16 juniors and 24 sophomores.

Following military service, Brown became the first head coach of the Cleveland Browns and also the Cincinnati Bengals. He won four AAFC championships and three NFL championships with the Browns, and was named professional coach of the year six times.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, Brown grew up in Massillon. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967 and the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991. He passed away in August, 1991, but forever left his influence on the game of football throughout Ohio and far beyond.

EARLE BRUCE

HEAD COACH 1979-1987

Earle Bruce, who played for the Buckeyes in the 1950s and was an assistant to Woody Hayes from 1966-72, became OSU head coach in 1979. His first season was defined by an 8-0 conference record that earned the Buckeyes their first outright Big Ten title in four seasons. Ohio State entered the 1979 Rose Bowl ranked No. 1, but fell short of a national title 17-16 to USC; Bruce was named Big Ten and national coach of the year. A 31-28 win over Navy in the 1981 Liberty Bowl was the first of three consecutive bowl victories, (47-17 over BYU, 1982 Holiday Bowl; 28-23 Pitt, 1983 Fiesta Bowl). The Buckeyes went back to the Rose Bowl in 1984. The fourth Big Ten title the Buckeyes achieved under the fiery Bruce was in 1986, when Ohio State finished the season with a Cotton Bowl victory. He left Ohio State after the 1987 season with an 81-26-1 record, including a 5-3 mark in bowl games. Bruce, who was also head coach at Iowa State, Northern Iowa, Colorado State and in Arena Football, is a member of the College Football (2002), Ohio State (2004) and Iowa State (2000) halls of fame.

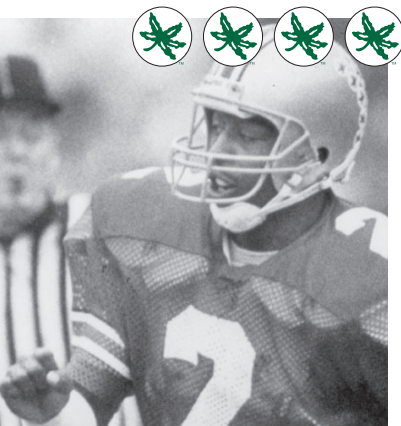

KEITH BYARS

TAILBACK 1982-85

Keith Byars earned first team All-America honors, was Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) in 1984, when he rushed for a then-school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. That season, he led the nation in rushing, scoring (144 points) and all-purpose running (2,441). Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. The Fighting Illini led 24-0, but Byars' fourth TD was a spectacular 67-yard run in which he completely reversed his field and lost a shoe at the Illinois 35, but still outran the Illini secondary. His fifth touchdown of the day was the game winner. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a broken foot, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards. The Dayton, Ohio, native played 13 seasons in the NFL. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

CRIS CARTER

SPLIT END 1984-86

In his three seasons as a starter, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His hands were exceptional, his route running was precise, his ability to stay in-bounds was uncanny and he possessed the ability to out-jump his defenders. He made the diving, leaping, acrobatic catch look routine. In 1985, Carter set a Rose Bowl record with nine receptions for 172 yards. In 1986, Carter put together one of the great seasons in OSU annals with 69 receptions for 1,127 yards and 11 touchdowns. At the conclusion of that season, he became Ohio State's first All-America split end. He left Ohio State as the school's all-time leader in career receptions, touchdown receptions and reception yardage and is without question one of the greatest receivers in OSU and Big Ten history. A product of Middletown, Ohio, he played 16 seasons in the NFL and was an eight-time Pro Bowl selection. His #80 was retired by the Minnesota Vikings and he was one of only four NFL receivers with more than 1,000 career receptions (1,101). Carter was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2003.

HOWARD CASSADY

1955 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

It didn't take Ohio State fans long to realize why Howard "Hopalong" Cassady was something special. In his first collegiate game, the season opener against Indiana in 1952, the 150-pound freshman came off the bench to score three touchdowns and lead the Buckeyes to a 33-13 victory. From then on, "Hop" was a regular in the OSU lineup, playing in 36 of a possible 37 games and leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 29-8 during the next four years.

In 1954, Cassady won unanimous All-America honors and helped the Buckeyes to a perfect 10-0 record and the first of five national championships for Coach Woody Hayes. The 1954 season concluded with a convincing 20-7 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

Cassady again won All-America acclaim in 1955, when he rushed for 958 yards and 15 touchdowns. At the end of the year, Cassady's list of accolades included the Heisman Trophy and recognition by the Associated Press as the 1955 Athlete of the Year.

Cassady, who also was an outstanding defensive back, finished his collegiate career with 2,466 rushing yards. That total still ranks 11th on the all-time OSU rushing list.

Cassady, who prepped at Columbus Central and as a boy would sneak into Ohio Stadium to see the Buckeyes play, also played baseball at OSU, starting at shortstop for three years. He is a member of the Ohio State University Athletics (1997), College Football (1979) and Columbus Baseball (2005) halls of fame.

After graduation, Cassady was a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. He played defensive back with Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia before retiring.

"Hop" lives in Tampa, but spent many summers in Columbus as a coach for the Columbus Clippers, the Yankees' AAA farm club. His jersey number "40" was retired Nov. 18, 2000.

JOHN COOPER

HEAD COACH 1988-2000

John Cooper, the only college coach to win the Rose Bowl with both a Big Ten and Pac-10 team, became OSU head coach in 1988. His list of achievements include three shared Big Ten championships, five 10-win seasons and a 1997 Rose Bowl victory. The Buckeyes captured their first Big Ten title since 1986 in 1993, going 10-1-1 and beating BYU in the Holiday Bowl. In 1995, led by an offense that amassed a school-record 475 points, Ohio State climbed the polls to as high as No. 2, garnering an 11-2 record and three players earned national honors: Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George, Lombardi winner Orlando Pace and Biletnikoff winner Terry Glenn. In 1996, Cooper piloted Ohio State to a No. 2 final ranking, a shared Big Ten title, and a dramatic come-from-behind 20-17 victory over Arizona State in the Rose Bowl. He left Ohio State after the 2000 season with a 111-43-4 record. Cooper's teams finished the regular season ranked in the final Top 25 polls 12 of 13 years, including three Top 5 finishes. Overall, 21 All-Americans played under Cooper, as Ohio State played in three Citrus Bowls, three Hall of Fame/Outback Bowls, two Sugar Bowls, and the Rose, Holiday and Liberty bowls. Cooper, who was also head coach at Tulsa and Arizona State, was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008.

TOM COUSINEAU

LINEBACKER 1975-78

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. In 1977, he was named the top defensive player in the Orange Bowl. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stands as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, Cousineau was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an Ohio State record that was tied by Chris Spielman. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game (16 against SMU in 1978). Six of the Top 10 single game tackle performances in school history are held by Cousineau. He ranks second on both the all-time OSU tackle list with 569 (three behind Marcus Marek) and on the career solo tackles list with 259. MVP of the Orange Bowl and the Hula Bowl, Cousineau became OSU's first No.1 overall pick in the NFL Draft when he was selected in 1979 by the Buffalo Bills. He played three seasons with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL and was the 1979 Grey Cup MVP. He then played seven seasons in the NFL. The Fairview Park, Ohio, native was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995.

MIKE DOSS

STRONG SAFETY 1999-2002

Mike Doss was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. In each of those years – his sophomore, junior and senior seasons – Mike won first-team All-America honors. In doing so, he became just the seventh three-time All-American in Ohio State football history. Doss was an inspiration both on and off the field. At the beginning of his senior year, he was chosen as one of the team's two co-captains. At the end of his senior year, in his final game as a Buckeye, he was chosen as Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where Ohio State captured its first consensus national championship since 1968 with a thrilling 31-24 double-overtime victory over Miami. During his career with the Buckeyes, Mike Doss played in 50 games, starting 40, and collecting a combined total of 331 tackles, placing him in the OSU career top 10. Doss started the last two games of his freshman year. From that point on he was a regular. As a sophomore, he finished the season with a team-best 94 tackles and was named to a first-team berth on The Sporting News All-America team. He also led the team in tackles as a junior with 87 total stops and was again named to a first-team spot on The Sporting News team, as well as the Walter Camp squad. After electing to stay for his senior year, Doss collected a personal high 107 tackles and was named first team All-America on the Associated Press, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Walter Camp teams. A three-time all-Big Ten pick, Doss was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. The Canton, Ohio, native has played five seasons in the NFL.

WESLEY FESLER

END 1928-30

Wes Fesler was Ohio State's second three-time All-American, winning first-team recognition at end in 1928, '29 and '30. Fesler, who also played fullback for the Buckeyes, was team captain as a senior and was the Ohio State and the Big Ten MVP in 1930. Fesler, a superb all-around athlete, earned nine letters, three each in football, basketball and baseball. In basketball, he won all-Big Ten honors in 1931. In baseball, he spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals organization. After graduating, Fesler served one year as an assistant on the OSU staff and then was head football coach at Wesleyan, Princeton and Pitt. In 1947, he returned to his alma mater as head coach and spent four years, compiling a 21-13-3 record and winning the 1949 Big Ten Championship and the 1950 Rose Bowl. He later served as head coach at Minnesota and was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. He was a charter inductee to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1977. The Youngstown, Ohio, native passed away July 30, 1989 at age 81.

JOHN FRANK

TIGHT END 1980-83

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar. All-Big Ten as a junior and senior, Frank ranked fourth on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns; the reception and yardage totals were the most in school history by a tight end. He was a three-year starter, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983, still a record total for tight ends. He was voted the team MVP as a senior. In the classroom, Frank was a two-time Academic All-American and a Rhodes Scholar finalist. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco 49ers, Frank returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June, 1992. He was inducted into the National Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 2006 and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998.

EDDIE GEORGE

1995 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

At the start of the 1995 season, Eddie George was, at best, a long-shot contender for the Heisman Trophy. By season's end, he was a runaway choice, easily outdistancing runner-up Tommy Frazier of Nebraska for college football's most coveted award.

As Ohio State's sixth Heisman recipient, George rushed for a school-record 1,927 yards and 24 touchdowns. Included in that yardage total were three 200-yard games, one of which was an Ohio State record 314 yards against Illinois Nov. 11, 1995.

George's other honors in 1995 included the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Big Ten MVP. He also was a team co-captain.

George, who attended Abington (Pa.) High School and then Fork Union Military Academy, played only sparingly his first two years at Ohio State. Given the chance to start, he rushed for 1,442 yards as a junior and completed his career as the second leading rusher in Ohio State history with 3,668 yards.

Selected by the Houston Oilers in the first round of the NFL Draft, he was the 1996 NFL Rookie of the Year and played nine years of professional football, earning four Pro Bowl berths. He currently holds a number of business interests and hosts the "Big Ten Quad" on the Big Ten Network.

In June of 2001, Eddie earned a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Ohio State. He was a 2006 inductee into the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame. His jersey number "27" was retired Nov. 10, 2001. In July 2012 he was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

JOE GERMAINE

QUARTERBACK 1996-98

Joe Germaine proved in two seasons as a backup that he was a fine quarterback. But it was 1996, his senior year as the starter and team co-captain, when he set 11 school records while throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, that separated him from other OSU quarterbacks. He was the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP that year and he led OSU to the No. 1 national ranking for a then-school-record 10 consecutive weeks. He also was named by the conference coaches as the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year. No Ohio State fan will ever forget his heroics in the 1997 Rose Bowl as he calmly directed the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:40 for the winning touchdown (a five-yard touchdown pass to David Boston with 19 seconds left). Germaine threw for 6,370 yards and 56 touchdowns in three seasons. The Mesa, Arizona, product played five seasons in the NFL and is currently a starter in Arena Football.

TERRY GLENN

1995 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

Anyone who saw Terry Glenn play would never know that he has a fear of flying. Glenn repeatedly rose to new heights during the 1995 campaign, gracefully soaring through the air to gather in one clutch reception after another in a record-breaking year that resulted in the 5-11, 185-pound flanker becoming the school's first-ever recipient of the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

Glenn finished the season with 64 receptions for 1,411 yards and 17 touchdowns, third-best in school history. His touchdown total is still a school record but his yardage record was topped by David Boston's 1,435 yards in 1998.

Glenn, who had just 15 career receptions for 266 yards and no TDs entering the 1995 campaign, led the nation in yards per catch, was fourth nationally in yards per game and eighth nationally in scoring in 1995, his final year as a Buckeye.

In addition to winning the Biletnikoff Award, Glenn, a native of Columbus and a product of Brookhaven High School, followed Cris Carter as just the second wide receiver in Ohio State history to win first-team All-America honors.

Glenn caught nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns at Pitt, shattering the school records for single-game receiving yardage and tying the mark for TD catches. The Pitt game was one of seven 100-yard games for Glenn, another OSU record.

At the end of the season, Glenn opted to leave school and was taken in the first round of the 1996 NFL draft by the New England Patriots. He set an NFL record for catches (90) by a rookie, helping the Patriots to the Super Bowl in a sensational first year and had 8,823 yards and 44 touchdowns in his 12-year career.

RANDY GRADISHAR

LINEBACKER 1971-73

Randy Gradishar was referred to by Woody Hayes as "the best linebacker I ever coached at Ohio State." He was a two-time All-American and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter between 1971 and 1973 and recorded 320 total tackles. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points. After graduation, he played 10 years with the Denver Broncos. During his career, he was a seven-time Pro Bowler, the second most by any Bronco at the end of his career, and he also is the all-time leader in tackles for Denver with 1,958. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992. In December of 1998, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

CHIC HARLEY

RUNNING BACK 1916-17, 1919

Charles "Chic" Harley was Ohio State's first three-time All-American. Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and '17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense. Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. Harley led the Buckeyes to their first Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. In 1919, he was named team captain. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1. The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and has been known as the "House that Harley built." His jersey number 47 was retired in 2004.

A.J. HAWK

2005 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

A. J. Hawk capped a brilliant senior year by becoming Ohio State's fifth Lombardi Award winner, presented annually since 1970 to the best player in college football who lines up within five yards of the snap.

The 6-1, 247-pound Hawk finished the 2005 campaign with a team-high 121 tackles, marking the third consecutive year he had paced the Buckeyes in that category. His tackle totals included 16.5 tackles-for-loss and 9.5 sacks, both best on the team.

In addition to the Lombardi Award, Hawk was the 2005 Big Ten pre-season and post-season Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive MVP of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

A first-team All-American both as a junior and senior, Hawk closed his career as the fifth leading tackler in Ohio State history with 494 career stops, 41 tackles-for-loss and 9.5 sacks. His 141 tackles in 2004 were the most by an Ohio State player since 1986.

Hawk led the team in tackles in 10 of 12 games in 2005, including a season-high 19 stops against Michigan State. A four-year letterman, Hawk was elected co-captain as a senior, receiving a vote from every player on the team except for himself.

Players like A. J. Hawk don't come along very often. His intensity and passion for the game made him special. His long blond locks flowing out from beneath his helmet in tribute to the late Pat Tillman, he was literally all over the field making plays and encouraging his teammates. The 2005 Ohio State defense was one of the most formidable in the nation, leading the Big Ten in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and sacks. Needless to say, Hawk played a huge role in that success.

Following the season, Hawk was the fifth player taken in the 2006 NFL draft, going to the Green Bay Packers, his current team.

JOHN HICKS

1973 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

1973 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That year Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Cappelletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1969. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

Hicks became a starter at right tackle as a sophomore in 1970, helping the Buckeyes to the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl. A loss to Stanford in Pasadena cost the No.-1 ranked and previously unbeaten Buckeyes the national championship.

Hicks missed the entire 1971 season because of a preseason knee injury. Not coincidentally, the Buckeyes struggled to a 6-4 record that year.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning consensus All-America honors both of those seasons and helping the Buckeyes to two more Big Ten titles and back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 28-3-1. Hicks was the first player ever to start in three Rose Bowl games.

A fiery, emotional leader and a fan favorite, Hicks was a first-round draft choice of the New York Giants following the 1973 campaign. His promising career was cut short by injury, however, and he returned to Columbus to enter private business.

Hicks was selected in April, 2001, for the College Football Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1985.

SANTONIO HOLMES

WIDE RECEIVER, 2003-05

A Buckeye standout from 2003-05, Santonio Holmes again put Ohio State into the NFL spotlight with his exploits in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa.

A 2006 first-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Belle Glade, Fla., native made his biggest contribution to the Black and Gold on February 1, 2009, when he snagged nine catches for 131 yards, the biggest with 36 seconds left for the game-winning score in football's biggest game.

With four receptions on the Steelers' last drive, Holmes went to the right corner of the endzone, scraping his toes to haul in the six-yard toss from Ben Roethlisberger. That amazing catch gave the Steelers a 27-23 lead in their sixth Super Bowl victory and gave Santonio the MVP trophy, only the sixth receiver and the first Buckeye ever to receive that recognition.

LES HORVATH

1944 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, Ohio, native accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's MVP in 1944.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered dental school at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

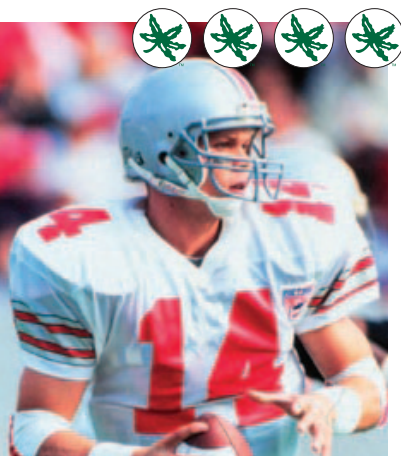

Horvath is the only Heisman winner who did not play the previous season. The layoff obviously did not bother him. He set a Big Ten rushing record in his final year.

Horvath, who finished his Ohio State career with 2,055 yards of total offense, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died in November of 1995, is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame (1969) and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame (1977). His jersey number "22" was retired Oct. 6, 2001.

BOBBY HOYING

QUARTERBACK 1992-95

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying earned first team all-Big Ten honors, was named team captain and rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.580) and passing efficiency (163.4) that year. His 57 career TD passes set a school record, as did the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) ranked second in OSU annals. An exceptional student, he won the 1995 National Football Foundation's Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior student-athlete in college football. The native of St. Henry, Ohio, played six seasons in professional football. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

VIC JANOWICZ

1950 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him among the greatest athletes ever to play football at Ohio State.

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who, in addition to being a triple threat on offense, also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler: "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kickoffs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 875 yards in total offense. The Elyria, Ohio, native also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-American in 1950, also set two more records in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconscious for 30 days.

A member of the College Football Hall of Fame (1976) and the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame (1977), Janowicz died in February of 1996. His jersey number, "31" was retired Sept. 23, 2000.

MALCOLM JENKINS

2008 THORPE AWARD WINNER

The premier defensive back in college football, cornerback Malcolm Jenkins earned consensus All-America honors during his tremendous senior season. Foregoing the NFL draft to complete his college career with the Buckeyes, Jenkins' attention to detail and commitment to excellence were unrivaled, setting a splendid standard for the Silver Bullet secondary.

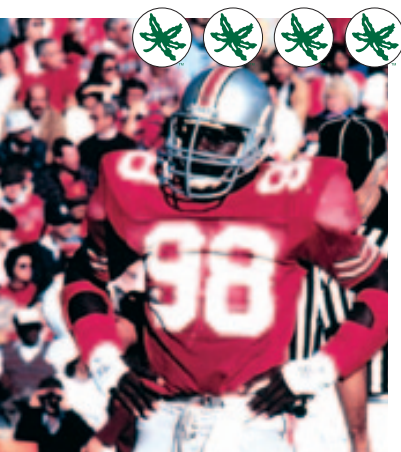

Lean and lithe, Jenkins was known for relentless intensity on the field, demanding the highest performance standards from himself and his teammates. Voted team captain as a senior, this no-nonsense vocal leader was a starter on four Big Ten title teams, twice playing in the national championship game.

Earning consensus All-America accolades and a unanimous all-Big Ten selection, Jenkins realized one of his long-time goals when he won the 2008 Jim Thorpe Award over players from USC and Tennessee. The Piscataway, N.J., product was the first-round draft pick of the NFL's New Orleans Saints and graduated in June of his senior year.

PEPPER JOHNSON

LINEBACKER 1982-85

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982-85, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. In the 1984 and '85 seasons, Johnson led the squad in tackles and teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. A born leader, Johnson was elected team captain and voted defensive MVP in both his junior and senior seasons. He also was named all-Big Ten in both of those years. He was a member of two Super Bowl championship teams with the New York Giants. Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl twice in his career and built a reputation as one of the most feared hitters in professional football. After 13 seasons as an NFL player, he began his coaching career with the New England Patriots. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

PETE JOHNSON

FULLBACK 1973-76

But the 6-1, 247-pound Johnson was much more than a just a blocking back. He also was proficient at lugging the pigskin, rushing for 2,308 yards and a school-record 58 touchdowns during his career. To say "Big Pete" had a nose for the goal line would be an understatement. He led the nation in scoring as a junior, tallying a school and Big Ten record 26 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,059 yards and converted 34 of 44 third-down tries. Johnson set a school record that year with five TDs against North Carolina. In 1976, playing almost the entire season with two sprained ankles, Johnson still rushed for 724 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 156 points in 1975 was a school record and 348 career points stood as the school record until the 2004 season. He played eight seasons in the NFL and was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

ANDY KATZENMOYER

1997 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

Andy Katzenmoyer started te first game of his freshman year in 1996 and was a regular for 37 consecutive games. He opted for an NFL career at the end of his junior season. He won a plethora of awards, including the 1997 Butkus Award and consensus All-America honors as a sophomore, and the 1996 Football News and Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He was a three-time all-Big Ten selection and a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award.

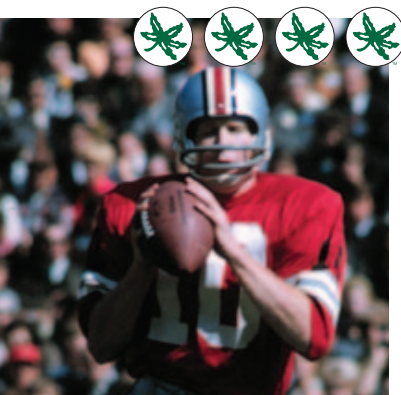

Katzenmoyer amassed three-year statistical totals of 197 solo tackles, 256 total tackles, 50 tackles-for-loss, 192 yards in losses, 18 quarterback sacks and six interceptions. He was twice named the team's Randy Gradishar Award winner as best linebacker (1997-98). He scored twice on interceptions, vs. Minnesota as a freshman and vs. Arizona as a sophomore, tying a school record for interception return TDs. He also tied the school record with five tackles-for-loss in a game (vs. Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl).

A consensus All-American as a sophomore in 1997, he became only the second sophomore to win the Butkus Award as the nation's outstanding linebacker. He was a Lombardi Award finalist, ranking second on the team with 97 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss. He clinched the Arizona win with a 20-yard interception return touchdown. He had 11 tackles against both Arizona and Iowa. In 1996 he became the first freshman to start every game at linebacker for the Buckeyes, finished second on the team with 85 tackles and paced the team with 23 tackles-for-loss and sacks (12), both school records for a linebacker.

As a junior in 1998, Katzenmoyer was a finalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Defensive Player of the Year Award (in addition to the Lombardi Award) and he anchored the nation's top-ranked defense against the run and second-ranked total defense. A first-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, his professional career was cut short by injury.

REX KERN

QUARTERBACK 1968-70

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 national championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. To win the national championship, Kern led OSU to a 27-16 win over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. He was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 wire service national championships, losing the final game in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. In 1969, he was named an All-American. In 1970, he was elected team captain. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery redhead was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word. Earning three degrees from Ohio State, he played four seasons in the NFL. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1978 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

CRAIG KRENZEL

QUARTERBACK 2002-2003

Craig Krenzel was a two-year starter at quarterback for the Buckeyes. Taking over the offensive reins with almost no experience at the start of the 2002 season, the 6-4 signalcaller led the Buckeyes to a share of the Big Ten title, the national championship and a perfect 14-0 record. At the end of the season, Krenzel was selected by his teammates as co-MVP. A little less than a month later he was named as the Offensive MVP in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where he guided the Buckeyes to a thrilling 31-24 double overtime win over top-ranked Miami in the national title game. The leading rusher in the game, Krenzel's fourth-and-14 completion to Michael Jenkins in the first overtime kept OSU's title hopes alive. In 2003, Krenzel directed OSU to an 11-2 record and a second consecutive win in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. After throwing four touchdown passes against Kansas State in the latter, he was again selected as the game's Offensive MVP. Krenzel completed his career with a 24-3 mark as a starter, including a 2-1 record against Michigan. An honors graduate in molecular genetics, he swept the most prestigious academic awards, including the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy, the Socrates Award and the NCAA Today's Top VII. He spent three seasons in the NFL before retiring.

JIM LACHEY

OFFENSIVE GUARD 1981-84

Jim Lachey entered his senior season with just four career starts. But in his final year, Lachey established himself as one of the top linemen in all of college football and was named first team All-America. Blessed with unusual speed and strength for a man his size, Lachey played guard for the Buckeyes, but could easily have played tackle. Lachey played a key role in the Ohio State offense in 1984, paving the way for junior running back Keith Byars, who led the nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 touchdowns) and in all-purpose running (2,441 yards). In 1995, the San Diego Chargers drafted Lachey, a St. Henry, Ohio, native, with the 12th pick in the first round. In 1991, he started at left tackle for the Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins. In his 11-year NFL career, he was named All-Pro nine times and established himself as one of the game's top linemen. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999. He is currently the analyst on the Buckeye radio broadcasts.

JAMES LAURINAITIS

2008 LOWE'S SENIOR CLASS WINNER

2006 NAGURSKI AWARD WINNER

The most decorated linebacker in Ohio State history, James Laurinaitis was a three-time consensus All-American while playing on four Big Ten championship teams. Twice helping the Buckeyes to the BCS championship game (and setting a championship game record with 18 tackles vs. LSU), he won the Bronko Nagurski Award for the nation's most outstanding defensive player as a sophomore, took home the Butkus Award as America's top linebacker as a junior, and became Ohio State's first-ever winner of both the Lott Trophy and the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award as a senior. He was a finalist 12 times for national awards during that three-year period.

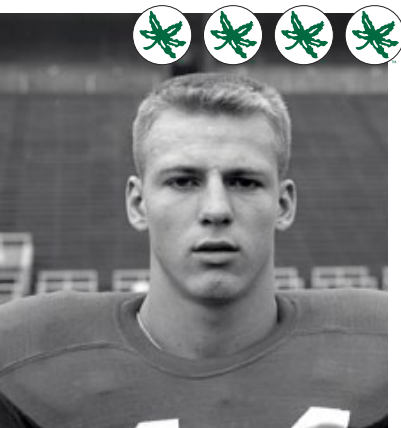

Leading Ohio State in tackles as a sophomore, junior and senior, Laurinaitis finished his career with 375 total tackles, seventh-best in Buckeye history. Selected as the preseason and postseason Big Ten defensive player of the year for 2007 and 2008, Laurinaitis was a two-time team captain for a defensive unit that led the nation in total defense in 2007 and never ranked lower than 15th nationally throughout his career.

Despite projections of a high draft status after his junior campaign, the Hamel, Minn., native returned for his senior season, helping the Buckeyes put together their record fifth-straight win over Michigan. An academic all-Big Ten selection, Laurinaitis was tireless in community service, public speaking and outreach. He was drafted by the NFL's St. Louis Rams and graduated in March of his senior year. 113

DICK LEBEAU

DEFENSIVE BACK, 1956-58

A member of Ohio State's 1957 national championship team, the legendary Dick LeBeau has spent a remarkable 51 seasons in the National Football League as a player and coach, participating in 786 NFL games. On February 6, 2010, LeBeau was selected into the 2010 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

LeBeau, a native of London, Ohio, played 14 seasons with the Detroit Lions, setting an NFL record for 171 consecutive games played at cornerback. The NFL interception leader in 1970 and a three-time Pro Bowler, his 62 career picks still rank 7th best in league history.

As a coach, however, LeBeau's achievements are even more significant. The architect of the zone blitz, his innovations have brought changes to every aspect of defensive football.

Serving as an assistant coach with Philadelphia, Green Bay, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Buffalo, and was also the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 2000-02. A coach with 10 division championship teams, he has coached in five Super Bowls, winning twice, most recently as defensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

MIKE NUGENT

2004 LOU GROZA AWARD WINNER

When Ohio State senior Mike Nugent, or "Noooooge" as he was known to Buckeye fans, was selected as the winner of the 2004 Lou Groza Award as the nation's best place-kicker, no one was surprised. There was simply no one else in the same league.

Nugent was the model of consistency in 2004, converting 24 of 27 field goal attempts, including five-of-six from 50 yards or longer to lead the nation in that statistic. He also made all 30 of his extra point tries and sent 40 of his 62 kickoffs into the end zone for touchbacks.

In a 24-21 win over Marshall, the 5-10, 180-pound kicker calmly nailed a career-long 55-yarder as time ran out. The following week, in a hard-fought 22-14 win at North Carolina State, he was a perfect five-for-five in the field goal department. In his final game as a Buckeye, Nugent scored 15 points against Oklahoma State to become Ohio State's all-time leading scorer with 356 points.

During his illustrious career, Nugent literally rewrote the Ohio State record book, either setting outright or sharing in 22 school kicking records. Two of the more significant were career marks for field goals made (72 of 88) and career field goal percentage (.857). He also holds the marks for most consecutive field goals made (24), consecutive field goals made in Ohio Stadium (17) and career 50-yard field goals (8).

Nugent won All-America honors in both 2002 and 2004, becoming the first Ohio State placekicker to receive a spot on the first team. He was a consensus choice in 2004, landing a spot on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Associated Press All-American teams.

At the beginning of the 2004 season, Nugent's teammates selected him as one of the team captains, the first kicker since 1976 to be so honored. At the end of the year, his teammates chose him as the 2004 MVP.

He was a 2005 second-round draft pick of the NFL's New York Jets, where he played five seasons. He has also played for Tampa Bay and Arizona, and the 2012 campaign will be his third with the Cincinnati Bengals.

ORLANDO PACE

1995, 1996 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

1996 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Orlando Pace broke into the starting lineup the first day of preseason camp his freshman year and started every game the next three years before passing up his senior season to enter the NFL draft. During his stay at Ohio State, the 6-6, 330-pound left tackle became recognized as one of the most dominant offensive linemen ever to play the game.

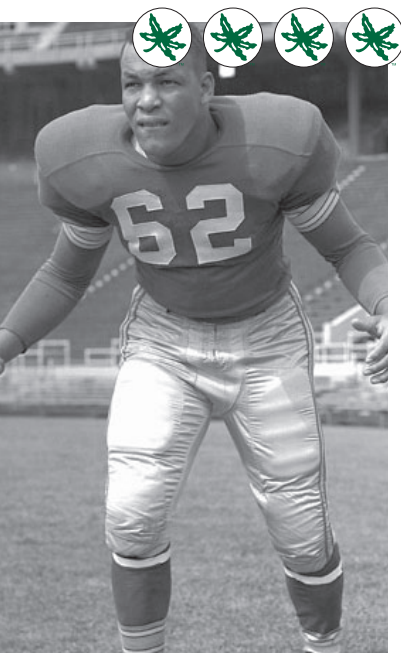

Pace made the "Pancake Block" famous his junior year, finishing the season with 80 of those blocks (knocking his defender to the ground and on his back). He also literally redefined the role of an offensive lineman with his amazing downfield blocking.

Playing one of the most challenging positions in football, Pace did not allow a sack in either of his last two years. In 1995, he made college football history by becoming the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award. As a junior, he again made history by becoming the first two-time winner of that trophy. He also won the Outland Trophy and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a junior. The latter was the highest finish by a lineman since a second-place finish by Ohio State's John Hicks in 1973.

Other honors for Pace included consensus all-Big Ten and All-America honors in both 1995 and '96. He was the Football News Offensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He also received the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten.

Pace was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1994 and the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1995 and '96. He also was a finalist for the 1996 Maxwell Award. A native of Sandusky, Ohio, Pace was selected by his teammates as Ohio State's MVP in 1996.

Taken by St. Louis as first overall pick in the 1997 NFL draft, Pace was a member of the Rams' 1999 Super Bowl championship team. He has been voted to seven Pro Bowls during his NFL career.

JIM PARKER

1956 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He also is the standard by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," said Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 national championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, Ohio, was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956.

A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame, Parker also is a member of the College Football (1974) and the Professional Football (1973) halls of fame. His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen. Parker passed away in July, 1985, at age 71.

B.J. SANDER

2003 RAY GUY AWARD WINNER

B. J. Sander had big shoes to fill in 2003. As the Buckeyes' punter, he faced the daunting task of replacing graduated All-American Andy Groom.

But Sander's shoes seemed to fit just fine. In a storybook season, he averaged 43.3 yards per punt, was voted to a first-team all-Big Ten berth and became the first Buckeye to win the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best collegiate punter.

From a pure numbers point, Sander was magical. Of his 82 kicks, a phenomenal 39 were downed inside the opposing 20-yard line. That figure led the nation. Additionally, 16 of his punts were fair-caught, meaning just 31 of his punts were even returned.

Sander led the Big Ten and was fourth nationally in net punting. Like Groom, he was a master at giving the Buckeyes good field position and allowing the Ohio State defense to dominate a game.

Two of his best efforts came late in the year. Against Purdue in Ohio State's final home game of the season, he punted 10 times, downing seven of those inside the 20 and five inside the 10. At Michigan, where Ohio State athletes establish their legacies, he averaged 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks. Sander had five kicks of 60 or more yards, including a career best of 68 yards against San Diego State.

The Cincinnati native was a third-round draft pick of the NFL's Green Bay Packers in 2004 and played there two seasons.

TOM SKLADANY

KICKER 1973-76

OSU's most recent three-time All-American, Tom Skladany was a punter and kicker between 1973-76 and the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman. He also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities. Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975 with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick and finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838. Skladany was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the first specialist ever chosen as a Buckeye captain. The six-year NFL veteran was a 1991 inductee to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

TROY SMITH

2006 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Troy Smith may not have been Ohio State's star recruit in the spring of 2002, but by the end of the 2006 football season there were few Buckeyes with a brighter aura.

A standout quarterback at Cleveland Glenville High School, the 6-0 Smith was renowned for his athletic ability and mental toughness. But his lack of size was a concern for some college recruiters.

Not so for Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel.

"The one thing I knew for sure after seeing Troy play in high school was that I wanted him on our team," Tressel said. "There was something special about the way he carried himself.

"I didn't know if he was going to play quarterback or some other position, but I knew I wanted him on our side."

A gifted runner and passer, Smith was redshirted as a freshman in 2002 and saw limited action the following year, appearing in 10 games at slash back and returning kickoffs.

The talented sophomore broke into the 2004 starting lineup in week seven and led the Buckeyes to a 4-1 record down the stretch, including a 37-21 win over Michigan in which he accounted for three touchdowns and 386 yards in total offense.

In 2005, Smith guided the Buckeyes to a 10-2 record that included a thrilling come-from-behind victory at Michigan and a decisive win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. Smith threw for 16 touchdowns and rushed for 11 more in his first full season as a starter.

CHRIS SPIELMAN

1987 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time all-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-American, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw Spielman play. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused on the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two sprained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school-record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, Ohio, native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record-tying 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Upon leaving Ohio State, Spielman became recognized as one of the NFL's top players, finishing his 12-year career in 1999 with the Cleveland Browns. A four-time Pro Bowl selection, he is a 2000 inductee into the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame and a 2009 enshrinee into the College Football Hall of Fame.

SHAWN SPRINGS

CORNERBACK 1994-96

In 1996, Shawn Springs was one of the top cornerbacks in college football and the dominant defensive player in the Big Ten - despite not recording an interception. Most teams simply chose not to test him. The 1996 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (selected by the conference head coaches) was named to the Walter Camp, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Football News All-America teams. He finished the year with 39 tackles and a team-high 15 passes broken up. In his final game as a Buckeye, he held Arizona State receiver Keith Poole to just one catch for 10 yards in the Rose Bowl. He finished that game with five tackles and four passes broken up. Springs finished his career as a two-time all-Big Ten selection. The Seattle Seahawks selected him with the third overall selection in the 1997 NFL Draft after his junior season; he has had two Pro Bowl selections during his eight-year NFL career.

JIM STILLWAGON

1970 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

1970 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-American as a junior and senior.

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points; five were held to under 10 points.

Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless: all are adjectives that were used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premier defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football (1991) and Ohio State Athletics (1979) halls of fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

JACK TATUM

DEFENSIVE BACK 1968-70

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players and most intimidating forces in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-American and the national Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, he was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year. He was a mainstay of the defense for the next three seasons as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 national championship, two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The Oakland Raiders selected him in the first round of the 1971 NFL Draft. In his nine-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three times and was a member of the 1976 Super Bowl champion Raiders. He was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1981 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

STEVE TOVAR

LINEBACKER 1989-92

Steve Tovar was another in the great line of Ohio State linebackers. A two-time All-America selection in 1991 and 1992, he had the distinction of being the first of 21 players recruited by John Cooper to earn All-America status at Ohio State. Tovar led Ohio State in tackles for three consecutive seasons (1990-92), one of only two Buckeyes ever to accomplish that feat. In his senior year, Tovar was elected team co-captain and earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (selected by the conference coaches) after recording 128 tackles. A three-time all-Big Ten selection, Tovar ranked fourth in school history with 414 total tackles and 239 solo tackles. The Elyria, Ohio, native was a third-round selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1993 NFL Draft. After playing eight years in the NFL, Tovar began a career in college coaching. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

MIKE VRABEL

DEFENSIVE END 1993-96

Mike Vrabel, a two-time All-America selection, made his mark as one of the most tenacious and feared pass rushers in Ohio State history. He owned every OSU season and career sack record. In 1996, he set a single-season school record with 13 sacks for minus 101 yards. His 36 career sacks for minus 245 yards were also Buckeye standards. Vrabel finished as OSU's all-time career leader in tackles for loss with 66. In his junior and senior years, Vrabel was named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also was a three-time first team all-Big Ten selection. Vrabel helped lead the 1996 Buckeyes to national rankings of No. 2 against the pass, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 7 in total defense. The Akron, Ohio, native embarked on a distinguished 14-year NFL career with three teams following his Ohio State playing days. He was a part of the New England Patriots' dynamic run of three Super Bowls in four years (2001, 2003, 2004). In 2007 he was named to the Pro Bowl and was named All-Pro. Drafted in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh, Vrabel spent four years with the Steelers. He was a starter for eight seasons with the Patriots, starting 110 games. He spent the last two years with Kansas City playing in and starting 30 games.

DAN WILKINSON

DEFENSIVE TACKLE 1992-93

Dan Wilkinson played just two years of football for Ohio State, but in those two seasons he established himself as one of the best defensive linemen ever to wear the Scarlet and Gray. Redshirted as a true freshman in 1991, the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, known as "Big Daddy," started as a sophomore in 1992 and won all-Big Ten honors. Blessed with an incredible combination of size, strength and speed, he finished his rookie year with 46 tackles, including 10.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. As a junior in 1993, Wilkinson was the dominant defensive lineman in college football, winding up the year with 44 tackles and 13 tackles for loss. No one could block him one-on-one. At season's end, he again won all-Big Ten laurels and was a consensus All-America pick. The Cincinnati Bengals made him the first selection in the NFL draft in April, 1994. The Dayton, Ohio, native played 13 seasons in the NFL.

BILL WILLIS

LEGENDARY ALL-AMERICAN

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense.

A willowy 6-2 and 215 pounds, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense. A member of the Buckeyes' 1942 national championship squad, Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming the first African-American All-American at Ohio State.

A Columbus native, he went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns after college; he was one of four African-Americans to reintegrate professional football. He was a member of five championship teams and was named all-pro eight times with the Browns.

A member of the Pro Football (1977), College Football (1971), Ohio High School Football and Ohio State University Athletics halls of fame, his jersey number "99" was retired Nov. 3, 2007. He passed away Nov. 27, 2007, in Columbus.

ANTOINE WINFIELD

1998 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Antoine Winfield, a team captain as a senior, was one of the all-time great cornerbacks in Ohio State history. A two-time All-American, he was a consensus choice as a senior in 1998. He was the first Buckeye to win the Thorpe Award as the nation's outstanding defensive back; the first non-linebacker (and only the fifth player total) to record at least 200 solo tackles; the first defensive back in Ohio State history to be voted team MVP (following the 1997 season); and the first cornerback in recorded history to lead the team in tackles when he did so in 1997.

A two-time all-Big Ten Conference selection, he closed his career with 278 tackles, including 224 solo stops, 22 tackles-for-loss, 29 pass breakups and three interceptions. He played in four bowl games, including the 1996 Citrus Bowl when he came in as a true freshman and recorded seven tackles. He played in 50 career games, starting 29 times.

As a senior in 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Football News Defensive Player of the Year Award. He was named first-team All-America by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, the Football Writers and the Football News and was named the Buckeyes' Bill Willis Defensive Player of the Year award winner. He totaled 75 tackles, including nine solo tackles in a win over Michigan to close the season.

As a junior, Winfield as voted by his teammates as the 1997 MVP after a season in which he totaled 100 tackles, 12 pass break-ups and two interceptions. He had 82 solo tackles, the fifth-highest solo tackle total in school history, and made the Football Writers and Football News All-America teams. He led the team in tackles five times, including a magnificent 10-tackle performance against Michigan and a career-high, 13-tackle effort against Missouri.

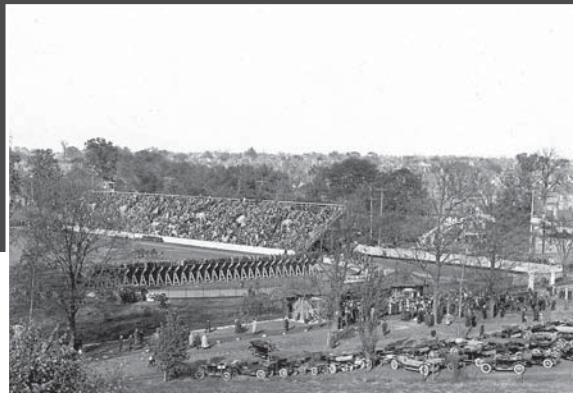

A first-round draft pick of the Buffalo Bills in 1999, the hard-hitting Winfield has been a member of the Minnesota Vikings since 2004.

THE HISTORY OF OHIO STATE FOOTBALL

To quote authors Marv Homan and Paul Hornung, who co-wrote Ohio State – 100 Years of Football: “Ohio State University has experienced an overwhelmingly eventful, colorful, often controversial, ever-intriguing and, above all, enormously successful football history.” Much of the information in this section, which peeks at various seasons of Ohio State football between 1900 and 1999, was supplied with permission from Ohio State – 100 Years of Football.

Football becomes a varsity sport and Alexander Lilley is the first head coach.

1899

1901

Football crowds and support grow at an alarming rate. Columbus newspapers begin devoting more space to football and most importantly, for the first time after 12 seasons of football, the sport turned a modest profit for the ever-struggling university athletic association.

1902

Coaching hero John Eckstorm shocks the university community, announcing his resignation as head football coach. Perry Hale, a star player at Yale, takes the reins.

1904

E.R. Sweetland became the school's first year-round football coach. Expectations were high for the 1904 team, driving the athletic association to purchase 1,500 additional bleacher seats to be installed on the east side of University Field. Unfortunately, the team and the expected crowds fell way short of all expectations. Ohio State won just six times in 11 tries. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for “deluxe” games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1906

Chillicothe native and former Michigan player Al Herrnstein takes over as head coach. Herrnstein, who coached at Purdue in 1905, was instrumental in proving a non-Eastern coach could be successful in college football.

1910

The construction of new bleachers increases the capacity of Ohio Field to 10,000. Football season tickets are sold for $2.50. Howard Jones, an All-American from Yale, is named head coach.

1911

On the recommendation of Howard Jones, the athletic board hires Harry Vaughn, also from Yale, as head football coach. Vaughn shows little interest in coaching and resigns after leading Ohio State to a 5-3-2 season.

1912

The athletic board, growing tired of the constant turnover, decides to try a new approach and make the head football coach also serve as the director of athletics. Weary of choosing Eastern coaches, the board hired John Richards, a former Wisconsin coach, to assume both roles. The strategy backfires, as Richards goes 6-3 and resigns after one season. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win. Ohio State joins the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten, but could not compete in the conference in football until 1913.

1913

Only after Carl Rothgeb of Colorado College declined to accept the position, John W. Wilce, a former three sport star at Wisconsin, was named head football coach at Ohio State. Wilce went on to a storied 16-year career at OSU, leading the school to three Big Ten championships. The Buckeyes made their football debut in the Western Conference, creating a wave of electric enthusiasm throughout Columbus. Ohio Field's capacity had been increased to 14,000 in anticipation of joining the conference. Ohio State collected its first league win Nov. 13 with a 58-0 trouncing of Northwestern.

1914

Ohio State produced its first All-American, end Boyd Cherry, and went 5-2. Interest in football at the school continued to skyrocket.

1915

Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song “Across the Field.” The song was dedicated to Coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game (Oct. 16, 1915).

1916

Ohio State went a perfect 7-0 and captured its first Western Conference title – sort of. For a reason still unknown, the conference did not officially recognize football championships in those days. Highlights of the championship season included a school record 128-0 win over Oberlin, the first win over Wisconsin (14-13), and a season-ending 23-3 victory over Northwestern that decided the conference championship. Chic Harley earned the first of what would become three All-America awards. He was OSU's first three-time All-American and one of only six in school history.

1917

A powerful Ohio State team finished 8-0-1, capturing its second-consecutive Western Conference championship. Strangely enough, two postseason games were played that year. Ohio State tied Auburn, 0-0, in a game played in Montgomery, Ala., to benefit the Ohio National Guard training in the South. Another game not originally on the schedule was played the next weekend, as Ohio State rolled over Camp Sherman, a team from Chillicothe. Chic Harley earned All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, and more importantly, became the talk of the Midwest. Fans turned out in record numbers to see Harley, one of the most versatile players in the country, pass, punt, rush, return punts, drop-kick extra points, and play stellar defense. The legendary Walter Camp, who selected the only official college All-America team in those days, made a personal visit to Columbus to watch Harley play.

1919

Ohio State outscored its opponents 176-12 and went 6-1. OSU recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3. The admittance of Ohio State to the Western Conference and the dramatic success of the football team under Coach Wilce magnified the inadequacy of Ohio Field.

1920

A landmark year for Ohio State football. Professor Thomas E. French, a member of the athletic board, and Director of Athletics Lynn Wilbur St. John decided it was time to take advantage of the soaring interest in Ohio State football. An extensive stadium campaign was launched in the fall, with hopes of building a new football facility. The campaign opened Oct. 18, 1920, with a goal of reaching $600,000, a figure considered unrealistic by many. By Nov. 26, 1920, over $923,000 had been pledged. With the campaign in full force, coach Wilce's team kept interest levels high by finishing the regular season 7-0 and capturing the school's third Western Conference title. The undefeated season drove Ohio State football into the national spotlight and caught the eye of the Tournament of Roses Association in Pasadena, Calif. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State received an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl against California Jan. 1, 1921. After heated discussions between members of the athletic board and St. John, the football team was granted permission to play in the game.

1921

The fact Ohio State went 5-2 and collected its third-consecutive win over Michigan was dwarfed by the construction occurring just a few blocks from Ohio Field in 1921. On Aug. 3, Ohio Governor Harry Davis joined a crowd of over 2,500 to officially break ground on the new stadium. The massive project was scheduled to take only 14 months and originally was to be completed at a cost of $1,341,017. After speculation the new stadium would seat about 35,000, it was officially announced it would actually seat over 60,000, a figure that drew harsh criticism from many. Upon completion, the final cost of the stadium exceeded $1,500,000. More than $1,000,000 of that cost had been pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

1922

Those that cited concerns of Ohio Stadium being too large looked on in awe as the stadium was dedicated prior to the Michigan game Oct. 21. Temporary stands were erected in the south end of the stadium, and a crowd of 72,500 was estimated. The dedication game against the Wolverines was actually the third game played in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State christened its new home with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan in front of 25,000 people. OSU won the first two games in Ohio Stadium, but finished the season with a disappointing 3-4 mark.

1928

L.W. St. John announces all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering the facility had been standing for only eight short years. Coach Wilce announces his resignation, to take effect in June, 1929, citing the desire to enter the private practice of medicine. After capturing three Western Conference championships and producing 14 All-Americans, Wilce left football and did postgraduate research at Harvard and Columbia before becoming the Director of the Ohio State University Student Health Services in 1934.

1929

Sam Willaman, an assistant on Wilce's staff and a 1913 Ohio State graduate, was named the 13th head coach in the history of Ohio State football. He led the team to a 4-3-1 finish in his first season.

1930

Wes Fesler becomes only the second three-time All-American in Ohio State history, captaining the Buckeyes and leading them to a 5-2-1 record. He also is the first recorded winner of the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Fesler, one of the school's top all-time all-around athletes, earned nine total varsity letters – three each in football, basketball and baseball.

Some things never change. Fans packed the stands at Ohio Field to catch a glimpse of the Buckeyes.

Ohio State defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 3-0, at Ohio Field in 1911.

1933

Fueled by an incredible defense, Ohio State finished 7-1, dropping only a 14-0 decision to Michigan. The Buckeyes allowed only 26 points the entire season, while scoring 161.

1934

Francis Schmidt is named the head football coach at Ohio State, ushering in not only a new era but also a new style of football. With an offensive scheme dubbed "razzle-dazzle" by the press and featuring double and triple reverses, laterals, and passes, Schmidt's inaugural team scored 267 points – the second most in OSU history at that point. Schmidt's off-the-field antics were just as colorful as his on-field plays, making him an instant hit with the community. After accepting the coaching position, he was asked how he expected to cope with the OSU nemesis from Ann Arbor. Dressed in his inevitable bow tie, his matter-of-fact answer developed into a cliché: "They put their pants on one leg at a time same as everybody else." Schmidt's comment leads to the formation of the "Gold Pants Club," which awarded miniature gold football pants to all players who had a hand in a victory over the Wolverines. The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast, where all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains, also began.

1935

Ohio State collected its second-consecutive 7-1 season under Schmidt, claiming the school's first Big Ten title in 14 years. The Buckeyes capped the year with a 38-0 season-ending win over Michigan. That season finale launched the now famous season-ending rivalry. Since then, Ohio State has ended its regular-season schedule with a battle against the Wolverines every year but one. Also in 1935, Ohio State and Notre Dame play what was hailed as the "greatest college game ever played," for many years after. The Buckeyes held a 13-0 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Notre Dame scored three times in the final stanza – twice in the last two minutes – for an 18-13 win.

1936

The Ohio State Marching Band performed "Script Ohio" for the first time at the Pittsburgh game (Oct. 10, 1936). OSU dropped its Big Ten opener to Northwestern, 14-13, but steamrolled through its remaining conference schedule with four shutouts in four games.

1941

After a dominant high school coaching career in Massillon, Ohio, Paul Brown was named Ohio State's 15th head coach. An incredibly organized, meticulous man, Brown led Ohio State to a 6-1-1 mark in his debut season. He also earned OSU's first West Coast win, a 33-0 trouncing at Southern California in only Brown's second collegiate game. The season ended with a 20-all tie at Michigan.

1942

Though World War II loomed over the nation, Ohio State football fans reveled in one of the most glorious seasons ever. The Buckeyes captured the school's first national championship as well as a Big Ten title, finishing the year 9-1 and ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. Led by a star-studded backfield that included Les Horvath, Paul Sarringhaus, and Gene Fekete, OSU rolled to 337 points, a record that stood until 1969. The only loss of the season, a 17-7 decision at Wisconsin, even had an asterisk. Several key players and coaches caught a debilitating virus from a drinking fountain on the train from Chicago to Madison.

1943

With a game apparently ending in a 26-all tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal – the first of his career – for a 29-26 OSU win. Brown, a Lieutenant Junior-Grade, left Ohio State for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in April of 1944.

1944

Carroll Widdoes, an assistant of Paul Brown's at Massillon and Ohio State, was named acting head coach. In his first season, the Buckeyes finish 9-0 and claim the Big Ten championship, but finish No. 2 in the Associated Press behind Army. OSU fans claim an unofficial "civilian national championship." Les Horvath became the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. Ohio State received an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but faculty representatives from around the Big Ten disallow the trip.

1946

In one of the program's more unique coaching moves, offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and head coach Carroll Widdoes switched roles prior to the season. Warren Amling earns All-America honors at tackle, just a year after being named an All-America guard. Following the season, Bixler turns in his resignation.

1947

In the same meeting Bixler announces his intentions to resign, L. W. St. John proposes to the athletic board that Wes Fesler be the next head coach at Ohio State. The board concurs, and Fesler, a three-time All-American at Ohio State in the 1930s, becomes the program's fifth head coach in eight years. In one of the stranger games during the 1900s, Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired because of Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949

Ohio State captures a share of the Big Ten championship and collects its first Rose Bowl win, beating California, 17-14.

1950

Vic Janowicz puts on arguably the greatest individual display in college football history against Iowa. He sent two kick-offs out of the endzone for touchbacks, recovered two fumbles on defense, scored on an 11-yard touchdown run, returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown, threw a 12-yard scoring strike, and kicked three extra points – all in the first five minutes of the game. The famous "Snow Bowl" game with Michigan was played in late November. Somehow, between the swirling winds and zero visibility, Janowicz boots a 27-yard field goal in what would later be called one of the "Greatest Feats in American Sports" by a panel of sportswriters. To no one's surprise, Janowicz wins the Heisman Trophy. On Dec. 9, Fesler submits a lengthy resignation statement.

1951

After a highly-scrutinized selection process, Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes begins his 28-year tenure as head coach. A tireless worker, meticulous planner, and a Lieutenant Commander in the Navy, Hayes led his initial Buckeye team, which struggled to adjust to his T-formation style, to a 4-3-2 finish. Many thought Hayes' days at Ohio State were numbered. They were wrong.

1954

Ohio State claims its second national championship with a perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal, 20-7, in a rainy, mud-soaked Rose Bowl game. The rift between West Coast writers and Hayes is born when the OSU coach criticizes the Tournament of Roses Association for not covering the field before the game and allowing the bands to perform at halftime.

1955

Ohio State uses a 17-0 blanking of Michigan to claim its second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy becomes Ohio State's third Heisman Trophy winner. During the season, Hayes voices his displeasure over the fact several other football conferences had started awarding scholarships to student-athletes, but the Big Ten had failed to follow suit. After a series of meetings and heated debates, the conference adopts a complicated grant-in-aid program based on financial need, marking the first form of athletics scholarship available at Ohio State.

1956

Ohio State sets a Big Ten record with 17-consecutive victories, breaking Michigan's previous mark of 15. Offensive guard Jim Parker became the first OSU player to win the Outland Trophy.

1957

After dropping the season opener, the Buckeyes win nine-consecutive games to capture the school's third national championship – the second under Hayes. OSU knocked off Oregon 10-7 in the Rose Bowl for its third-consecutive win in Pasadena.

1961

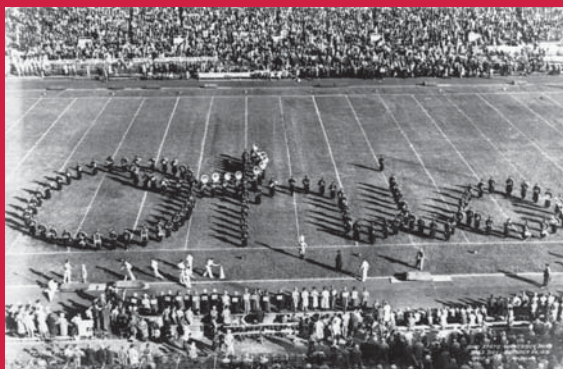

Ohio State finishes 8-0-1, defeats Michigan, 50-20, wins the Big Ten and is named national champions by the Football Writers. A bitter dispute among the school's faculty council erupted when a Rose Bowl invitation arrived. By a narrow margin, the council voted not to accept the invitation and skip the bowl game. A livid Hayes claimed for years the decision hampered his recruiting efforts.

In 1890, Alexander S. Lilley was named Ohio State's first head football coach.

Lynn Wilbur St. John

The first Script Ohio was performed Oct. 10, 1936 during the Pittsburgh game.

One of the most memorable games in college football history was the Ohio State-Michigan Snow Bowl of 1950.

Archie Griffin became the first two-time Heisman Trophy winner in 1975.

1963

Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10, marking the fourth-consecutive Buckeye win over the Wolverines. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

1966

Billy Ray Anders, a true walk-on that did not play high school football, set an OSU record with 55 receptions. The record would stand until Cris Carter's arrival in 1985.

1968

Arguably the finest Ohio State team in history uses a dominating 50-14 win over Michigan and a 27-16 come-from-behind victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl to earn the school's fifth national championship. Before the final polls crowning the Buckeyes champions are released, Coach Hayes departs for Vietnam for a volunteer trip to talk football with U.S. servicemen. Later, the Sporting News called this team one of the 10 greatest college football teams of all-time.

1969

A squad Coach Hayes called "the best team we ever put together, probably the best team that ever played college football," rolled easily to a 9-0 record, but a season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU's 22-game unbeaten streak and bid for a second-consecutive national title.

1970

Jim Stillwagon wins both the Outland and the first Lombardi Award. Ohio State rolls to nine-consecutive wins – including a 20-9 triumph over Michigan that has been called one of the most emotional games in Ohio Stadium history – before falling to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State still was awarded a national championship by the National Football Foundation. A senior class featuring six All-Americans and nine all-Big Ten selections leaves OSU with a three-year mark of 27-2.

1972

Freshmen are cleared to play for the first time, signaling the start of the Archie Griffin era. Against the better judgment of Coach Hayes but after strong urging from backfield coach Rudy Hubbard, Griffin comes off the bench against North Carolina and rushes for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards in only his second collegiate appearance. OSU uses two goal-line stands – one in each half – to beat Michigan, 14-11, and claim a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

1973

Ohio State goes unbeaten, finishing 10-0-1 including a 42-21 trouncing of USC in the Rose Bowl. OSU becomes the first school to own three of the Top 5 vote-getters in the Heisman Trophy balloting. With five Big Ten titles, two national championships, and four Rose Bowl trips all in a six-year span, Ohio State football popularity hits an all-time high. Columbus becomes known as the "Capital of College Football."

1974

On June 5, Coach Hayes suffers a heart attack, but pledges to return by OSU's opener Sept. 14. The fiery coach, who by this point had become larger-than-life in Columbus, did return and led OSU to its third-consecutive Big Ten championship and yet another Rose Bowl. Archie Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975

Hayes gives West Coast reporters a now famous quote about Archie Griffin: "He's a better young man than he is a football player, and he's the best football player I've ever seen." Griffin becomes the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, leading the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl. He also becomes the NCAA's all-time leading rusher in a midseason game against Purdue.

1976

Just one year after the Big Ten changes the rule to allow more than just the conference champion to attend a bowl game, the Buckeyes notch a share of the Big Ten championship and beat Colorado, 27-10, in the Orange Bowl.

1979

Former Ohio State player and assistant coach Earle Bruce is named head coach. The Buckeyes finish the regular season 11-0 and come within a point of a national championship, falling 17-16 to Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Bruce is named the Big Ten and national coach of the year in his first season.

1980

Ohio State and Illinois combined for 1,057 yards and 91 points in a 49-42 OSU win.

1981

The Buckeyes capture their second Big Ten championship in three years under Bruce and top Navy in the Liberty Bowl. Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards – all OSU records – against the Florida State Seminoles.

1984

After a five-year absence, Ohio State returns to the Rose Bowl with an undisputed Big Ten championship. Chris Spielman makes his debut a memorable one in the season opener against Oregon State, making 10 tackles in the second half after coming off the bench. Keith Byars rushes for a then school-record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 45-38 win over Illinois. Byars' memorable day also included a 67-yard touchdown run where he lost one shoe 35 yards from the goal line.

1985

The first night game in Ohio Stadium history – thanks to portable light standards – ends in a 10-7 Ohio State win over Pittsburgh. Flanker Mike Lanese becomes the first OSU football player to win a Rhodes Scholarship. A preseason foot injury to Heisman Trophy favorite Keith Byars dampens Ohio State's hopes for a championship season.

1987

Linebacker Chris Spielman wins the Lombardi Award and the season ends with a thrilling 23-20 win at Michigan. College football fans everywhere mourn the death of Woody Hayes. President Richard Nixon, joined by a crowd of over 10,000, speaks at Hayes' memorial service.

1988

John Cooper, then head coach at Arizona State, was named the school's 21st head football coach after an intense search conducted by new Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

1989

Ohio State celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota, equaling the largest comeback in NCAA history. OSU competes in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1990

Natural grass returns to Ohio Stadium. Robert Smith gains 1,126 yards to break Archie Griffin's OSU freshman rushing record.

1991

Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home total (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fall.

1993

OSU records its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994

The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

1995

Ohio State dominated college football's individual awards. Eddie George becomes OSU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. Orlando Pace becomes the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award, and Terry Glenn wins the Biletnikoff Award. The Buckeyes tie a school record with 11 wins and play in the Citrus Bowl. OSU sets a school record that still stands with 475 points scored. A then Ohio Stadium record crowd of 95,537 is on hand for Ohio State's 45-26 win over Notre Dame.

1996

The Buckeyes win their 27th Big Ten title and defeat Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, winding up No. 2 in both national polls. Orlando Pace repeats as the Lombardi Award winner and wins the Outland Trophy. It marks the fourth-consecutive season Ohio State has finished among the nation's Top 10 in one of the major polls.

1998

Ohio State notched its fourth-consecutive 10-win season. The Buckeyes spend 10 weeks as the No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll and cap the season with a 24-14 win over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl. Joe Germaine wins the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Buckeyes go a perfect 5-0 against teams ranked in the Top 25. Antoine Winfield wins the Thorpe Award.

1999

Athletics Director Andy Geiger announces the retirement of Archie Griffin's No. 45 at the Sept. 30 Iowa game. It is the first number retired in any sport in Ohio State history.

2000

The jersey numbers of former Heisman Trophy winners Vic Janowicz (31) and Howard "Hopalong" Cassady (40) are retired at home games against Penn State and Michigan, respectively. The Buckeyes fall to South Carolina in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, the first meeting between the two teams. Following the season, former OSU assistant Jim Tressel is named to replace John Cooper as head coach of the Buckeyes.

2001

Jim Tressel becomes the Buckeyes' 22nd head football coach. The jerseys of Les Horvath (22) and Eddie George (27), Ohio State's first and most recent Heisman Trophy winners, respectively, are retired. The Buckeyes defeat Michigan in Ann Arbor, their first win there since 1987. The three-year, $194 million stadium renovation is completed.

2002

Ohio State captures the school's seventh national championship and the Big Ten's first unanimous crown since 1968 by compiling a 14-0 record and defeating Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 3. The 14 victories set an NCAA Division I-A record. The Buckeyes begin the season ranked 13th in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, but gradually work their way up to the No. 2 spot prior to their showdown with the previously unbeaten and top-ranked Hurricanes. Their 31-24 double-overtime victory over Miami is typical of a heart-pounding season in which they win five games by six points or less. Quarterback Craig Krenzel and two-way star Chris Gamble, who starts at both flanker and cornerback for the Buckeyes, share team MVP honors. Additionally, Krenzel is selected as the offensive MVP of the bowl game, while teammate Mike Doss is the defensive honoree.

The Buckeyes began the season by winning their first five games and extending their winning streak to 19 games – the second longest in school history. A 17-10 setback at Wisconsin ended that streak. The Buckeyes also played the first ever overtime game in Ohio Stadium, a 44-38 triple overtime victory over visiting North Carolina State. It was the longest game in OSU history, lasting 4 hours and 17 minutes from kickoff to final gun. OSU won its second consecutive BCS game with a 35-28 win over Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl.

Minus 14 players who had been taken in the NFL draft the previous April and 28 seniors overall, the youthful Buckeyes won their first three games, lost the next three and then won five of the last six, including wins over Michigan in the regular-season finale and Oklahoma State in the Alamo Bowl to finish at 8-4. The senior class had the satisfaction of being just the second class in Ohio State history to post winning records against Michigan (3-1) and in bowl play (3-1). Mike Nugent became the school's first Lou Groza Award winner as the top kicker in college football and took over as the Buckeyes' all-time leading scorer. Nugent and junior A.J. Hawk both won first team All-American honors. Chic Harley, Ohio State's first three-time All-American, had his jersey retired.

2005

The Buckeyes captured a share of their 30th Big Ten title and closed the season with seven consecutive wins en route to a 10-2 record. Coach Jim Tressel's squad posted rare back-to-back wins over Michigan and Notre Dame, the latter in the Fiesta Bowl for the Buckeyes' fourth consecutive bowl victory and third BCS triumph in four years. Linebacker A. J. Hawk was a consensus All-American and won the Lombardi Award. Center Nick Mangold and safety Donte Whitner were also accorded first-team All-America honors. Quarterback Troy Smith was the MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where he accounted for 408 yards in total offense.

2006

The 2006 Buckeyes opened the season at No. 1 in the polls and remained there throughout the regular season. Jim Tressel's team compiled a perfect 12-0 regular season record and won the school's first outright Big Ten title since 1984. The Buckeyes defeated No. 2 Texas in Austin and No. 2 Michigan in Columbus, the latter a 42-39 shootout that will go down as one of the most thrilling games every played in the storied rivalry between the two Big Ten giants. After a loss to Florida in the National Championship game in Arizona, the Buckeyes wound up No. 2 in the final polls. Individually, the story of the season was senior quarterback Troy Smith, who threw for a school record 30 touchdowns, won unanimous All-America honors and became Ohio State's seventh Heisman Trophy winner. On the defensive side of the ball, tackle Quinn Pitcock and linebacker James Laurinaitis both won All-America acclaim. Laurinaitis won the Nagurski Award as the best defensive player in the country and was one of three finalists for the Butkus Award. Pitcock was a finalist for both the Lombardi and the Lott awards. Anthony Gonzalez and Stan White Jr. both won first-team Academic All-American laurels.

Picked third in the preseason Big Ten race, the young and offensively inexperienced Buckeyes went on to win another Big Ten outright title and finished the regular season with an 11-1 mark, the only loss coming to Illinois. Ohio State, which moved to No. 1 in the polls by mid-October, finished with a 14-3 win at Michigan; after a number of upsets across the nation during the next two weeks, the Buckeyes were No. 1 in the BCS standings entering the bowl season. Ohio State went to play LSU in New Orleans, dropping a 38-24 decision to finish ranked fourth. Junior James Laurinaitis, the Butkus Award winner, was a finalist for five national awards; he and offensive tackle Kirk Barton earned first team All-America honors. Brian Robiskie was a first team Academic All-American, and six Buckeyes were first team all-conference.

Laurinaitis was Big Ten defensive player of the year, junior Vernon Gholston was Big Ten defensive lineman of the year and tailback Chris "Beanie" Wells, who rushed for 1,609 yards, was voted team MVP. Coach Jim Tressel won his 200th career game with the victory at Washington. Bill Willis, the pioneering 1940s All-American, had his No. 99 jersey retired.

2008

In 2008, Ohio State posted a fifth straight win over Michigan (42-7) for the first time in the storied rivalry. The Buckeyes also won a share of their fourth straight Big Ten title and played in their fourth consecutive BCS bowl, losing 24-21 to heavily favored Texas in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. James Laurinaitis won the Lott Trophy and the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, while Malcolm Jenkins was the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award; both were consensus All-Americans, Laurinaitis for the third time. Chris "Beanie" Wells, who rushed for 1,197 yards, was voted team MVP for a second year.

2009

Capturing their fifth straight Big Ten title, the 11-2 Buckeyes advanced to Pasadena for the first time in 12 years, defeating favored Oregon 26-17 behind the play of Rose Bowl MVP Terrelle Pryor. Winning the conference crown outright, Ohio State closed the regular season with wins over nationally ranked Penn State, league-leading Iowa (in overtime) and at Michigan (21-10), the sixth consecutive victory over the Wolverines, an OSU record. All-America safety Kurt Coleman was voted team MVP.

The 2010 football season was vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions. Ohio State, therefore, is not credited as being the first team in Big Ten history to win at least 10 games in six consecutive seasons; with winning 12 of 13 games this season including the Sugar Bowl; with winning a sixth consecutive Big Ten championship; or with winning for the seventh consecutive season over rival Michigan.

California finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time a Big Ten team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the first game in 1902.

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-all tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns were called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense.

Cassidy ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

PASADENA, Calif. — Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from 1 yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-all before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio State 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

PASADENA, Calif. — The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern California. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ohio State answered with a 1-yard run by Jim Otis and a 26-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final 4 yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern, the game's MVP, hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

PASADENA, Calif. — Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over favored and previously unbeaten OSU in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and two touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final quarter. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

PASADENA, Calif. — Led by tailback Anthony Davis, USC broke a 7-all tie at halftime with three third quarter scores. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third quarter, Cunningham twice and Davis once from 20 yards.

The third quarter overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half.

OSU appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third and a 5-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with 44 seconds to play.

PASADENA, Calif. — Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the quarter for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining by dashing 47 yards over right tackle.

PASADENA, Calif. — Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final 3 yards himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

PASADENA, Calif. — All-America quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big Ten MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Trophy Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, OSU held UCLA to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run and close out the scoring.

MIAMI, Fla. — After Colorado jumped to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald came off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes went on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from 3 yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter, and was later named the back of the game.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — In the first meeting between coaching leg-ends Woody Hayes and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a 3-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The Clemson Tigers won their 10th consecutive game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of 4 yards, in the drive.

Freshman Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from 4 yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point was blocked, but OSU had a 9-7 lead.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and OSU's hopes were dashed.

TEMPE, Ariz. — A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four-consecutive bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third quarter.

Ohio State finally opened a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh-consecutive game and their second-consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

TEMPE, Ariz. — Ohio State and Pitt combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

PASADENA, Calif. — Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. OSU's Rich Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yard field goal, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the day.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with an interception, four in all.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

DALLAS, Texas — Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which OSU led 7-6.

TAMPA, Fla. — Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over OSU.

Ohio State took an early 14-3 but the momentum changed just before the half when Slack hit Greg Taylor with an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play.

Auburn scored on its first possession after the half as Slack and Taylor teamed up again from 4 yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous MVP choice, ran 5 yards for the first and also flipped a 2-yard toss to Herbert Casey.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half because of a pulled groin muscle.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The Buckeyes jumped to a 5-0 lead on a safety and field goal, but the Falcons scored touchdowns in the second and third quarters to build a 13-5 lead. After OSU cut the margin to 13-11 early in the fourth quarter on Robert Smith's brilliant 29-yard run, Air Force sealed the win with a field goal and TD on an interception return. The Buckeyes gained just 214 total yards, including 80 on the ground. The Air Force wishbone attack gained 254 rushing yards.

Jan. 1, 1992, Tampa Stadium (57,789)

TAMPA, Fla. — The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Marvin Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the first Syracuse possession and later running 3 yards to paydirt as the quarter expired.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The score came with 8:03 to play.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb to bury Ohio State.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays, scoring the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs and the teams were tied at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third TD of the evening.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU territory three times in the fourth quarter with each drive ending on incompletions.

While BYU did most of its damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the defensive MVP.

ORLANDO, Fla. – The first meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

Playing in a driving rainstorm, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by Central McClellion. Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the break. The Vols took a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 14 on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth. But Tennessee marched 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall. Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play that ended the scoring.

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes snapped a four-game losing streak in the granddaddy of all bowl games with a dramatic, come-from-behind win over Arizona State.

The win propelled the fourth-ranked Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and the No. 2 spot in both major polls.

Reserve quarterback Joe Germaine came off the bench to lead the Buckeyes to the victory and was named as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

OSU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 9-yard pass from Stanley Jackson to David Boston. ASU scored early in the second period on a 25-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ricky Boyer and the two teams were deadlocked at halftime.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 10-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 37-yard field goal by Robert Nycz. The Buckeyes recaptured the lead moments later when Germaine and senior flanker Dimitrious Stanley hooked up on a 72-yard score, the longest TD pass in OSU bowl annals.

Plummer, on a third-and-11, somehow snaked his way into the end zone to give ASU a 17-14 lead with 1:40 to play. Earlier, Plummer had kept the drive alive with a 29-yard completion on fourth down.

Germaine's responded by calmly marching the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays, hitting Boston from 5 yards out with the game winner.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Ohio State capped off an 11-1 season with a convincing win over Texas A&M.

The Buckeyes took control early, jumping to a 21-7 first-quarter lead. The Aggies scored on their first possession, driving 59 yards with Dante Hall going in from 9 yards out.

Joe Germaine then engineered an eight-play, 71-yard scoring drive. Following a defensive stop, the Buckeyes marched down the field again, using six plays to go 71 yards with Joe Montgomery's 10-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Another defensive stop followed by a huge special teams play gave OSU a 21-7 advantage with just 1:59 to go in the first quarter. After Derek Ross streaked in to literally "take" the football off A&M punter Shane Leckler's foot, Kevin Griffin picked up the loose ball and went untouched into the end zone.

TAMPA, Fla. — In the first meeting between South Carolina and Ohio State, the Gamecocks upset the favored Buckeyes 24-7. The win gave South Carolina Coach Lou Holtz his first victory over the Buckeyes in five tries (0-2 at Minnesota and 0-2 at Notre Dame).

Ryan Brewer, a native of Troy, Ohio, accounted for 214 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.

Both offenses struggled early and South Carolina led 3-0 at the half. The Buckeyes had a chance to tie it as time expired, but Dan Stultz' 47-yard field goal attempt was wide to the right.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Brewer scored from 7 yards out for the Gamecocks and offensive guard Mike Gurr recovered a Jonathan Wells fumble in the end zone for the Buckeyes.

But it was all South Carolina in the fourth quarter as Brewer (the game's MVP) scored first on a nifty 28-yard screen pass and later on a 2-yard run.

Jan. 1, 2002, Raymond James Stadium (66,249)

TAMPA, Fla. — With the score tied and virtually no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver kicked a 42-yard field goal as the clock expired to propel No. 14 South Carolina to 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State. The kick, which barely made it over the crossbar, spoiled a valiant comeback effort by the Buckeyes who had rallied from a 28-0 third quarter deficit.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari engineered the OSU comeback, completing 21 of 35 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns.

Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. Bellisari ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half. Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go. Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch. Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Ohio State worked two overtimes to rip the national championship from the Miami Hurricanes in one of the greatest college football games ever. Maurice Clarett ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown, and Ohio State's defense turned back one final Miami bid to tie the game. With that, the Buckeyes completed an unbeaten run to their first national title in 34 years with a 31-24 win.

Trailing 24-17 in the first OT, Ohio State converted a 4th-and-14 on a pass by Craig Krenzel. But the Buckeyes then faced a 4th-and-3 at the 5 when Krenzel threw to the right corner of the end zone for Chris Gamble. A flag was thrown from the back of the end zone indicating pass interference and three plays later Krenzel scored from the 1 to send the game to a second OT. In the second OT, the Buckeyes went first and Clarett capped the five-play drive.

The Buckeyes took a 14-7 halftime lead, turning two turnovers into touchdowns in a 78-second span, and extended the margin to 10 points on Mike Nugent's 44-yard field goal. The Hurricanes closed to 17-14 on Willis McGahee's 9-yard scoring run in the third quarter to set the stage for Todd Sievers' 40-yard kick at the end of regulation.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Craig Krenzel improved to an amazing 24-3 as a starter at Ohio State as the Buckeyes claimed a 35-28 victory over Kansas State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Krenzel overcame two first quarter interceptions to complete 11-of-24 passes for 189 yards and four touchdowns, finding both Michael Jenkins and Santonio Holmes for two scoring strikes each.

The Buckeyes stormed out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring first on special teams before Krenzel hit Holmes and Jenkins to pad the lead, which slipped to 21-7 at the half. After intermission, the Wildcats pulled within seven, but Krenzel and Jenkins teamed up to again to reclaim a two-touchdown lead. Holmes caught his second TD pass from Krenzel and dragged two feet in the back of the end zone to make the score 35-14. Kansas State added two more scores.

Jenkins finished with five receptions for 96 yards, and ended his career with 2,898 career receiving yards. Kansas State out-gained Ohio State 378-337 in total yards, but the Buckeye defense held the Wildcats to 84 yards rushing. Ohio State ran for 148 yards to go with 189 passing yards. Defensively, Robert Reynolds and A.J. Hawk, the Fiesta Bowl Defensive MVP, each had 10 tackles to pace the Buckeyes.

Dec. 29, 2004, Alamodome (65,265)

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - Justin Zwick threw for one touchdown, Lydell Ross and Ted Ginn Jr. each ran for another and Mike Nugent kicked four field goals to lead No. 22/24 Ohio State to a 33-7 MasterCard Alamo Bowl victory over Oklahoma State in front of 65,265 fans at the Alamodome.

The Buckeyes finished 8-4 on the year as they won their 40th game under head coach Jim Tressel, who became the fifth coach in school history to reach the mark. He was the second fastest to reach 40 wins, taking 51 games. Tressel's mentor Earle Bruce reached the plateau in 50 games. Tressel is now 40-11 after four seasons in Columbus and boasts a 19-year career record of 175-68-2. He also has guided the Buckeyes to a 3-1 bowl record.

Zwick, completed 17-of-27 passes for 189 yards and one touchdown without an interception. The Buckeyes added 214 rushing yards to finish with 403 yards of total offense. It was the fifth time this season for Ohio State to surpass 400 yards in total offense.

Ross carried the ball 12 times for 99 yards and a score, while Branden Joe carried 13 times for 57 yards. Ginn added 40 yards on eight carries and scored.

Ginn, normally a flanker for the Buckeyes, made his first appearance at quarterback. His 5-yard run up the middle that gave Ohio State a 30-0 lead with 8:13 to play in the third quarter. The OSU freshman was named the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the game.

Ohio State did not put any more points on the board until Nugent delivered his fourth field goal of the night to lift the Buckeyes to a 33-0 cushion with 10:44 to play in the game. Nugent, the 2004 Lou Groza Award winner, connected from 37, 35, 41 and 36 yards to set the school's bowl record with four field goals, his 20th school record.

Ohio State limited Oklahoma State to 286 total yards. The Cowboys had entered the game averaging 245.0 rushing yards per game, but the Buckeyes held them to 149 yards rushing on 30 carries. Oklahoma State added 137 yards passing. Donte Whitner led the Buckeyes with eight tackles, including seven solo stops. Anthony Schlegel, A.J. Hawk and Quinn Pitcock added five tackles each. Simon Fraser was named the Most Valuable Defensive Player of the Alamo Bowl.

SCORING	1	2	3	4	-	F

Jan. 2, 2006, Sun Devil Stadium (76,196)

Tempe, Ariz. – Led by Troy Smith and Ted Ginn Jr. on offense and All-America A.J. Hawk on defense, Ohio State ran roughshod over Notre Dame in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, downing the Irish 34-20 in a game that wasn't as close as the final score indicated.

The Buckeyes were making their third appearance in four years in the Fiesta Bowl, and Sun Devil Stadium seemed to fit them like an old pair of well broken in sneakers.

After Notre Dame opened the game with a crisp six-play, 72-yard drive that culminated with a 20-yard run by Darius Walker, it was pretty much all Ohio State the rest of the way.

Smith and Ginn saw to that. First they hooked up on a beautifully thrown 56-yard scoring pass on which Ginn was five yards beyond his defender when the ball settled into his outstretched hands. Then Ginn gave the Buckeyes the lead for good on a dazzling 68-yard reverse in which he cut this way and that and left frustrated Notre Dame defenders strewn helplessly in his wake. Smith dialed pay dirt again just before halftime, connecting with Santonio Holmes on an 85-yard pass that gave the Buckeyes a 21-7 lead at intermission. Had it not been for two fumbles, one in the ND red zone, and a blocked field goal, the margin might have been greater.

The Buckeyes had 391 yards in total offense at halftime. Notre Dame had 154. Ohio State was a perfect five-for-five on third-down conversions.

Smith had thrown for 248 yards by intermission and both Ginn and Holmes were over the 100-yard mark in receiving yards.

Walker scored on a 10-yard run in the third quarter to cut the deficit to eight at 21-13, but a 40-yard field goal by Josh Huston made it 24-13 at the end of three quarters.

Huston converted again, this time from 26-yards out at the start of the fourth quarter, to give OSU a 27-13 lead.

Notre Dame's final score came on a three-yard run by Walker with 5:27 to play, cutting the Ohio State lead to 27-20. Their scoring drive covered 80 yards in 13 plays.

But the Buckeyes quickly responded with an 85-yard drive of their own that included two clutch third-down completions by Smith and a 60-yard TD gallop by Antonio Pittman that eliminated any and all doubts.

Smith was the MVP of the game, rolling up 408 yards in total offense and accounting for three touchdowns. The Buckeyes finished the evening with a season-high 617 yards in total offense – 342 passing and 293 on the ground. The Buckeyes had three drives of 80 or more yards and a fourth of 68.

All-America linebacker A.J. Hawk was the defensive MVP. He had a game-high 12 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and a forced fumble.

Jan. 8, 2007, Univ. of Phoenix Stadium (74,628)

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Ohio State's

Ted Ginn Jr. returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown, but it was all Florida from there as the No. 2 Gators upset the No. 1 Buckeyes, 41-14, in the BCS National Championship Game Jan. 8 in Glendale, Ariz.

Big Ten champion Ohio State (12-1) had defeated the nation's second-ranked team twice earlier in the season – at Texas and vs. Michigan – but saw its four-game bowl winning streak and the nation's best 19-game winning streak overall come to an end. The 2006 Buckeyes are the only team to face a No. 2-ranked opponent three times in the same season.

Ginn was injured in the celebration of his opening kickoff return for a touchdown and the Buckeyes could not recover offensively. Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Troy Smith completed 4-of-14 passes for 35 yards and an interception and was sacked five times by the Gators (13-1).

Junior tailback Antonio Pittman rushed for 62 yards on 10 carries and his 18-yard touchdown run with 13:32 left in the second quarter brought the score to 21-14 in favor of the Gators, but it would be all the closer the Buckeyes would get.

Florida, champion of the Southeastern Conference, scored touchdowns on its first three possessions, then kicked a pair of field goals before scoring another touchdown with 23 seconds left before halftime. The Gators led 34-14 at intermission, capitalizing on the Buckeyes turning it over on downs on their own 29 yard line and a Smith fumble on his own 20 on back-to-back possessions.

OSU linebackers James Laurinaitis and Marcus Freeman both collected 15 tackles in the game.

Jan. 7, 2008, Louisiana Superdome (79,651)

New Orleans (AP) – Making its second straight appearance in the BCS championship game, and its third in six years, No. 1 Ohio State was unable to contain No. 2 LSU in a 38-24 loss at the Superdome.

Ohio State was trying to win its second BCS title in six years, and add to the one that Coach Jim Tressel captured by upsetting Miami 31-24 in double overtime for the 2002 championship.

LSU rallied from an early 10-0 deficit, taking a 24-10 halftime lead that held up.

"We just didn't do the things you need to do to win a ballgame of this nature. We're very aware that LSU's a deserving champion," Tressel said.

Ohio State (11-2) had little to celebrate after Chris "Beanie" Wells, who finished the game with 146 rushing yards, broke loose for a 65-yard TD run on the fourth play of the game.

Known as a punishing runner, Wells got the game off to a quick start; the Buckeyes' bruising back started left, made a nifty cut right and burst through the middle. On the longest run of his career, Beanie outran All-America safety Craig Steltz for a 65-yard TD.

This time, Ohio State made it 10-0 on its next possession. Todd Boeckman hit a wide-open Brandon Saine, setting up Ryan Pretorius' 25-yard field goal.

Only five minutes into the game, Ohio State and its all-brass band was blowing away the Tigers. LSU looked dazed and defensive coordinator Bo Pelini had few answers, but LSU's offense started clicking behind running back Jacob Hester.

First, he barreled into All-America linebacker James Laurinaitis for a short gain. Both players are the rugged type and in a nice show of sportsmanship, Laurinaitis -- whose dad, Joe, once starred as "Animal" in the "Legion of Doom" wrestling tag team -- helped up Hester.

Hester broke off a 20-yard run on the next play, and LSU eventually got a 32-yard field goal from Colt David that made it 10-3.

That score late in the first quarter seemed to jazz everyone in purple and gold. Two big penalties against Ohio State helped set up Matt Flynn's 13-yard touchdown pass to Richard Dickson, who somehow found himself uncovered. Flynn punctuated the strike by hollering, giving a wild fist pump and putting up both hands to signal TD.

Tied at 10, the Buckeyes counted on Wells. He delivered one of the season's best stiff-arms on a 29-yard romp, and Ohio State seemed poised to retake the lead.

Instead, Ricky Jean-Francois crashed through the middle, swung his big right arm and blocked Pretorius' 38-yard field goal try.

LSU turned to another of its five dangerous tailbacks, and NCAA sprint star Trindon Holliday zigzagged closer to the goal line. Flynn's perfect pass to Brandon LaFell in the back left corner of the end zone put the Tigers ahead 17-10.

Then, LSU's defense made the big play. Cornerback Chevis Jackson intercepted Boeckman's lost toss and streaked 34 yards down the right sideline.

The Tigers moved to a first-and-goal at 1. On third down, Hester plunged up the middle and it was 24-10 at the half.

The Tigers got two big plays on special teams -- Ricky Jean-Francois blocked a field goal, and LSU took advantage of a roughing-the-kicker penalty when Austin Spitler missed on a punt-block attempt.

Flynn hit Early Doucet with a four-yard toss with 9:04 left for a 31-10 lead and the celebration was on in earnest. The Buckeyes made the score more respectable on Boeckman's 5-yard TD pass on fourth down to Brian Robiskie, only to have Flynn come back and throw his second TD pass to Dickson.

As the clock ticked down, Boeckman threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Brian Hartline.

"I worry about disappointment because of how hard the kids work. I don't worry about criticism," Tressel said. "If you struggle taking criticism, you better not be at Ohio State and better not be playing football."

LSU (12-2), whose two losses both came in triple overtime, became just the fourth favorite to win in 10 BCS championship games.

GLENDAL, ARIZ. -- Ohio State scored 15 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, including a Todd Boeckman-to-Terrelle Pryor touchdown pass, but it wasn't enough to shake off the pesky Texas Longhorns.

Quarterback Colt McCoy hit Quan Cosby with a 26-yard scoring pass for the winning score with 16 seconds left. The Longhorns, ranked third in the BCS ratings and both major polls, used a second-half comeback to outlast the Buckeyes. McCoy ran for one touchdown and threw for another in the third quarter.

Texas trailed 6-3 at the half after being held to minus-9 yards rushing and giving up 140 to the Buckeyes, 96 to junior running back Chris "Beanie" Wells, who missed most of the fourth quarter after he was concussed.

The Buckeyes opened up the scoring with a 51 yard field goal by Aaron Pettrey in the first quarter. Texas evened things up with a 27 yard field goal by Lawrence Hunte. Ryan Pretorius added a 30-yarder to put OSU up 6-3. Pettrey also missed a 51-yarder in the first period.

McCoy was sacked on a 4th-and-7 situation to squelch one drive in the first half and was intercepted at the goal-line by Anderson Russell in the final five seconds after the Longhorns had driven to OSU's 15-yard line.

McCoy completed 20 of 27 passes over the first two quarters and drove Texas 80 yards for the go-ahead touchdown on the opening drive of the third quarter, covering the final 14 on a quarterback draw. The Longhorns converted two fourth down plays in the drive, including Rashad Bobino's run on a fake punt on a 4th-and-2.

He found Cosby with a 7-yard touchdown pass before the quarter ended for a 17-6 lead. Ohio State scored the next 15 points and took a 21-17 lead on Dan Herron's 15-yard run with 2:05 remaining.

The Longhorns then covered 78 yards in 11 plays. Cosby broke free at the 15-yard line over the middle and had nothing between him and the end zone.

Quarterback Todd Boeckman, a senior who lost his starting spot to Pryor after two games, gave the Buckeyes a lift when they needed it. He completed 5 of 11 passes for 110 yards and a touchdown to Pryor, who lined up at wide receiver. Brian Robiskie led Buckeye receivers with five catches for 116 yards.

Pryor threw for 66 yards and ran for 78.

McCoy finished by hitting 41 of 59 passes for 414 yards and was named the offensive MVP. Cosby had 14 receptions for 171 yards.

Ohio State, which was playing the Fiesta for the fourth time since 2003, is 4-2 in the bowl and 18-22 overall, 4-4 under Tressel. Texas now leads the all-time series 2-1, with every game being played since 2005.

Jan. 1, 2010, Rose Bowl Stadium (93,963)

PASADENA, Calif. — A Rose Bowl record-setting performance by the Ohio State offense, led by the passing and running skills of quarterback Terrelle Pryor, propelled No. 8 Ohio State to a 26-17 victory over No. 7 Oregon in the 96th edition of the "Granddaddy of them all" Jan. 1 at the Rose Bowl Stadium.

Pryor, who had not thrown more than 17 passes in Ohio State's previous five games — all wins that clinched a fifth consecutive Big Ten Conference title and the school's first Rose Bowl berth since 1997 — had a personal-best day at quarterback to earn Most Valuable Player honors. The sophomore completed 23 of 37 passes for 266 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. He also led Ohio State in rushing with 72 yards for 338 yards of total offense.

Pryor, quite simply, was masterful in keeping the Ohio State offense on the field for 89 plays and a Rose Bowl record 41 minutes 37 seconds, the stat of the day when considering the high-scoring Duck offense just didn't have the opportunities or the time to come near its 37.7 points-per-game average. Consider:

Pryor led a 10-play, 74-yard drive on Ohio State's first possession that was capped by a Pryor to Brandon Saine touchdown pass covering 13 yards. Saine, who rushed for 45 yards and caught two passes for 59 more on the day, bulldozed through a Duck defender at the 2 to score the TD.

After Oregon came from 10 down to tie the score at 10 and retake momentum in the second quarter, Pryor and the OSU offense went on a 19-play drive that chewed up 8:03 on the clock. Devin Barclay's second of three field goals on the day — from 30 yards — put the Buckeyes back into the lead at 13-10.

A Ross Homan interception with just 25 seconds remaining before intermission gave Pryor just enough time to set up a 45-yard Aaron Pettrey field goal as time expired. The successful kick signaled Pettrey's return from knee surgery that caused the senior to miss the final three games of the regular season.

Pryor and the offense matched Oregon's touchdown to open the third quarter, one that gave the Ducks a 17-16 lead, with an 11-play drive that resulted in a Barclay field goal from 38 yards out, putting Ohio State back into the lead at 19-17.

After each team had a turnover and a punt, Pryor directed a 13-play, 81-yard fourth quarter touchdown drive for a 26-17 lead. Pryor hit Jake Ballard for 24 yards for a key third-down conversion, and then found DeVier Posey in the end zone from 17 yards out for the touchdown.

Posey and the receivers had big days with Pryor on target and his throws on pace. Posey finished with eight receptions for 101 yards and running mate Dane Sanzenbacher had nine for 64 yards. Saine, coming out of the backfield, had a marvelous over the shoulder catch-and-run along the sidelines for a 46-yard gain. Tight end Ballard leaped into the air to bring down Pryor's third-down throw that kept that winning drive going.

Equal credit goes, too, to Ohio State's defense, which limited the Ducks to a mere 260 offensive yards. Leader Jeremiah Masoli threw for only 81 yards and had just nine rushing yards while 1,400-yard rusher LaMichael James managed just 70 yards rushing.

Ross Homan led the Buckeyes with 12 tackles and an interception late in the first half that led to an Ohio State field goal and a 16-10 halftime lead. Thaddeus Gibson had two tackles-for-loss while Cam Heyward and Doug Worthington had one apiece.

The win completed an 11-2 season for Ohio State and it put an end to a number of streaks: it stopped a three-game BCS bowl game losing streak for Ohio State; it snapped a six-game losing skid against teams ranked in the Top 10; and it snapped a six-game Big Ten conference losing streak in the Rose Bowl.

The 2009 senior class, with its Rose Bowl victory, finished with 44 wins, most in Ohio State history.

Jan. 2, 2012, Everbank Field (61,312)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Florida's defense and special teams came up big in the Gator Bowl, recording six sacks and scoring twice as the Gators beat Ohio State 24-17.

Andre Debose returned a kickoff 99 yards - the longest scoring play in bowl history - and Chris Rainey blocked a punt that was returned for a touchdown.

The speedsters helped the Gators (7-6) avoid their first losing season since 1979 and pick up some much-needed momentum after losing six of their previous eight games.

Ohio State (6-7) dropped four straight to finish below .500 for the first time since 1988, and lost seven games for the first time since 1897.

Ohio State fell to 0-10 in bowl games against teams from the Southeastern Conference.

OHIO STATE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS*CRAIG KRENZEL

Craig Krenzel will long be remembered for his role as the starting quarterback on Ohio State's 2002 national championship team. But Krenzel was perhaps even more accomplished in the classroom than he was on the football field. A molecular genetics major, he was named winner of the Socrates Award as a junior, presented by Sporting News Radio to the outstanding student-athlete in the nation. As a senior, Krenzel was named to a first-team berth on the Academic All-America Team and singled out as the Academic All-American of the Year by the College Sports Information Directors of America. He was selected as one of 13 football seniors nationwide to receive a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship. At the NFF awards dinner in New York in December, he was again singled out, this time receiving the Vincent DePaul Draddy Award, as the top scholarship winner. Finally, he capped off a brilliant year by being named a recipient of the NCAA's prestigious Top VIII Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and community involvement.

MIKE LANESE

Mike Lanese always will occupy a special place in the hearts and minds of Ohio State fans everywhere. His clutch grab against Michigan in 1984 has become known as "The Catch" and is one of the most memorable receptions in Ohio State history. But Lanese's legacy also includes some memorable accomplishments in the classroom, where after twice being named to the Academic All-America team, he was named a Rhodes Scholar in 1985. The former OSU flanker is the last Big Ten football player to be so honored. After completing his studies at Oxford, Lanese served in the U.S. Navy.

BOBBY HOYING

Ohio State quarterback Bobby Hoying was one of the National Football Foundation's 13 scholarship recipients in 1995. Additionally, at the awards banquet in New York, Hoying was named winner of the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior scholar-athlete in college football. Hoying was the first Big Ten player ever to receive the award, which is based on athletics, academics and community involvement.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERSNATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND HALL OF FAME SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the top seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Ohio State has produced 20 recipients. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the William V. Campbell Award to the top senior in the group. Buckeyes Bobby Hoying (1995) and Craig Krenzel (2003) are the only Big Ten players to win that award.

NOTE: The list contains full-time assistant football coaches based upon available research material.

ERNIE GODFREY

Ohio State has had several outstanding assistant coaches down through the years. But perhaps none has had more of an impact than the legendary Ernie Godfrey, who spent 33 years on the Ohio State staff, assisting seven different head coaches. Ernie joined the Ohio State ranks in 1929 as an assistant for Sam Willaman. He would go on to work for Francis Schmidt, Paul Brown, Carroll Widdoes, Paul Bixler, Wes Fesler and Woody Hayes before retiring in 1961. After retirement, at the urging of Hayes, he spent 11 years working with the Buckeyes' kickers. An Ohio State graduate, he lettered in football in 1914 with the Buckeyes. Godfrey, who was on the coaching staff of five national championship teams and six Rose Bowl squads, is a member of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. The Columbus chapter of that organization is named after him.
